 - d) a person with previous conviction;
 - e) an electoral subject/a candidate for electoral subject and its representative;
 - f) an observer.
6. Unless a minimum of 2 people are nominated to a vacant position within the timeframe determined by this Law, the competition shall continue until a minimum of 2 people are nominated to the vacant position.

7. The list of candidates shall be published within two days after the deadline for nominating candidates expires.

8. A competition commission shall present to the President of Georgia not less than 2 and not more than 3 candidates for CEC membership for each vacancy not later than five days after the deadline for nominating candidates expires. The President of Georgia shall make a decision on the selection of candidates and recommend 2 candidates to the Parliament of Georgia for one vacant CEC member position not later than seven days after the candidates are selected.

9. The Parliament of Georgia shall elect CEC members under the procedure established by the rules of procedure of the Parliament not later than 14 days after the President of Georgia recommends candidates for CEC membership to the Parliament of Georgia.

10. If all the vacancies are not filled as a result of voting, the rest of the candidates shall be put to vote again. If the vacancy still remains unfilled, the President of Georgia shall, within three days, submit 2 candidates to the Parliament of Georgia for each unfilled vacancy from the list of other candidates participating in the competition. If the vacancy is still not filled, a competition shall be announced for the rest of the vacancies within three days and the nomination procedure shall start over.

11. The same candidate may be nominated only twice.

12. If the term of office of a CEC member elected by the Parliament of Georgia terminates early, for the purpose of electing his/her substitute, the President of Georgia shall, during the nearest session week of the Parliament of Georgia, submit once again to the Parliament of Georgia the names of candidates receiving not less than a majority of votes of the full list of the Parliament of Georgia, or shall announce a competition not later than three days. The same procedure shall apply if such candidates do not exist.

13. A resolution of the Parliament of Georgia regarding the election of a CEC member shall be submitted to the CEC within seven days after its adoption.

Article 13– Procedure for appointing and terminating the term of office of CEC members by parties

1. Six members of the CEC shall be appointed under the procedure established by this article by the parties that were registered by the CEC Chairperson independently or through an electoral bloc for participation in the Parliamentary Elections, which were granted the mandates of members of the Parliament of Georgia under Article 125(4-9) of this Law, and which set up a Parliamentary faction.

2. Parties determined by paragraph 1 of this article shall appoint a CEC member (members) under the following procedure:

a) the number of votes received by a party list shall be multiplied by 6 and divided by the sum of the number of votes received by the parties determined in this article. The whole part of the figure obtained shall be the number of the CEC members that a party may appoint. A party shall not have the right to appoint more than 3 members of the CEC;

b) to determine the number of votes received by a party which participated in the elections through an electoral bloc, for the purposes of this article, the number of votes received by the electoral bloc shall be divided by the number of parties included in the electoral bloc.

[1. Six members of the CEC shall be appointed under the procedure established by this article by the parties that were registered by the CEC Chairperson for participation in the Parliamentary Elections, which were granted the mandates of members of the Parliament of Georgia under Article 125(4, 5 and 9) of this Law and which set up a parliamentary faction.

2. When a CEC member (members) is appointed by parties defined in paragraph 1 of this article, the number of votes received by a party list shall be multiplied by 6 and divided by the sum of the number of votes received by the parties defined in this article. The whole part of the figure obtained shall be the number of the CEC members that a party may appoint. A party shall not have the right to appoint more than 3 members of the CEC. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2024)]

3. If less than 6 members of the CEC are appointed according to the procedure determined by paragraph 2 of this article, in order for the number of the CEC members to make 6, the right to appoint a CEC member shall be granted, based on the sequence of the best results, to the parties determined by paragraph 1 of this article which were not able to appoint a CEC member under paragraph 2 of this article. If a party fails to appoint a CEC member(s) within 7 days after the emergence of such right, the right shall be granted to the parties determined by paragraph 2 of this articlesuccessively.

4. If the number of parties defined in paragraph 2 of this article is more than 6, at the time of appointing a CEC member, the priority shall be given to a party that has received more votes in the elections. The priority at the time of appointing a CEC member shall be given to a party that stands before other parties in the list of members of electoral blocs.

[4. If the number of parties defined in paragraph 2 of this article is more than 6, at the time of appointing a CEC member, the priority shall be given to a party that has received more votes in the elections. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2024)]

5. If, under the procedure established by this article, the number of CEC members still did not make 6, the right to appoint a CEC member to make its number 6 shall be granted to the parties determined by paragraph 2 of this article according to the sequence of the best results.

6. A party may withdraw the CEC member appointed by it. No such withdrawal shall take place during the period from the day of calling elections to the day of summing up the final election results. A party may appoint a new CEC member within the above period only in the case of resignation or death of the appointed member.

Article 20– Procedures for appointing/electing DEC members/head officers

1. A DEC shall consist of 12 members appointed/elected within the period and under the procedure established by this Law by the subjects defined by the same Law.

2. If there is a respective vacancy, a DEC shall elect DEC head officers at the first session from among the commission members, for the term of membership, by a majority vote of the total number of members, through roll-call voting.

3. Not less than 2 members of the commission shall have the right to nominate candidates to the DEC chairperson, deputy chairperson, and secretary.

4. The same candidate may be nominated only twice.

5. If a DEC fails to elect a head officer within the established timeframe, the commission member who receives the most votes during elections shall perform the duties of the head officer until he/she is elected; and in the case of equal votes, the person elected by casting lots shall perform the duties of the head officer.

6. The CEC shall issue an ordinance for the conduct of competition not later than 60 days before the term of office of a DEC member expires or not later than three days after his/her term of office terminates early.

7. The CEC shall elect a DEC member not earlier than 20 and not later than 10 days before the term of office of the DEC member expires. The DEC head officers shall be elected within the same timeframe.

8. If the term of office of a DEC member elected by the CEC terminates early, the CEC shall elect the substitute within 15 days (and within seven days after announcing Election Day). The DEC head officers shall be elected within the same timeframe if their term of office terminates early.

9. The term of office of one DEC member appointed by the CEC under Article 19(5) of this Law, and the term of office of commission members appointed by parties under Article 13 of this Law shall cease immediately after the final results of elections are announced.

10. Candidates for DEC membership shall be selected by open competition.

11. Candidates for DEC membership shall be non-partisan persons with higher education, fluent in the official language of Georgia, and holding a certificate of an Electoral Administration officer.

12. Any capable citizen of Georgia, who has attained the age of 21 and who meets the requirements of this Law, may participate in a competition. The deadline for submission of competition documents shall be as follows:

a) if the term of office expires – within 14 days after the competition is announced;

b) if the term of office terminates early – within 10 days after the competition is announced, and if elections are called – within two days after the competition is announced.

13. A competition application shall specify: first name and last name, education (higher), occupation, scientific degree (if any), address (according to a Georgian citizen's identity card (registration certificate)), work place and position, contact address and telephone number (if any) of a candidate, number and name of an electoral district, in which the candidate wants to become a DEC member. The candidate shall sign the application and shall enclose with it:

- a) two photos;
- b) a photocopy of a Georgian citizen's identity card or a photocopy of a Georgian citizen's passport;
- c) a photocopy of a document of higher education of the candidate (as well as academic (scientific) degree, if any);
- d) a photocopy of a certificate of an Electoral Administration officer;
- e) employment record and description of the election-related experience of the candidate (if any).

14. If the submitted documents are inconsistent with the requirements provided for by this article, the CEC Chairperson shall notify the candidate of it (specifying the discrepancy) within two days. The corrected documents shall be returned to the CEC within two days, but not later than the registration deadline.

15. The CEC shall publish the list of candidates on its official website after the deadline for receiving documents expires.

16. The CEC shall elect DEC members by a roll-call vote. Each candidate shall be voted on separately. A person supported by a majority vote of the total number of CEC members shall be deemed elected. If the number of elected candidates exceeds the number of available vacancies, candidates with the most votes shall be elected. If the winner cannot be determined due to an equal number of votes received by some candidates, the candidates shall be put to a vote immediately in order to determine the winner. If a winner is still not determined, he/she shall be determined by casting lots. If all the vacancies are not filled after polling, the rest of the candidates shall be put to a vote again. If all the vacancies are not yet filled, the competition for the rest of the vacancies shall be announced once again.

17. The following subjects may not be elected/appointed as a DEC member:

- a) a person who has not been granted the certificate of an Electoral Administration officer;
- a¹) a person who has not reached the age of 21 by the date of nomination as a member of the District Election Commission;
- b) a person who has been dismissed from post at the Electoral Administration by the election commission or the court for violating the electoral legislation of Georgia, – for 4 years after the day of his/her dismissal;
- c) a person who has been recognised as an administrative offender by court for violation of the electoral legislation of Georgia, – for 4 years after the entry into legal force of the court decision;
- d) a person with previous conviction (except when a fine has been imposed as a sanction)
- e) an electoral subject/candidate and his/her representative;
- f) an election observer.

18. If a person is elected/appointed as a DEC member, he/she shall, within seven days, meet the requirements defined by this Law for the restriction of activities and official incompatibility.

Article 21– Powers of a DEC

A DEC shall:

- a) ensure, within its powers, the conduct of elections, referenda, and plebiscites, oversee the process of implementation of the electoral legislation of Georgia, and ensure its uniform application;
- b) establish and specify by ordinance the boundaries of electoral precincts;
- c) if a lower PEC is unable or fails to perform the duties assigned to it under the legislation of Georgia, have the right to request the CEC to suspend the powers of that commission by a majority decision of the total number of DEC members;
- d) determine by ordinance the text of ballot papers for the election of municipality bodies to be held in the electoral district;
- e) based on an application/complaint (if the application/complaint is filed under the procedure and within the timeframe determined by this Law) or on its own initiative, verify the legality of actions and decisions made by PECs and their officials (including the accuracy of registration of election participants, counting of ballot papers, etc.), and if violations are determined, make respective decisions (including changing of data in the PEC summary protocol of polling results after the verification or annul polling results in an electoral precinct). If the violation results in the replacement of an elected person in a single-seat district or the replacement of any candidate running in the second round of elections, or the replacement of persons elected in a multi-seat district (when holding elections of municipality bodies), or the change of a decision to declare elections held or to declare failure of elections (according to a majoritarian electoral district and during elections of municipality bodies), and if such a verification is not sufficient for the DEC to establish the legality of the results, the DEC shall make a decision to declare polling results in the respective electoral precinct void and apply to the CEC for setting the date for a repeat vote. If the DEC decides to recount votes, it shall notify all electoral subjects and observer organisations, representatives of which attended the counting of ballot papers at an electoral precinct, and shall ensure, upon request, the attendance of their representatives at the re-counting process;

[e) based on an application/complaint (if the application/complaint is filed under the procedure and within the time limit determined by this Law), and on its own initiative, verify the legality of actions and decisions of PECs and their officials (including the accuracy of keeping record of participants in elections, counting of ballot papers, etc.), and if violations are discovered, make an appropriate decision (including, change the data in the PEC summary protocol of polling results according to the verification results, or annul polling results in an electoral precinct); if the violation results in the replacement of a person elected in a single-seat district or of a candidate participating in the second round of elections, or the replacement of persons elected in a multi-seat electoral district (during elections of municipality bodies), or the change of recognition of elections as held or failed (according to a majoritarian electoral district and during elections of municipality bodies), and when the aforementioned verification fails to allow the DEC to establish legality of the results, it shall make a decision to declare void the polling results in the electoral precinct concerned, and to raise the question before the CEC as to holding a repeat vote. If a DEC makes the decision to re-count votes, the DEC shall communicate this information to all electoral subjects and observer organisations whose representatives were present during counting of ballot papers at an electoral precinct, and shall ensure, if they wish, the attendance of their representatives during the re-counting; (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

- f) based on summary protocols of polling results of PECs, giving consideration to the final decision about violations of the electoral legislation of Georgia, summarize electoral district voting results of respective elections/referenda/plebiscites and draw up a summary protocol of polling results of the DEC;
- g) based on summary protocols of polling results of PECs, taking into account the decision of a district/city court on violations of the electoral legislation of Georgia, prepare the results of elections held under the majoritarian system in majoritarian electoral districts during elections of the Parliament of Georgia, in electoral districts during elections of municipality bodies (except for the Tbilisi Sakrebulo elections) and during Mayoral elections of a self-governing city (except for Tbilisi)/community, and draw up a summary protocol of polling results of the DEC;

[g) based on summary protocols of polling results of PECs, considering the consequence of a decision of a district/city court regarding violation of the electoral legislation of Georgia, determine the results of elections during elections of municipality bodies (except for Tbilisi Sakrebulo elections) and during Mayoral elections of a self-governing city (except for Tbilisi city)/a self-governing community, and in this regard, draw up a summary protocol of the DEC on election results; (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

- h) grant by ordinance the status of a domestic observer of elections/referenda/plebiscites to local non-entrepreneurial (non-commercial) legal entities referred to in this Law;

- i) ensure the conduct of extraordinary elections, re-run elections, repeat voting, and run-off elections;
- i¹) elect by decree representatives of a DEC and define their powers;
- j) ensure the release and publication of election-related information materials;
- k) examine the election-related applications and complaints and make respective decisions within its powers;
- l) facilitate the compiling of lists of voters as determined in this Law and ensure publicity thereof and accessibility thereto;
- m) provide PEC members with workshops and training courses for professional development;
- n) exercise other powers granted by this Law.

Article 25– Procedure for appointing/electing PEC members and head officers

1.If there is a vacancy for a PEC chairperson, deputy chairperson, or secretary, the PEC shall elect the PEC chairperson, deputy chairperson, and secretary at the first session from among the commission members, for the term of membership, by a majority vote of the total number of members, by a roll-call vote. Not less than 2 members shall have the right to nominate a candidate. At the same time, PEC head officers may not be the representatives of the same electoral subject.

2. If a PEC fails to elect its chairperson, deputy chairperson, or secretary within the established timeframe, the commission member who receives the most votes during elections shall perform the duties of the chairperson, deputy chairperson, and secretary until he/she is elected; and in the case of equal votes, the person determined by casting lots shall perform the duties of the chairperson, deputy chairperson, and secretary.

3. The same candidate may be nominated only twice.

4. A DEC shall elect 6 PEC members not earlier than the 50th day and not later than the 46th day before Election Day. Before electing 6 members of the Precinct Election Commission, the list of relevant candidates shall be published on the official website of the CEC. Members of a PEC set up in an exceptional case shall be elected not earlier than the 10th day and not later than the 9th day before Election Day.

5. The CEC shall elect 6 members of the PEC set up abroad not earlier than the 24th day and not later than the 20th day before Election Day.

6. The decision of a party authorised under Article 24(4) of this Law regarding the appointment of a PEC member shall be submitted to an appropriate DEC not earlier than the 45th day and not later than the 40th day before Election Day, while the decision regarding the appointment of a commission member to a PEC set up in an exceptional case shall be submitted to an appropriate DEC not earlier than the 14th day and not later than the 9th day before Election Day; and the decision regarding the appointment of a member of a PEC set up in another state shall be submitted to the CEC after the PEC is set up, not later than the 20th day before Election Day.

6¹. If the party entitled to appoint a member of the commission does not exercise this right within the period established by this law, it shall lose the right to appoint a member of the Precinct Election Commission during the election period of the same election.

7. The respective DEC shall publish the list of PEC members on the official CEC website not later than the 29th day before Election Day, and the list of members of an election commission set up in exceptional cases – not later than the 5th day before Election Day; the CEC shall publish the list of members of a commission set up abroad not later than the 10th day before Election Day.

8. If on the 30th day, and for the commissions set up in exceptional cases, on the eighth day, and for the commissions operating abroad, on the 19th day before Election Day there are less members in the PEC than required, the higher DEC (in the first two cases) and the CEC (in the third case) may elect commission members within three days from among the competing candidates or by announcing another competition. The CEC shall determine the procedure, conditions, and terms of the competition for PEC membership candidates by its ordinance.

9. The decision of an authorised party about withdrawal of a PEC member or appointment of his/her legal successor shall be submitted to the respective PEC and the higher DEC, and for the commissions operating abroad, the decision shall be submitted to the CEC.

10. If a party authorised to appoint the legal successor of a commission member fails to exercise this right after the term of office of the commission member terminates early, or if the term of office of a commission member elected by a DEC or the CEC terminates early and because of this there are fewer members in the commission than required, the DEC or the CEC may appoint a new candidate within five days after the deadline for nominating new candidates expires. In such case, the party shall lose the right to reappoint a member of the Precinct Election Commission during the election period of the same election.

11. The CEC and DEC shall elect PEC members by roll-call vote. Each candidate shall be voted on separately. A person who is supported by a majority vote of the total number of the commission members shall be deemed elected. If the number of elected candidates exceeds the number of available vacancies, candidates with the most votes shall be elected. If the winner cannot be determined due to the equal number of votes received by some candidates, the candidates shall be put to a vote immediately to determine the winner. If a winner is still not determined, he/she shall be determined by casting lots. If all the vacancies are not filled after polling, the CEC shall make an appropriate decision.

12. A decision about the election/appointment of a PEC member shall indicate the first name and last name of the elected/appointed member, also the number of the PEC to which the candidate has been elected/appointed. A party decision on the appointment of a PEC member shall indicate the contact address and telephone number of the appointed commission member. A photocopy of the Georgian citizen's identity card or a photocopy of the Georgian citizen's passport and the consent of the appointed commission member shall be attached to the decision.

13. A person nominated as a PEC member shall not be deemed a PEC member if the time limit for submitting the documents defined in this article has been violated and/or if the documents submitted are incomplete or inaccurate, and the deficiencies in the documents have not been corrected within the time limit under this paragraph. If the submitted documents do not meet the requirement defined by this article, respectively the CEC Chairperson or the DEC chairperson shall, within two days, inform (specifying the discrepancy) the entity that elected/appointed the PEC member. The corrected documents shall be returned respectively to the DEC or the CEC within three days.

13¹. A person appointed by an authorised party as a PEC member shall not be considered a PEC member either if the person appears to be a member of the same or another election commission at the moment of his/her nomination to the DEC, and/or the person nominated fails to meet the requirements under Article 24(5) of this Law. In such a case, the DEC Chairperson shall notify the authorised party about this within two days and shall additionally allow it one day for nomination of a new PEC member.

14. The term of office of a PEC member shall commence at the first session of the PEC and shall terminate upon drawing up of the summary protocol of polling results in the respective DEC.

Article 26– Powers of a PEC

1. A PEC is an interim territorial body of the Electoral Administration of Georgia, which is composed of the subjects referred to in Article 24 of this Law, officials appointed/elected by the CEC and the higher DEC.

2. A PEC shall:

a) within its powers, ensure the conduct of elections, referenda, and plebiscites in an electoral precinct, the implementation of the electoral legislation of Georgia, the compliance of the procedures under the electoral legislation of Georgia during polling, the exercise and the protection of the rights of voters, representatives, and observers guaranteed by the Constitution of Georgia and this Law;

b) verify the accuracy of the lists of voters, consider complaints related to the lists of voters and if errors and inaccuracies are identified, apply to the higher DEC, not later than the following day, for making changes to the lists;

c) based on applications and complaints of voters, draw up a mobile ballot box list;

d) prepare the polling results at an electoral precinct, for which a summary protocol of the polling results of the PEC shall be drawn up;

d¹) when needed, not later than the day following the polling day, draw up a protocol amending the summary protocol of the polling results of the PEC if there are statements of the members of a respective PEC and/or other legal and factual grounds;

e) have the right to bring up a question to the higher DEC, by decision of a majority of the total number of its members, for declaring polling results void;

f) distribute voter invitation cards among voters;

g) be responsible for the posting of information under the electoral legislation of Georgia in electoral precincts, for the proper preparation of the place where polling and ballot counting are to be conducted, and ensure the observance of order at the precinct;

h) on the polling day, consider applications and complaints related to electoral process and polling preparation process and make respective decisions within its powers;

i) guarantee the unconditional exercise of suffrage for voters on the polling day and assume full responsibility for the protection of those rights;

j) cancel decisions made by the PEC chairperson regarding temporary closure of the polling station, cessation of the polling process, reopening of the polling station, and continuation of polling following its closure;

k) exercise other powers granted by the electoral legislation of Georgia.

3. All ordinances issued by a PEC and its chairperson shall be posted at the electoral precinct on the following day.

Article 27– Powers of chairpersons, deputy chairpersons, and secretaries of PECs

1. The PEC chairperson shall:

- a) perform full administrative duties at the PEC;
- b) chair PEC sessions;
- c) receive and distribute electoral documents and correspondence submitted and addressed to the PEC;
- d) assume personal responsibility for the storage and purposeful distribution of ballot papers, special envelopes, commission seals, summary protocols, and other electoral documents;
- e) give assignments to the deputy chairperson, secretary and other members of the commission according to the regulations of the Electoral Administration;
- f) organise the distribution of duties among commission members on the polling day by casting lots;
- g) be responsible for keeping order inside the polling place on the polling day;
- h) not allow persons authorised to be present at the polling station without wearing appropriate badges;
- i) submit all electoral documents to the higher DEC after polling results are summarised;
- j) exercise other powers granted by the electoral legislation of Georgia.

2. The PEC deputy chairperson shall:

- a) perform the duties of the PEC chairperson if the PEC does not have a chairperson or the PEC chairperson is unable to perform his/her duties;
- b) exercise certain powers granted by an ordinance of the PEC chairperson (the ordinance shall clearly specify scopes and terms of the powers).

3. The PEC secretary shall:

- a) draft the PEC ordinances;
- b) be responsible for the release of public information;
- c) draw up minutes of PEC sessions, including summary protocols of polling results;
- d) exercise other powers granted by this Law.

4. If PEC members fail to fulfil the requirements defined by this Law, disciplinary measures provided for by Article 28(1)(2) shall be imposed on them.

Organic Law of Georgia No 5438 of 22 June 2016 – website, 12.7.2016

Article 28– Disciplinary liability measures against PEC and DEC members

1. The following shall constitute disciplinary misconduct by DEC and PEC members:

- a) culpable non-performance or improper performance of official duties;
- b) inflicting or culpably threatening to inflict property damage to the Electoral Administration of Georgia;

- c) absence at work without a good reason;
- d) having missed 3 consecutive PEC sessions without a good reason;
- e) gross violation of the electoral legislation of Georgia and the respective election commission regulations;
- f) refusal to perform the mandatory signing of summary protocols of polling and election results;
- g) non-attendance of training organised by the election administration of Georgia/training centre, without good reason;
- h) neglect or violation of ethical standards, or general rules of conduct aimed at discrediting an officer and the election administration of Georgia, irrespective of whether it is committed in or outside the office.

2. The respective higher DEC may apply the following disciplinary measures against DEC and PEC members for any disciplinary misconduct:

- a) verbal warning;
- b) written warning;
- c) withholding the official salary/part of the official salary;
- d) early termination of powers (except for members appointed by parties).

3. Only one disciplinary measure may be applied for one incident of misconduct.

4. The respective higher election commissions shall apply simple administrative proceedings under the General Administrative Code of Georgia for imposing disciplinary measures against DEC and PEC members. Disciplinary measures imposed on an election commission member shall be appropriate to the gravity of the disciplinary misconduct committed by the commission member.

4¹. If a member of the election commission has been summoned or his/her term of office has been terminated prematurely during the period when he/she is being prosecuted by a court or election commission for disciplinary liability for the violation of the election law, the authorised body shall confirm the violation of law and if the fact is verified the restrictions under Article 12 (5)(b), Article 20 (17)(b) and Article 24 (5)(a) of this Law shall apply.

5. A DEC member shall be deemed as having disciplinary liability within one year from imposition of a disciplinary measure, while a PEC member shall be deemed as such within two years.

6. A respective superior election commission shall be authorised to prematurely lift the disciplinary liability from a DEC member, while it may lift the disciplinary liability from a PEC member one year after a disciplinary measure was imposed. A disciplinary liability shall be prematurely lifted under the same procedure as it was imposed.

Article 29– Early termination of tenure of election commission members/head officers

1. The tenure of CEC Chairperson/member shall terminate early by a resolution of the Parliament of Georgia (except for the CEC members appointed by parties referred to in Article 13 and other cases defined by this Law), and for DEC or PEC members – by ordinance of the higher election commission (except as provided for by paragraph 6 of this article and Article 13 of this Law), provided that:

- a) an election commission member fails, within seven days after his/her election, to cease activities and/or office that is incompatible with the commission member status;
- b) an election commission member takes over a position incompatible with the commission member status under this Law;
- c) the fact that an activity is incompatible with the status of the election commission member has been disclosed;
- d) the data specified in the documents submitted for membership competition is inaccurate – from the day of the disclosure;
- e) a member fails to fulfil the duties and powers of the CEC or DEC chairperson/member for two consecutive months or has not attended 3 consecutive sessions of the CEC or DEC without a good reason;
- f) there is a guilty verdict of a court, or an election commission member violates the electoral legislation of Georgia and the violation is confirmed by a court – in the case of the entry into force of a court decision;
- g) an election commission member is withdrawn by the party that appointed him/her as determined by this Law – in the case of the filing of an application for withdrawal;
- h) the status of an election commission member, as a voter, is cancelled;
- i) there are cases of systematic or gross violation of the electoral legislation of Georgia, regulations of the Electoral Administration, or there are other respective basis under the Law of Georgia on Public Service.

1¹. If a member of the commission is elected/appointed as a member of the same or another election commission, his/her powers shall be prematurely terminated from the day when a legal act about his/her election/appointment becomes effective, and the respective election commission shall note that information and include it in the election commission session protocol.

2. If the election commission chairperson, deputy chairperson, commission secretary is resigned:

- a) an application of resignation of the CEC Chairperson shall be submitted to the Parliament of Georgia;
- b) an application of resignation of the CEC Deputy Chairperson and Secretary shall be submitted to the CEC;
- c) an application of resignation of DEC or PEC chairperson, deputy chairperson, secretary shall be submitted to the respective election commission.

3. The CEC Chairperson shall be dismissed early by a resolution of the Parliament of Georgia, and the CEC Deputy Chairperson, Secretary, DEC or PEC chairperson, deputy chairperson, and secretary shall be dismissed early by an ordinance of the respective election commission.

4. In the case of death of an elected CEC member, the Parliament of Georgia shall note that fact and include it in the plenary session protocol of the Parliament of Georgia. In the case of death of an elected DEC member, the CEC shall note that information and include it in the CEC session protocol.

5. Dismissal of an election commission chairperson, deputy chairperson, and secretary on the same grounds, also an application for early termination of tenure of an election commission member twice in a row within six months shall be prohibited.

6. The tenure of election commission members appointed by parties under paragraph 1 of this article (except as provided in paragraph 1(g) of this article and Article 13 of this Law) shall terminate early by a court decision.

7. If one of the grounds referred to in paragraph 1 of this article exists, the Parliament of Georgia shall discuss and decide upon the resignation, early termination of tenure of the election commission chairperson, deputy chairperson, or secretary within 15 days, or within five days when the decision is made by an authorised election commission. A decision shall be made according to the same procedure as applied during the election process.

8. Unless an application of resignation/early termination of powers is satisfied within the timeframe provided for by this article, the election commission chairperson, deputy chairperson, or secretary shall be deemed to have resigned, and the tenure of the election commission member shall be deemed automatically terminated from the day following the expiration of the above timeframe.

9. An election commission member may not be withdrawn within the last 15 days before polling day, on the polling day and on the day following the polling day.

Organic Law of Georgia No 3269 of 21 July 2018 – website, 27.7.2018

Article 30– Legal acts of the Electoral Administration of Georgia

1. Legal acts of the Electoral Administration of Georgia shall be:

a) a decree and an ordinance of the CEC, an order and an ordinance of the CEC Chairperson, an ordinance of the CEC Secretary, a summary protocol of polling results of the CEC;

b) a DEC ordinance, an ordinance of the commission chairperson, an ordinance of the commission secretary, a summary protocol of polling and election results of a DEC;

c) a PEC ordinance, an ordinance of the commission chairperson, a summary protocol of polling results of a PEC.

2. A CEC decree is a subordinate normative act that may be passed only in cases directly defined by law. A decree may also be passed in exceptional cases, from the commencement until the end of elections, if it becomes necessary to resolve issues that are not covered by this Law but are required for holding elections. A manual, describing separate electoral procedures, may be adopted by a decree, which shall not contain standards that are new or different from the standards defined in this Law but may contain detailed description of the procedures determined by this Law.

3. A CEC decree shall be deemed adopted if supported by at least two-thirds of the total number of CEC members. A CEC decree shall be signed by the Chairperson of a respective CEC session and the CEC Secretary. A CEC decree shall enter into force immediately after its publication in the Legislative Herald of Georgia (“Sakartvelos Sakanonmdblo Matsne”), unless a later date is defined by the same decree. A CEC decree may not be adopted within the last four days before the polling day. A CEC decree may be appealed from the moment of its adoption. A CEC decree shall be placed on the CEC website within 24 hours following its adoption.

4. Ordinances of an election commission, its chairperson, and secretary, summary protocols of polling results are individual administrative-legal acts adopted/issued in cases and within the scope defined in this Law and CEC decree. Commission ordinances shall be signed by the chairperson of a respective commission session and the commission secretary, while other ordinances shall be signed by the issuing official. Summary protocols shall be signed by authorized officers as defined in this Law. A commission ordinance shall be deemed adopted, unless other quorum is identified by this Law, if it is supported by a majority of those present at the session, but not less than one-third of all members of the commission.

5. An order of the CEC Chairperson is an individual legal act issued with regard to intra-agency issues including human resources.

6. Implementation of decisions of the CEC, DEC, PEC, and their member officials within their powers shall be mandatory respectively throughout the territory of Georgia, the electoral district, and the electoral precinct.

Chapter III– Lists of Voters

Article 31– Unified list of voters and its formation procedure

1. The unified list of voters shall be a list of individuals having active suffrage and registered under the procedure defined by the legislation of Georgia and shall be divided by electoral precincts.

2. The unified list of voters shall include the following data of voters:

- a) first and last name;
- b) date of birth (day, month, year);
- c) address (according to a Georgian citizen's identity card or the Agency database, which also includes the place of registration abroad);
- d) personal number of a citizen of Georgia;
- e) actual place of residence (for IDPs from the occupied territories of Georgia or for individuals registered without an indication of address, for individuals removed from registration according to their place of residence, as well as for individuals whose registration has been declared invalid by a decision of the Agency, a temporary place of residence shall be indicated; for individuals living abroad, 'on a consular registry' shall be indicated, and, if individuals living abroad are not on a consular registry of Georgia, 'staying abroad' shall be indicated);
- f) date of entering in the unified list of voters;
- g) photo (the latest digital photo available in the electronic database of the Agency);
- h) sex.

3. Usually, the data of voters shall be entered into the unified list of voters according to their place of registration. IDPs from the occupied territory of Georgia, if their registration address is in the occupied territory of Georgia according to a Georgian citizen's identity card or the Agency database, shall be entered into the unified list of voters according to their actual place of residence.

4. The CEC shall be responsible for creation of a unified list of voters, its computer processing, and posting on the official CEC website of the information designated as public (first name, last name; photo; date of birth; address according to the Georgian citizen's identity card or according to the Agency database, also, an address of actual place of residence – for internally displaced persons (IDPs) from the occupied territories of Georgia, for individuals registered without an indication of address, individuals removed from registration according to their place of residence and for those whose registration has been declared invalid by a decision of the Agency; the date of registration of a voter in the unified list of voters).

5. The unified list of voters shall be drawn up based on the data:

- a) held in the Agency database on the persons registered in their respective territories according to their place of residence, including the data on the persons who will have reached the age of 18 by Election Day, also based on the data of deceased persons. The unified list of voters shall not contain the data of persons whose identity documents last issued to them have been cancelled due to falsification or invalidation, or who have not obtained a valid ID card or passport of a Georgian citizen by the time of the current elections, unless those persons register at the Agency not later than the 13th day before the Election Day;
- b) communicated by respective municipality bodies about deceased individuals whose relatives have not applied to the Agency for a death certificate, also based on data received about changes to street and house names/numbers;
- c) communicated by the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia and/or its territorial agencies about the IDPs from the occupied territories of Georgia;
- d) communicated by the Ministry of Defence of Georgia, the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, the State Security Service of Georgia, the Georgian Intelligence Service, and the Special State Protection Service about the military personnel and persons with a special rank, and by the state sub-agency institution within the system of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – Special Penitentiary Service about the personnel whose service conditions require their presence at an address different from their place of registration, which falls within another electoral district;
- e) communicated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia about the voters on a consular registry of Georgia;
- f) communicated by the Legal Entity under Public Law subject to state control of the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia – the Agency for State Care and Support to Victims and Affected Persons of Human Trafficking about persons who, by the court decision, have been recognised as beneficiaries of support and have been placed in an appropriate inpatient medical facility;
- g) communicated by the state sub-agency institution within the system of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – Special Penitentiary Service about persons who have been imposed with imprisonment as a preventive measure, who have been sentenced to deprivation of liberty for less grave or grave crimes, and about the persons who have been sentenced to deprivation of liberty for especially grave crimes but who will be released from a penitentiary facility by Election Day due to expiry of the sentence.

6. In order for the CEC to update a unified list of voters and the electronic database of the list:

a) the agencies referred to in subparagraphs (a-c) of this article shall submit updated or new data to the CEC on eligible voters four times a year – on 1 February, 1 May, 15 July, and 1 November of each year while the agencies listed in subparagraphs (f) and (g) of the same paragraph shall submit updated or new data to the CEC on persons having no voting rights within the same time frames;

b) state/autonomous republic and municipality bodies shall, within the scope of their authority, inform the CEC and the Agency within 10 days after making a decision to give a name to geographical objects – municipalities, settlements, administrative units of a self-governing city, historically formed neighbourhoods, micro-districts, other territorial units, squares, avenues, highways, streets, lanes, cul-de-sacs, passages, embankments, esplanades, boulevards, and alleys.

6¹. The CEC may, for the purpose of updating the unified list of voters and the electronic database of the list, as needed, make a request for and receive, within 3 days after the request, from institutions specified in paragraph 5(a-c) of this article the data of persons having suffrage, and from institutions specified in paragraph 5(f) and (g) of this article – the data of persons without suffrage.

7. A party or an electoral bloc having gone through electoral registration, an initiative group of voters registered under this Law, an observer organisation defined in Article 39 of this Law (during the non-election period – an observer organisation registered during the last general elections), or a voter shall have the right to familiarise themselves with a version of the voters list available at the CEC, DEC or PEC that is designated for public information (an initiative group of voters may familiarise itself with only a version of the list of voters registered within the limits of a respective majoritarian electoral district, which is designated for public information. A voter may only request to familiarise himself/herself with all data available about himself/herself and his/her family members and to amend them), and request, if any inaccuracy is discovered, not later than the 18th day prior to the Election Day, or at any time during a non-election period, that the data of voters and the voters lists be amended. The data shall be available and a copy shall be granted under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia for accessing and granting public information.

[7. A party having the electoral registration, an initiative group of voters registered under this Law (for the elections of municipality bodies), an observer organisation defined in Article 39 of this Law (and in the non-election period – an observer organisation registered during the last general elections), or a voter shall have the right to familiarise himself/herself/itself with a version of the voters list available at the CEC, DEC or PEC that is designated for public information (an initiative group of voters may familiarise itself with only a version of the list of voters registered within the limits of a respective majoritarian electoral district, which is designated for public information. A voter may only request to familiarise himself/herself with all data available about himself/herself and his/her family members and to amend them), and request, if any inaccuracy is discovered, not later than the 18th day prior to the Election Day, or at any time during a non-election period, that the data of voters and the voters lists be amended. The data shall be available and a copy shall be granted under the procedure established by the legislation of Georgia for accessing and granting public information. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

7¹. A public version of the unified list of voters with photos shall be released to the persons indicated in paragraph 7 of this article only in electronic form. To obtain the list, an authorised person shall present to the Agency an electronic storage device with adequate storage capacity.

7². To comply with the requirements under Article 85(1) and Articles 85² and 85⁴ of the Organic Law of Georgia the Local Self-Government Code, for ensuring participation of citizens (voters) in exercising local self-governance, an executive body of a self-governing city/self-governing community may be forwarded, based on its written request, a version of the list of voters registered within the limits of a respective municipality, which is designated for public information (without photos). The body of the respective self-governing city/self-governing community shall be responsible for protection and non-disclosure of the unified list of voters forwarded by the CEC, which contains personal data.

8. During the election period, the Electoral Administration of Georgia shall verify the lists of voters. A DEC shall review the verification results and make respective decisions within two days after receiving an application but not later than the 16th day prior to the Election Day. A decree issued by the DEC about the refusal to amend the data of voters/the lists of voters shall be well founded and submitted to an applicant on the day following its publication, upon request.

8¹. For the purposes under paragraph 8 of this article, the Agency/the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia and/or its territorial bodies shall immediately provide a DEC with appropriate information if so requested by the DEC.

9. A DEC decree for making amendments to the data of voters/the lists of voters shall be submitted to the CEC and respective PEC within twodays.
10. A DEC decree about the refusal to amend the data of voters/the lists of voters may be appealed to any respective district/city court within twodays. If a lawsuit is satisfied by the court, the court decision shall be submitted to the DEC within two days, but not later than the 13th day prior to the Election Day. The DEC shall immediately submit appropriate information to the CEC and the respective PEC. Election commissions shall immediately make respective amendments to the data of voters/lists of voters.
11. A PEC shall be provided with a version of the unified list of voters designated for public information and certified by the CEC, not later than the day of its first meeting, and the final version of the updated lists designated for public information – not later than the second day prior to the Election Day, and the final version of the verified lists of voters designated for the CEC – not later than 12 hours prior to voting. The versions of the unified list of voters designated for public information (without photos) shall be immediately posted in a visible place inside the PEC building.
12. A DEC shall decide by ordinance the matter of registration of voters who have failed to go through registration within the time frame defined in law, provided that an application and other respective documents (entry in a Georgian citizen's passport about crossing the state border, certificate from an inpatient facility, certificate of release from a penitentiary institution) are submitted. The DEC shall consider the application of a voter within two days after its submission, or immediately if less than two days are left before Election Day. The voter shall be notified of a negative decision immediately. If such voter applies to the Electoral Administration on polling day for participating in elections, the voter shall be registered by the respective PEC and shall attach photocopies of respective documents to the lists of voters.
13. It shall be prohibited to amend the lists of voters within the last 12 days prior to the Election Day, except as provided for in paragraph 12 of this article, and amendments from the 15th day to the 12th day prior to the Election Day may be made only by a court decision.
14. The CEC shall, within five days after calling elections and thereafter not later than the fifth day before polling, post the total number of voters in Georgia and in every electoral district in Georgia on its website.

Article 32– Special lists of voters

1. The following shall be entered into the special lists of voters:

a) Electoral Administration officers who are unable to vote in elections on the polling day according to their place of registration because of their activities in election commissions: the respective DEC shall enter Electoral Administration officers in the list of pre-defined electoral precincts not later than the fifth day before the polling day;

b) voters who undergo treatment in a hospital or in any other inpatient facility and who cannot be discharged from hospital on polling day because of their health problems: the head of the relevant medical institution shall draw up a list of those individuals and shall submit it to the respective DEC not later than the sixth day before the polling day;

c) voters serving a sentence in prison on the polling day. The head of the relevant penitentiary institution shall draw up a list of these individuals and shall submit it to the respective DEC not later than on the sixth day before polling;

d¹) voters that are in administrative detention on the polling day. The head of the relevant institution shall draw up a list of such individuals and shall submit it to the respective DEC not later than six days before polling;

d) military personnel and persons with a special rank of the Ministry of Defence of Georgia, the Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia, the state sub-agency institution within the system of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – Special Penitentiary Service, the State Security Service of Georgia, the Georgian Intelligence Service, and the Special State Protection Service whose service conditions or health conditions require their presence at an address different from their place of registration, which falls within another electoral district. Lists of such personnel shall be compiled by commanders of respective divisions/units or heads of respective institutions/divisions and shall be submitted to appropriate DEC:

d.a) in the case of general and extraordinary elections and by-elections – not later than on the 25th day before the polling day;

d.b) not later than on the sixth day before the polling day, taking into account the results of conscription;

d¹) (deleted – 2.7.2020, No 6723);

e) voters who are staying abroad on the polling day and who are registered with a consular office of Georgia, voters who are registered abroad but are not registered with a consular office of Georgia, and voters who are not registered with a consular office of Georgia and are not registered abroad but will go through electoral registration not later than the 21st day before Election Day in a PEC set up abroad, at a diplomatic mission of Georgia abroad or in a consular office of Georgia. The list of these individuals (except for persons registered abroad) shall be drawn up by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia and shall be submitted to the CEC not later than the 20th day before the polling day. During the period of election of the Parliament of Georgia, from calling the election till not later than the 21st day before Election Day, a voter shall be exempted from payment of a consular fee charged for consular registration. The Agency shall draw up the list of persons registered abroad and shall submit it to the CEC not later than the 20th day before the polling day;

f) (deleted – 22.6.2016, No 5441).

1¹. A list of service conditions of servicemen provided for by paragraph 1(d) of this article, which require their presence at an address different from their place of registration on election day; the procedure and conditions for compiling a list of such servicemen and submitting it to a relevant DEC; and creating appropriate conditions for their participation in elections, as well as a list of conditions for those particular service conditions and categories of relevant persons who cannot leave their workplace on polling day due to these conditions shall be determined by an ordinance of the Government of Georgia.

1². (Deleted – 26.7.2017, No 1274).

2. The head of the relevant institution shall be responsible for the accuracy of data entered in the special list of voters that shall be endorsed by his/her signature.

3. A DEC shall, based on the data of persons specified in paragraph 1 of this article, as well as on its own data, draw up the special lists and approve them by decree not later than the 3rd day prior to the Polling Day, and shall immediately forward the versions designated for public information to a respective PEC with signatures of the chairperson and secretary of the PEC, and not later than 12 hours prior to polling – the versions designated for the CEC.

4. If voters are entered in a special list of voters, a respective note shall be made in the unified list of voters of an electoral precinct and shall be endorsed by signatures of the PEC chairperson and secretary.

5. Voters entered on a special list of voters, based on paragraphs (a-c) and (d) of this article shall vote in:

a) both majoritarian and proportional elections, provided that voters change their whereabouts within the territory of the same electoral district or the same local electoral district in the case of municipal elections;

b) parliamentary elections of Georgia held through the proportional electoral system and presidential elections and referenda of Georgia, provided that voters cast their votes in another electoral district.

5¹. Voters included in a special list of voters based on paragraph 1(d) of this article shall participate in elections held through majoritarian and/or proportional electoral system in accordance with the procedure established by paragraphs (5²), (5³) and (6) of this article.

5². Voters included in a special list of voters based on paragraph 1(d) of this article shall cast their votes according to the place of deployment of a relevant military division/unit in an electoral district(s) determined by a DEC for the purposes of participating in elections of the Parliament of Georgia held through majoritarian/proportional electoral system, Presidential elections of Georgia, and elections of municipal bodies, as well as in referenda.

5³. Based on paragraph 1(d) of this article, voters included in a special list of voters shall participate in:

a) elections of the Parliament of Georgia held through proportional electoral system and Presidential elections of Georgia, as well as in referenda;

b) elections of the Parliament of Georgia held through majoritarian electoral system if he/she is deployed at a given location, permanently, on election day, at least for 6 months before election day and at least for 6 months after election day, or he/she changes his/her whereabouts within the territory of the same electoral precinct;

c) elections of the Parliament of Georgia held through proportional electoral system and Presidential elections of Georgia, as well as in referenda if he/she is abroad on polling day.

5⁴. Servicemen of institutions defined by paragraph 1(d) of this article, except the cases provided for by the same paragraph, shall vote in elections of the Parliament of Georgia held through proportional/majoritarian electoral system, Presidential elections of Georgia, and elections of municipal bodies, as well as in referenda, in accordance with their place of registration.

[5. Voters entered on the special list of voters based on paragraph 1(a, c, e) of this article shall participate in:

a) elections held under both majoritarian election system and proportional election system, if they change their location within the territory of the same local majoritarian electoral district (during elections of the municipal bodies);

b) elections of the Parliament of Georgia and a referendum, if they cast their votes in the territory of another electoral district.

5¹. A voter entered on the special list of voters based on paragraph 1(d) of this article shall participate in elections held under proportional election system under the procedure established by paragraphs (5²), (5³) and (6) of this article.

5². A voter entered on the special list of voters based on paragraph 1(d) of this article shall cast his/her vote, in order to participate in elections of the Parliament of Georgia, elections of the municipal bodies, and in a referendum according to the place of deployment of an appropriate military division/unit at an electoral district (districts) defined by a respective DEC.

5³. A voter entered on the special list of voters based on paragraph 1(d) of this article shall participate in:

a) elections of the Parliament of Georgia and a referendum;

b) elections of the Parliament of Georgia and a referendum, if he/she is abroad on the polling day.

5⁴. Employees of the institutions defined in paragraph 1(d) of this article, except as provided for by the same paragraph, shall vote in elections of the Parliament of Georgia, elections of the municipal bodies, and in a referendum according to their place of registration. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

6. During the elections of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo, or during the elections of a Mayor of a self-governing city (including Tbilisi) or a self-governing community, a serviceman provided for by paragraph (1)(d) of this article, that on the polling day is deployed:

a) at a given location, permanently, on election day, at least for 6 months before election day and at least for 6 months after election day, or for a longer term, shall participate in the Sakrebulo elections held under both majoritarian and proportional systems and in the Mayoral elections;

b) at a permanent location for a period shorter than provided for by subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, shall participate in the Sakrebulo elections held under the proportional system, however, the servicemen shall participate in the Mayoral elections and in the Sakrebulo elections held under the majoritarian system only if their location is within the borders of the electoral district/local majoritarian electoral district, respectively, in which they are registered according to their place of residence.

7. (Deleted – 22.6.2016, No 5441).

7¹. The special lists of voters shall contain the same data of the voters as are included in the unified list of voters. This shall not apply to voters specified in paragraph (1)(a-c) of this article, whose data are entered into the special list of voters without photos, and also to the voters specified in paragraph (1)(d.b) of this article, whose data may be entered in the special list of voters without photos. The data on dates of starting and finishing work at the place of respective deployment of voters defined by paragraph 1 (d) of this article shall be entered into the special list of voters as well.

8. If a voter is entered into a mobile ballot box list, the special list of voters shall specify 'mobile box', the reason for entering the voter into the list and shall be endorsed by signatures of the PEC chairperson and secretary.

Article 33– Mobile ballot box list

1. A mobile ballot box list shall be drawn up based on unified and special lists of voters (except for the voters staying abroad on polling day) if:

a) a voter is unable to visit the polling station due to health problems;

b) a voter is in prison;

b¹) a voter is in administrative detention;

c) a voter is in hospital or in any other inpatient facility for treatment where no electoral precinct will be opened;

d) a voter:

d.a) is a military serviceman serving in a military unit or a border police unit at the state border of Georgia that is located far from the electoral precinct, where no electoral precinct will be opened;

d.b) is a person indicated in Article 1(d), and during the polling period cannot leave his/her workplace due to service conditions or health conditions;

d.c) serves at the state sub-agency institution within the system of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – Special Penitentiary Service and cannot leave his/her workplace due to service conditions.

e) a voter is within the territory of the electoral district but his/her location is difficult to access.

2. If a voter is unable to visit polling station on polling day, he/she shall apply to the PEC for mobile voting at least two days before the polling day. On the polling day, a DEC shall transfer information of any voter undergoing treatment at an inpatient facility to the respective PEC not later than two days before the polling day. The voter shall be entered into the mobile ballot box list after:

a) the PEC secretary registers and endorses with his/her signature a written application (the application shall include the personal identification number of a citizen of Georgia) or a telephoned verbal application (in this case, the application shall include the personal number of a voter, exact time of the telephone notification and the appropriate telephone number) of a voter;

b) the transfer of a voter into the mobile ballot box list is specified in the unified or special lists of voters that shall be endorsed by signatures of the PEC chairperson and secretary.

3. Information of voters to be entered into the mobile ballot box list shall immediately be posted in a visible place in the building of the polling station precinct. PEC members, representatives of electoral subjects, and observers shall have the right to verify whether the request for mobile voting is well-substantiated and shall raise a question before the PEC whether it is advisable to enter those voters in the mobile ballot box list any time before Election Day. The PEC shall decide on the above issue.

4. Number of voters defined in paragraph 1(a) of this article shall not exceed 3 percent of the voters on the unified list of voters per electoral precinct. After reaching the maximum number of voters, the respective DEC shall decide on adding more voters to the mobile ballot box list by the two-thirds of members attending the DEC session.

5. A mobile ballot box list shall contain the same data of voters that are entered in the unified list of voters, except for their photos and the serial number of those voters shall be additionally indicated in the unified or special list of voters.

6. A mobile ballot box list shall be posted, as soon as it is drawn up, in a visible place within PEC premises and polling stations.

Article 34– Publication of the lists of voters

1. The PEC shall, on the first day of the commission session, put up the lists of voters and the procedures defined by law for filing complaints about the lists of voters, as well as shall put up the mobile ballot box list, immediately after it is drawn up, in a conspicuous place at the PEC premises and polling stations. The PEC chairperson shall be responsible for failure to meet these requirements.

2. In the lists referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, based on the verification of data entered into the lists within the timeframe defined by this Law, in the cell 'Actual Status' alongside the last name of a voter who:

a) is registered with a consular office of Georgia abroad, 'on a consular registry' shall be specified;

b) is staying abroad but is not registered with a consular office of Georgia, 'stays abroad' shall be specified;

b¹) registered abroad, 'registered abroad' shall be specified;

c) is doing fixed-term military service or contractual military service at the defence forces and military units of Georgia, 'doing military service' shall be specified;

d) is entered into a special list of voters, either 'member of commission', 'in hospital', or 'imprisoned' shall be specified;

e) is entered into the mobile ballot box list, 'mobile ballot box' shall be specified.

Chapter IV– Registration of Electoral subjects and Lists of Supporters

Article 36– Registration of electoral subjects

1. In order to obtain the right to run in elections, the chairperson of the relevant election commission shall register electoral subjects based on procedures defined by this Law.
2. In order to be registered, electoral subjects shall submit an application and relevant documents to the respective election commission as defined in this Law.
3. The respective office of the election commission shall, within the time frame defined by this Law, examine the submitted documents and present a report to the commission chairperson who is authorised to make a decision on registration. If the submitted documents do not meet the requirements defined in this Law, the election commission chairperson shall, within two days (unless another time frame is provided for by this Law), inform the representative of a party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters about the decision (specifying the discrepancy) and give them three days (unless another time frame is provided for by this Law) to adjust documents. The election commission shall, within two days after submission of documents (unless another time frame is provided for by this Law), re-examine corrected the documents and decide upon registration. In the case of refusal to provide registration, the election commission shall forthwith communicate its decision to the representative of a party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters that is authorised to be informed of the decision immediately upon request.

[3. The respective office of the election commission shall, within the time frame defined by this Law, examine the submitted documents and present a report to the commission chairperson who is authorised to make a decision on registration. If the submitted documents do not meet the requirements defined in this Law, the election commission chairperson shall, within two days (unless another time frame is provided for by this Law), inform the representative of a party/an initiative group of voters about the decision (specifying the discrepancy) and give them three days (unless another time frame is provided for by this Law) to adjust documents. The election commission shall, within two days after submission of documents (unless another time frame is provided for by this Law), re-examine corrected the documents and decide upon registration. In the case of refusal to provide registration, the election commission shall forthwith communicate its decision to the representative of a party/an initiative group of voters that is authorised to be informed of the decision immediately upon request. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

Article 37– Lists of supporters

1. Voters shall endorse the initiative of an electoral subject to run in an election by signing the form of the list of supporters.
2. The CEC shall by ordinance approve a sample of the form of the list of supporters.
3. The form of a list of supporters shall include a voter's:

- a) the first and last name;
- b) the date of birth (day/month/year);
- c) the personal number of the citizen of Georgia;
- d) (deleted – 2.7.2020, No 6723);
- e) the date of signature;
- f) the signature.

4. The form of a list of supporters shall contain the first name and last name, personal number and contact telephone number of the person responsible for collecting signatures, as well as the date of completing the form. The person responsible for collecting signatures shall endorse the form by his/her signature.

5. The upper left corner of the form of the list of supporters shall specify the name (first and last name) of an electoral subject whose initiative to run in elections is supported by voters.

Article 38 – Verification of the lists of supporters

1. The lists of party supporters shall be verified by the CEC, while the lists of supporters of other candidates shall be verified by an appropriate DEC.

2. The election commission shall verify the signatures in turn on the forms of the lists of supporters. If the number of signatures of supporters is less than the minimum amount required or if the number of signatures of supporters, taking into account the signatures invalidated as a result of verification, is less than the minimum amount required, the invalidated part of the list of supporters shall be returned to the respective electoral subject and shall be given two days to correct the discrepancy. The election commission shall, as defined above, verify once again the corrected part of the lists of supporters submitted by the electoral subject. If the number of signatures of supporters is still less than the minimum amount required, the election commission shall completely invalidate the list of supporters and shall, by ordinance of the commission chairperson, refuse to register the electoral subject.

3. The signature of a voter in the list of supporters shall be considered invalid if:

- a) the first and last names are not specified or are incompletely specified;
- b) the date of birth (day, month, year) is not specified or is incompletely specified;
- c) (deleted – 2.7.2020, No 6723);
- d) the date of signature is not specified or does not meet the deadline defined by this Law for drawing up the list of supporters;
- e) it is not signed or is signed by another person and this is confirmed in writing by the voter in whose stead the list was signed;
- f) a voter listed as a supporter of a candidate nominated in an electoral district is registered in another electoral district;
- g) a signatory, by an application submitted to the respective election commission, confirms that the list was signed by deception, intimidation, or under pressure, and the signature on the application was notarized;
- h) the personal number of a citizen of Georgia is specified incompletely or inaccurately.

4. A signature shall be considered invalid if it is made on a form not endorsed by the person in charge of collecting signatures or if such a form does not include data or includes incomplete data referred to in Article 37(4) of this Law.

4¹. The person responsible for collecting signatures shall be personally responsible for the authenticity of the data/information on the relevant form, his/her signature and the signature of the supporting person. In the case of violation of this requirement, he/she shall personally bear the responsibility provided for by law.

5. The deadline for verifying the list of supporters of a party shall be 10 days after its submission, while the deadline for verifying the list of supporters of a candidate shall be three days after its submission.

6. Representatives of electoral subjects may attend the process of verification of the list of supporters.

7. Only the CEC members, respective DEC members, and appropriate officers of the CEC, as well as the court, if appealed to court, may have access to the lists of supporters. The lists of supporters shall be destroyed within 10 days after the expiration of the timeframe for bringing a lawsuit to the court about electoral registration.

Organic Law of Georgia No 6723 of 2 July 2020 – website, 3.7.2020

Article 38¹ – Determination of a sequence number for an electoral subject

1. A sequence number of an electoral subject shall be determined under the procedure established by this article not later than the 30th day before the Election Day. In order to determine the sequence number of an electoral subject, the appropriate procedures shall be performed at the premises of a respective election commission in the presence of persons authorised to attend sessions of the election commission.

2. An electoral subject/candidate for electoral subject that has received 0.75% or more than 0.75% of votes in the last general elections held under the proportional system may, not later than the 57th day before elections, apply to a respective election commission and request that it participate in the elections with a sequence number which was assigned to it during the last general elections.

3. If a sequence number was assigned to an electoral bloc under paragraph 2 of this article during the last general elections, the first party specified on the list of the electoral bloc members shall be allowed to use this number.

4. If an electoral bloc has been formed by parties, of which at least one party is allowed to have a sequence number under paragraph 2 of this article, the electoral bloc shall have the right to request that the sequence number be assigned to it by casting lots, or specify in the statute of the electoral bloc the sequence number of which party with this right it will use.

5. An electoral subject/candidate for electoral subject may, not later than the 57th day before elections, refuse to use a sequence number assigned to it under the procedure established by paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article. In this case, it, and an electoral subject which did not participate in the last general elections or participated in it as part of an electoral bloc and which was not specified first on the list of the bloc members, shall be assigned a sequence number by casting lots.

6. In order to cast lots, the commission chairperson shall write the numbers corresponding to the quantity of parties and electoral blocs independently running in the elections on the sheets of paper of the same form and type, and with the same pen. Natural numbers (1, 2, 3, etc.) shall be used for the sequence numbers. If the sequence number of an electoral subject with the right to choose a sequence number is higher than the quantity of the electoral subjects and the electoral subject retains the number, the number of this electoral subject shall be written down instead of the highest sequence number. Each sheet of paper shall be certified by the seal of the election commission. After the sheets of paper are certified, the sequence numbers that were chosen according to the procedure established in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article shall be set aside. All remaining sheets of paper shall be folded in such a way as to make it impossible to read the numbers written on them. The CEC Chairperson shall place the filled out sheets of paper in a transparent box, and the representatives of the parties and electoral blocs shall, one by one, take the sheets of paper out of the box according to the sequence of the electoral registration they have gone through. The number identified by casting lots shall become the sequence number of an electoral subject.

7. A candidate for President of Georgia/candidate for Mayor/majoritarian candidate nominated by a party/electoral bloc shall have the same sequence number that is assigned to the party/electoral bloc which has nominated him/her.

8. A respective DEC shall assign a sequence number to the candidate nominated by an initiative group of voters, by casting lots. In order to cast lots, the DEC chairperson shall write, on the sheets of paper, the number of which corresponds to the quantity of majoritarian candidates/candidates for Mayor nominated by the initiative group of voters in the electoral district, of the same form and type and with the same pen, the numbers which start from the numeric following the highest sequence number assigned to the parties/electoral blocs running in elections. Each sheet of paper shall be certified by the seal of the DEC concerned. Each sheet of paper shall be folded in such a way as to make it impossible to read the numbers written on them. The respective DEC chairperson shall place the filled out sheets of paper in a transparent box, and the representatives of the initiative group of voters shall, one by one, take the sheets of paper out of the box. The number identified by casting lots shall become the number of an electoral subject.

9. If the electoral registration of an electoral subject is cancelled, the remaining electoral subjects shall retain their assigned sequence numbers in the ballot papers.

10. During by-elections/extraordinary elections of the executive municipality body – Mayor, an electoral subject shall retain the sequence number it was assigned during respective general elections. If an electoral subject has no sequence number for by-elections/extraordinary elections of the executive municipality body – Mayor, it shall be assigned a sequence number by casting lots, under the procedure established by this article.

11. The registered party lists, and the data of a registered candidate for President of Georgia/candidate for Mayor/majoritarian candidate, which are entered in a ballot paper, shall be published by the CEC on its official website not later than the 25th day before the polling day.

Chapter V– Election Monitoring and Media

Article 39– Domestic and international observers

1. Domestic and international observer organisations shall have the right to observe elections provided they meet the terms and conditions defined in this Law and have been registered with the CEC or the relevant DEC.

2. A domestic observer organisation may be a local non-entrepreneurial (non-commercial) legal entity registered according to the legislation of Georgia not later than one year prior to the polling day, the Statute or another constituent document of which provides for, at the time of registration, monitoring elections and/or protecting human rights. A domestic observer organisation shall be registered with the CEC or the respective DEC for the purpose of observing elections.

3. A domestic observer organisation shall observe elections through its representative, domestic observer. An organisation is authorised to have not more than 1 observer at each electoral precinct at any one time.

4. Domestic observers of a domestic observer organisation may be any citizen of Georgia above the age of 18, except for:

a) public/political officials defined by the Law of Georgia on Public Service;

b) (deleted – 22.6.2016, No 5438);

c) members of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo;

d) a municipality Mayor and a deputy Mayor;

e) judges;

f) staff of the Ministries of Internal Affairs and Defence of Georgia, the state sub-agency institution within the system of the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – Special Penitentiary Service, the State Security Service of Georgia and the Georgian Intelligence Service, and of the Special State Protection Service of Georgia;

g) officials of the Prosecutor's Office;

h) electoral subjects and their representatives;

i) members of an election commission;

j) observers from another observation organisation;

k) representatives of press and other means of mass media.

5. An international observer organisation may be a representative of another country, an organisation registered in another country or an international organisation, a constituent document/Statute of which provides for monitoring of the elections and/or protection of human rights and the activity of which is based on the following internationally recognised principles:

a) respect for the legislation, sovereignty of Georgia and international human rights norms;

b) abstaining from interfering with the election process;

c) political impartiality;

d) financial independence from the participants of the election process and transparency of funding sources;

e) implementation of the provisions recognized by the Declaration of Principles for International Election Observation.

6. An international observer organisation shall be registered with the CEC in order to monitor elections. In addition, the CEC shall be authorised to request additional information when registering an organisation in order to determine the compliance of the organisation's activity with the principles referred to in paragraph 5 of this article. An international observer organisation shall observe elections through its representatives – international observers. One organisation may have not more than 2 international observers at the same time at each electoral precinct.

7. International observers defined in paragraph 6 of this article may be accompanied by an interpreter who shall be registered with the CEC together with international observers.

Article 40– Registration of observer organisations

1. The CEC shall register an international observer organisation as well as a domestic observer organisation observing elections in more than one electoral district.

2. The respective DEC shall register a domestic observer organisation observing elections in a particular electoral district.

3. In order to be registered, a domestic election observer organisation shall apply to the relevant election commission not later than the 10th day before the Election Day and shall submit the excerpt from the Registry of Entrepreneurs and Non-entrepreneurial (Non-commercial) Legal Entities. The application shall include the name of an electoral district/districts within which the organisation shall observe elections. The election commission shall make a decision on registration within five days after receipt of the application.

3¹. The excerpt specified in paragraph 3 of this article, which is prepared by the Legal Entity under Public Law operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – the National Agency of Public Registry, shall be issued within the last 10 days before the application is submitted to the election commission and it shall include the person/persons having the power of administration/representation of the organisation. In order to verify/confirm, at the time of registration of the organisation, the authenticity of the data in the excerpt issued by the Legal Entity under Public Law operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – the National Agency of Public Registry and the requirements under Article 39(2) of this Law, the Agency shall provide the CEC with the possibility of accessing and verifying the appropriate electronic databases.

4. In order to get registered, an international observer organisation shall apply to the CEC not later than the 7th day prior to the polling day and shall submit to it a copy of its constituent document. If an observer (a group of observers) represents a foreign state authority, it shall only submit an application. The CEC shall, within 5 days after the application is received but not later than the 4th day prior to the polling day, decide on the issue of registration of the organisation, or the observer (the group of observers) defined in this paragraph.

5. The election commission may not refuse to register an observer organisation if it meets the requirements of this Law. An ordinance of the election commission for the refusal of registration shall be well-founded and shall be delivered to the organisation not later than the day following the day of the decision. An ordinance of the election commission may be appealed to the court within two days after its receipt. The court shall render a decision within two days after the application is filed with the court.

6. An international observer organisation registered by the CEC shall submit information about observers and photocopies of their identity cards to the CEC Secretary not later than the second day before the polling day. An ordinance of the CEC shall determine the content and the form of that information.

7. A domestic observer organisation registered by the CEC shall submit to the CEC Secretary not later than the fifth day before the polling day an application on the registration of observers, filled out in accordance with the form established by the CEC, stating that the observers on the list submitted by the organisation satisfy the requirements established by Article 39(4) of this law, as well as a list of observers appointed at the CEC, DEC, and PECs (with the indication of surnames, names, places of registration and personal numbers of Georgian citizens) and photocopies of identity cards of Georgian citizens or passports of Georgian citizens of each of them. A domestic observer organisation registered by the DEC shall submit a list of observers appointed to a DEC and/or its lower PEC to the DEC secretary within the same timeframe and in accordance with the same form.

7¹. If a person authorised to be the head/representative of a registered local observer organisation is registered as an electoral subject and/or a representative of an electoral subject, the local observer organisation shall, not later than 5 calendar days after the registration, submit to a respective election commission a document to prove that the powers of the person authorised to be the head/representative of the local observer organisation, who has been registered as the electoral subject/representative of the subject, has been or will be terminated. Failure to submit such a document shall be the grounds for cancelling the registration of the organisation.

8. A domestic observer registered with the CEC may observe elections at all election commissions of any level according to the procedures provided for by Article 39(3) of this Law.

9. The election commission secretary shall, within two days after the list of observers is submitted, register observers nominated under this Law and shall issue an observer certificate to the observer organisation. An observer certificate shall at the same time serve as a badge to be worn by the observer.

10. An observer from a domestic observer organisation at a DEC and an observer observing elections at an electoral precinct within the territory of the electoral district shall, on the polling day, have the right to observe elections at any electoral precinct in the territory of the relevant electoral district as defined in Article 39(3) of this Law.

Article 41– Rights of observers

1. An observer shall have the right to:

- a) attend and observe sessions of election commissions;
- b) be present at the polling place at any time during polling day, move without restrictions within the precinct territory and observe all stages of the polling process from any point in the precinct in a free and unhindered manner;
- c) replace another registered representative (if any) of the nominating organisation at any time on the polling day;
- d) take part in the inspection of ballot boxes before they are sealed and after they are opened;
- e) observe the registration of voters in the lists of voters, the issuance of ballot papers and special envelopes and the certification thereof, without disrupting the polling process;
- e¹) observe the process of registration of complaints on the polling day;
- f) attend the procedures of counting votes and summarising results;
- g) observe the process of mobile voting;
- h) observe the vote counting under such conditions in which ballot papers may be visible;
- i) observe the process of compiling summary protocols of election results and other documents by the election commission;
- j) address the DEC chairperson with an application (complaint) regarding issues related to the procedures of voting and polling, whereby the applicant requests a response to identified cases of specific violations;
- k) request a voter to show how many ballot papers and special envelopes he/she has in hand;
- l) appeal the actions of an election commission as defined in the legislation of Georgia;
- m) observe the ballot box, the placing of special envelopes into the ballot box, the opening of ballot boxes, the counting of ballot papers, and the drawing up of protocols;
- n) review the summary protocols of polling and election results drawn up by election commissions, request and receive the copies of such protocols from the relevant election commission.

2. An observer may not:

- a) interfere with the duties and activities of an election commission;
- b) influence the free expression of the will of voters;
- c) agitate in favour of or against an electoral subject;
- d) wear symbols and signs of any electoral subject;
- e) be without a badge in the polling station on polling day;
- f) breach other requirements of this Law.

3. The procedures defined in the electoral, administrative, and/or criminal legislation of Georgia shall define liability for the violation of rights granted to local/international observers, electoral subjects, and media representatives by this Law or liability for the interference with their activity.

4. Violation of the requirements of paragraph 2(a-d) of this article by an observer, electoral subject, and media representative shall give rise to liability as defined in the electoral legislation of Georgia.

5. An election commission shall provide all conditions for an observer to implement his/her powers regarding all procedures within the election commission, including during the process of counting ballot papers and summarising results.

Article 42– Representative of an electoral subject and his/her powers

1. A representative of an electoral subject (a party independently running in elections, an electoral bloc, an initiative group of voters) shall represent the electoral subject only in the relationship with an election commission with which it has been registered under this Law.

2. During one or several types of elections, a party, an electoral bloc, an initiative group of voters (during Presidential elections of Georgia), and a candidate for the President of Georgia may each appoint only two representatives at every election commission. During the parliamentary elections and elections of municipal bodies of Georgia, an initiative group of voters may appoint two representatives to the respective district and precinct election commissions. The representatives appointed to the CEC and DEC may not concurrently be appointed to any other election commission.

[1. A representative of an electoral subject (a party running in elections, an initiative group of voters) shall represent the electoral subject only in the relationship with an election commission with which it has been registered under this Law.]

2. A party may, during one or several types of elections, appoint only two representatives to each election commission. During elections of municipality bodies, an initiative group of voters may appoint two representatives to appropriate district and precinct election commissions. Representatives appointed to the CEC and a DEC may not at the same time be appointed to another election commission. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

2¹. A representative of electoral subject may be a legally competent citizen of Georgia from the age of 18.

2². The following persons may not be appointed as a representative of an electoral subject:

- a) a candidate nominated by this or another electoral subject;
- b) a representative of another electoral subject;
- c) a member of an election commission;
- d) a local observer;
- e) a representative of the press or another mass medium.

3. The electoral subject referred to in paragraph 2 of this article shall apply to the CEC Chairperson for appointment of a representative to the CEC. If the appropriate information is submitted in full, the CEC Chairperson shall register the representative of the electoral subject and issue the representative's certificate by ordinance within 24 hours. The certificate is at the same time a badge to be worn by the representative.

3¹. An electoral subject defined in paragraph 2 of this article shall apply to the CEC secretary for appointing a representative to a DEC, and to the secretary of a respective superior election commission for appointing a representative to a PEC. If the appropriate information is submitted completely, the secretary of the respective election commission shall, within 24 hours, register by decree the representative of the electoral subject and shall issue the representative's certificate, which at the same time is also a badge.

3². An application for appointing representatives of an initiative group of voters to DEC and respective PEC shall be submitted to the secretary of a DEC the chairperson of which has registered the initiative group of voters.

4. An application for the appointment of a representative of an electoral subject shall be signed by the head of a party or a person authorised by him/her, or a representative of an initiative group of voters to a higher election commission. The application shall include first and last names, address, contact telephone number (if any) of the representative of an electoral subject. A photocopy of the identity card of a Georgian citizen or of the passport of a Georgian citizen of the representative of an electoral subject shall be attached to the application.

5. Only 1 representative of the electoral subject shall have the right to attend sessions of the respective election commission, request to give a speech and express his/her opinion, make decisions on various issues, and enjoy other rights granted by this Law. On the polling day, the representative shall enjoy unlimited rights provided for by Article 41(1) and Article 67(2) of this Law.

6. An electoral subject may, at any time, appoint/withdraw and/or replace its representative, except for the day preceding the polling day and the polling day. The electoral subject shall notify the respective election commission thereof.

Article 43– Funding of representatives of electoral subjects

1.A qualified electoral subject running in the elections (a qualified party running in the elections independently, as well as an electoral bloc in which the qualified party is united) shall, for ensuring their representation in DEC and PEC on the Election Day, receive GEL 100 for each electoral precinct and GEL 150 for each electoral district, and the electoral bloc uniting 2 or more than 2 qualified parties shall receive GEL 150 for each electoral precinct and GEL 200 for each electoral district. To provide their representation at DEC and PEC on Election Day, An electoral bloc, which does not include any qualified party but the parties united in that bloc received in total 3% or more than 3 % of the votes cast in at least one of the last parliamentary or last municipal body elections held under the proportional electoral system, shall receive GEL 100 for each electoral precinct and GEL 150 for each electoral district. The amount allocated for one electoral precinct shall be paid to the representative(s) appointed only to that electoral precinct.

[1.A qualified electoral subject running in elections (a qualified party running in the elections) shall, for ensuring their representation in DEC and PEC on Election Day, receive funding in the amount of GEL 100 for each electoral precinct and GEL 150 for each electoral district. The amount allocated for one electoral precinct shall only be paid to a representative (representatives) appointed to that electoral precinct. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

2. The CEC shall transfer the amount allocated for the electoral subject referred to in paragraph 1 of this article into the account of the respective electoral subject not later than the third day before Election Day. The electoral subject may apportion the amount to the relevant representatives in district and precinct election commissions so as to fund the activity of not more than two representatives per commission; at the same time, the same representative shall not be paid the amount allocated for more than three electoral precincts.

3. If a political party receiving funds fails to appoint a representative to an election commission, and/or the funds are not fully spent, the party shall, within 15 days after the election results are summarised, submit to the CEC written information about spending the amounts allocated for funding the representatives, and shall, within the same time limit, ensure that the appropriate amount is returned to the State Budget of Georgia.

4. The salary earned under this article by an electoral subject's representative who is entered into the Unified Database of Socially Vulnerable Families shall not be included in the total income of his/her family and shall not serve as the basis for discontinuation of his/her state financing.

Article 44– Representatives of the press and other media

1. Representatives of the press and other media accredited to the respective election commission shall have the right to attend sessions of the election commission and be present at the polling stations on polling day during the election period.

2. The CEC Secretary or the secretaries of respective DEC's shall provide the accreditation of representatives of the press and other media operating in the territory of several electoral districts, while the secretary of the respective DEC shall provide the accreditation of media representatives operating in the territory of one electoral district.

3. An application for accreditation of representatives of the press and other mass media shall be submitted to the respective election commission not later than the 3rd day prior to the polling day. Photocopies of the identity cards or of the passports of the representatives shall be attached to the application. If an organisation submits an application, it shall be accompanied by the excerpt from the Registry of Entrepreneurs and Non-entrepreneurial (Non-commercial) Legal Entities, which is issued by the Legal Entity under Public Law operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – the National Agency of Public Registry within the last 10 days before the application is submitted to the election commission. The excerpt shall include the person/persons having the power of administration/representation of the organisation. In order to verify/confirm, at the time of accreditation of the organisation, the authenticity of the data in the excerpt issued by the Legal Entity under Public Law operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – the National Agency of Public Registry, the Agency shall provide the CEC with the possibility of accessing and verifying the appropriate electronic databases. Foreign press and other mass media, Public Broadcaster, and Public Broadcaster Television and Radio of Ajara shall not need the excerpt specified in this paragraph for accreditation.

4. The secretary of the respective election commission shall decide, within two days after filing an application, on the accreditation of representatives of the press and other media and shall issue respective certificates to the accredited representatives within one day after the decision. In the case of refusal of accreditation, the secretary shall issue a respective ordinance (the refusal of accreditation shall be duly justified in the ordinance) within the same timeframe.

4¹. If a person authorised to be the head/representative of an accredited press or another mass medium is registered as an electoral subject and/or a representative of an electoral subject, the press/another mass medium shall, not later than 5 calendar days after the registration, submit to a respective election commission a document to prove that the powers of the person authorised to be the head/representative of the press/another mass medium, who has been registered as the electoral subject/representative of the subject, has been or will be terminated. Failure to submit such a document shall be the grounds for cancelling the accreditation of the respective press/another mass medium.

5. The same press and other media organisation may have not more than 2 representatives at any one time at the electoral precinct on polling day. The representative of the press and other mass media must be at least 18 years old at the time of accreditation. At the same time, he/she may not be a representative of an electoral subject/observer of an election organisation or a representative of other press and mass media.

6. The procedure for attending sessions of an electoral commission and for accrediting the press and other mass media for them to film the commission sessions during the non-election period shall be established by a decree of the CEC.

Chapter VI– Election Campaign

Article 45–Pre-election campaign (canvassing)

1. The pre-election campaign (canvassing) shall begin 60 days prior to the polling day. Political parties and candidates for electoral subject shall enjoy equal rights and have equal obligations as defined in this Law.

2. During the election campaign (canvassing) period a political party, a candidate for electoral subject or an electoral subject may produce pre-election slogans, statements, inscriptions, papers, photo materials, etc. It is prohibited to prevent their dissemination and seizure, as well as to seize vehicles and other means equipped with special devices used for campaigning purposes, or to prevent their application for election campaigning purposes.

3. Political parties, candidates for electoral subject, electoral subjects, and their supporters may present a program for further activity. The election program shall not contain propaganda for war or violence, appeal for change or overthrow of the existing state and social order by violence, for violation of the territorial integrity of Georgia, for national strife and enmity, or for religious or ethnic confrontation.

3¹. Violation by the persons defined in paragraph 3 of this article of the rules established under the same paragraph shall be violation of the rules for conducting the pre-election campaign (canvassing) provided for by this Law.

4. Any individual may conduct and participate in election campaigning, except for:

a) election commission members;

b) judges;

c) public officers of the Prosecutor's Office of Georgia, the Ministries of Internal Affairs and Defence of Georgia, of the State Security Service of Georgia, the Georgian Intelligence Service, and the Special State Protection Service of Georgia;

d) the Auditor General;

e) the Public Defender of Georgia;

f) aliens and foreign organisations;

g) charitable and religious organisations;

h) public officers during normal business hours and/or when they are directly performing their duties;

i) members of the Georgian National Communications Commission (GNCC) and the Georgian National Energy and Water Supply Regulatory Commission (GNEWSRC);

j) employees of legal entities under public law (except employees of higher and vocational educational institutions, religious organisations and the Georgian Bar Association), employees of non-profit (non-commercial) legal entities established by the State or a municipality, public school teachers—during the working hours, or during the fulfilment of official duties.

5. It is prohibited to conduct election campaign (canvassing) in the premises of the following institutions:

- a) executive agencies of Georgia;
- b) courts;
- c) military units.

6. During the pre-election campaign municipality bodies shall be obliged to support political parties/electoral subjects to organise and hold meetings and gatherings with voters, public debates and discussions, assemblies and manifestations, and to ensure the safety of those events.

7. It is prohibited to carry on election campaigning at any event/presentation funded from the State Budget of Georgia/the budget of a municipality. That action shall be regarded as the use of administrative resources.

8. In order to conduct mass electoral events, the premises administered by state authorities or municipality bodies shall be available free of charge for the election commissions.

9. Municipality bodies shall draw up, within five days after the commencement of election campaign, a list of premises where election campaign (canvassing) is likely to be conducted and shall submit it to the DEC. The DEC shall make public the list of premises allocated by the municipality bodies within two days after the receipt thereof, shall ensure equal availability of the premises for all political parties and electoral subjects, and shall draw up a schedule, in agreement with political parties and electoral subjects, for the electoral events (if the events of different electoral subjects coincide and the electoral subjects fail to come to agreement, the sequence of events shall be determined by casting lots). The list of premises allocated by municipality bodies shall be also posted on the CEC website.

10. A DEC shall give a well-grounded written response to any respective application filed by an electoral subject for the use of premises within 24 hours from filing the application. Any failure to give a response within the above timeframe shall be regarded as the consent to the application.

11. It is prohibited to conduct election campaign at the polling station on polling day.

12. It shall not be allowed to place canvassing material at a distance of 25 meters from the entrance of the polling station, which is subject to removal/dismantling/taking. It shall be prohibited to physically obstruct the movement of a voter within the polling station or within 25 meters of the polling station. The norms established by Chapter X of this Law do not apply to the mentioned cases.

13. Paragraph 12 of this article shall not apply to activities related to exit polls.

Article 46—Campaign materials

1. Campaign materials may be displayed on buildings and premises and other facilities with the consent of their owners or possessors.

2. It is prohibited to place/post campaign materials on places of worship, buildings or structures of cultural heritage, in the interior and exterior of buildings of the state and municipality bodies, courts, the Prosecutor's Office, military units, divisions of the police, the State Security Service of Georgia, the Georgian Intelligence Service and the Special State Protection Service of Georgia, as well as on traffic signs.

3. Bookmaking regarding any election-related issue is prohibited.

4. Municipality bodies shall determine the list of premises, as provided for by paragraph 2 of this article, where the campaign materials are prohibited to be placed, as well as shall determine the places and/or install stands for posting and displaying campaign materials. Stands must be of such a size that all electoral subjects are provided with equal conditions for the display of campaign materials.

5. Municipality bodies shall publish the information about places and/or installed stands designated for posting and displaying campaign materials according to this article not later than 10 days before calling elections.

6. Printed campaign materials shall specify the names and addresses of organisations that manufactured and ordered them, as well as information of circulation, sequence number, and date of issue. It is prohibited to disseminate printed campaign materials without indicating the above information. An electoral subject shall be required to indicate the sequence number on printed campaign materials only after having been assigned that number.

7. Copies of printed campaign materials shall be submitted to the election commission, where an electoral subject was registered for elections, not later than the fifth day after the day of issuing the campaign materials referred to in paragraph 6 of this article.

7¹. Removal, tearing off, covering, or damaging campaign materials, unless they are located in a forbidden place, shall be prohibited and punishable by this Law.

8. The relevant electoral subject shall, within 15 days after the official publication of final results of elections, ensure the removal of campaign materials. Otherwise, the electoral subject shall be held liable under the legislation of Georgia.

Article 47– Bribery of voters

1. From the moment of publication of the respective legal act calling elections, including the polling day, and where there is necessity to hold the second round of elections – from the moment of publication of the respective legal act calling elections including the polling day of the second round of elections, it is prohibited:

a) for electoral subjects, candidates for electoral subject, and their representatives to give funds, gifts, and other material possessions (irrespective of their value) to the citizens of Georgia, personally or through other persons; to sell goods to electoral subjects, candidates for electoral subject, and their representatives at a preferential price; to distribute or disseminate goods free of charge (except for campaign materials defined by this Law) among electoral subjects, candidates for electoral subject, and their representatives; and to motivate Georgian citizens by promising to give them funds, securities, and other material possessions (irrespective of their value);

b) for individuals or legal entities to perform such work or to provide such services through utilizing personal funds and/or electoral subject funds (except for the performance of work or the provision of services defined in the Law of Georgia on State Procurement) that fall within the competence of the state authorities and/or local self-government bodies of Georgia under the legislation of Georgia.

2. Registration of the electoral subject that, personally or through any representative or any other individual or legal entity acting in his/her behalf, has carried out prohibited activities provided for by this article shall be revoked by a court decision if those facts are confirmed.

Organic Law of Georgia No 6723 of 2 July 2020 – website, 3.7.2020

Article 48– Prohibition of the use of administrative resources during canvassing and election campaign

1. Any person having the right to participate in canvassing according to Article 45(4) of this Law shall be prohibited from using administrative resources in the course of the election campaign in support of or against any political party, candidate for electoral subject, or electoral subject. In addition, it is prohibited to:

a) use premises occupied by state authorities and municipality bodies, also by organisations funded from the State Budget of Georgia, provided that other political parties, candidates for electoral subject, or electoral subjects are unable to use the same or similar premises under the same conditions;

b) use means of communication, information services, and other kinds of equipment designated for state authorities and municipality bodies, also for organisations funded from the State Budget of Georgia (except for political parties);

c) use means of transportation owned by state authorities or municipality bodies.

2. Restrictions provided for by paragraph 1(c) of this article shall not apply to the use of service vehicles by public political officials that are protected by the Special State Security Service as defined in this Law.

3. In order to ensure that public officers prevent and respond to violations of the electoral legislation of Georgia, an interagency commission shall be set up under the auspices of the Ministry for Justice of Georgia.

4. In case of regular general elections, an interagency commission shall be set up not later than 1 July of the election year, and in case of extraordinary elections or re-run elections of the Parliament of Georgia, an interagency commission shall be set up within three days after calling the elections.

4¹. An interagency commission shall cease its activities as from the day when the CEC officially publishes final results of elections.

5. The composition of an interagency commission shall be determined by an order of the Minister for Justice of Georgia, while the rules of operation of the interagency commission shall be determined by its statute approved by the Minister for Justice of Georgia. The interagency commission shall be convened by the commission chairperson when necessary, but at least once in two weeks, and after the registration period for electoral subjects expires – at least once a week.

6. Political parties receiving funding from the State Budget of Georgia shall participate with deliberative vote in the activities of the Interagency Commission, as well as other political associations, which provide the Interagency Commission with information on violations of Georgian election legislation by public servants at the session at which the relevant issue is reviewed.

7. An interagency commission shall consider issues related to information disseminated through the media about violation of electoral legislation by public officers, as well as information about violations reported to the interagency commission by political associations (electoral subjects), or observer organisations.

8. In order to ensure the publicity of activities of interagency commissions, the representatives of domestic and international observer organisations may be invited to the commission session.

9. If any statement of violation is confirmed, the commission shall have the right to recommend to any public officer, an administrative body, or the CEC to take respective measures within a reasonable time.

Article 49– Prohibition of the use of budgetary funds, office, or official position

1. A person having the right to participate in canvassing, who holds an office within the state authorities or local government bodies, shall be prohibited to use his/her official status or capacity in the course of canvassing and election campaign in support of or against any political party, candidate for electoral subject, or electoral subject. For the purposes of this article, the above-stated shall include:

- a) getting any career subordinate or otherwise dependent person involved in an activity that may support to presentation and/or election of a candidate;
- b) collecting signatures and conducting canvassing during business trips funded by state authorities or municipality bodies;
- c) conducting canvassing during working hours and/or in the course of performing official duties.

2. The restriction provided for by paragraph 1(c) of this article shall not apply to public political officials determined by this Law, as well as to the cases where TV and radio broadcasters use air-time allotted for election campaign.

3. From the 60th day before and including Election Day, it is prohibited to implement such projects/programs that have not been previously included in the State Budget of Georgia, the republic budget of any Autonomous Republic of Georgia, or the budget of any municipality, except when projects/programs are funded within the allocations provided for by the respective program code of the respective budget and/or by the funds from such allocations, as well as by the funds allocated by donors at least 60 days before Election Day. If the procedures under this paragraph are not met, an authorised person may apply to the court to suspend expenses.

3¹. A state authority or a municipal body shall be prohibited from posting an advertising video on the broadcaster from the 60th day before Election Day, which contains information about the work done or planned by the relevant agency.

4. From the 60th day before and including Election Day, it is prohibited to increase the amount of welfare benefits (pensions, hardship allowances, allowances, etc.), except for benefits the increase of which was provided for by the legislation of Georgia at least 60 days before Election Day. It is also prohibited to fund the welfare benefits (pensions, hardship allowances, allowances, etc.) that were not provided for by the legislation of Georgia at least 60 days before Election Day. If the procedures under this paragraph are not met, an authorised person may apply to the court to suspend expenses.

5. Paragraphs 3 and 4 of this article shall not apply to financing the setting up of polling places by state and/or municipal bodies under this Law and to financing the measures for remediation of the consequences of natural disasters or other force majeure circumstances.

5¹. During by-elections, points 3-5 of this article shall apply only to electoral precincts where by-elections are held.

6. In the course of canvassing, it is prohibited to produce, by funds from the State Budget/municipality budget of Georgia, campaign materials, video or audio materials, or to create the website or any part thereof where any electoral subject/political party or its sequence number assigned during elections is displayed and/or which comprise materials in support of/against any electoral subject/political party. It is also prohibited to show an electoral subject/political party or a sequence number assigned thereto during elections in a public service announcement (PSA) made by funds from the State Budget/municipality budget of Georgia in the course of any election campaigning.

7. From the expiration of the registration term for electoral subjects until the end of polling day, it is prohibited to reshuffle head officers of any municipality body, police, and the Prosecutor's Office, except when the term of their office has expired and/or they violate the law.

Article 50– General regulations for election campaigning media coverage

1. A broadcast licence holder, an authorised over-the-air broadcaster, and the Public Broadcaster and Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster shall, not later than 5 calendar days from the 60th day before polling, for the purpose of publishing on the website of the CEC and the GNCC, submit information on airtime tariffs for the paid pre-election advertising campaign. Such tariffs shall be effective from the 50th day before the polling. The relevant tariff may be changed once, not later than the 35th calendar day before the polling, except in the cases provided for by this Law. In the case of the change of the tariff, the new tariff shall be sent to the GNCC for publication on the website. Such tariff shall be effective on the 30th calendar day before the polling. The relevant person mentioned in this paragraph is obliged to start placing advertisements from the 50th day before the polling, complying with the following conditions:

- a) if airtime is allotted for pre-election campaigning and political advertising, publicly announce and weekly submit to the GNCC the following information: from and until what date and at what intervals the airtime is allotted, its duration and schedule of the allotted airtime during one day, and service provided;
- b) paid airtime allotted by any TV or radio broadcaster during one day may not exceed 15% of its total daily broadcasting time and none of electoral subjects shall be granted more than one-third of this time. The paid airtime fee shall be equal for all electoral subjects;
- c) when broadcasting a political/pre-election advertisement, the screen corner shall display the inscription ‘paid political advertising’ or ‘free political advertising’. Such advertisements shall have to be accompanied by the sign language translation which shall be arranged for by the electoral subject presenting the advertisement;
- d) during the period referred to herein, political advertising may not be broadcast at any other time, except the time interval allotted for these purposes.

1¹. If the date of the elections coincides with the state of emergency or martial law declared in the whole territory of the country or extraordinary elections are scheduled, the holder of the broadcasting licence, the authorised broadcaster, the public broadcaster, and Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster is obliged, for the purpose of publishing on the website of the CEC and the GNCC, not later than 40 days before the polling, submit the airtime tariffs for the placement of the paid pre-election advertisement. Such tariffs shall be effective on the 35th calendar day before the polling. The relevant person mentioned in paragraph 1 of this article is obliged to start placing advertisements from the 35th day before the polling, complying with the conditions provided for by subparagraphs (a-c) of the same paragraph.

2. From the announcement of elections until the summarisation of election results, newspapers funded by the central or local budget shall meet the following conditions:

- a) if a newspaper allocates space for election campaigning and political advertising, it shall weekly publish the following information in the same newspaper: from what date, at what intervals and until when the newspaper space is allocated, the size of the space allocated in one newspaper, and in the case of free newspaper space, the share of free space out of the total space allocated, the space fee, and service provided;
- b) no electoral subject shall be granted more than one-third of the newspaper space in one newspaper publication or over a period of one week;
- c) the space fee shall be equal for all electoral subjects;
- d) when publishing a campaign letter and a political advertisement, an inscription ‘paid political advertising’ or ‘free political advertising’ shall be made above the heading and in the corner of the advertisement;
- e) during the period referred to in this paragraph, a political advertisement shall not be published in violation of the requirements provided for by this paragraph.

3. All newspapers, except for the ones referred to in paragraph 2 of this article, shall have the right to allot pre-election advertising time to any electoral subject under any conditions.

4. If any electoral subject fails to use its airtime or newspaper space, a broadcast licence holder, an authorised over-the-air broadcaster, the Public Broadcaster, and Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster, and a newspaper shall have the right to distribute this time or space equally among other electoral subjects.

5. It is prohibited to publish public opinion poll results with regard to elections, except for the possible number of voters in elections and the number of voters participating in elections on polling day, within 48 hours before polling day and until 20:00 of that day. From the day of calling elections until the publication of final results of elections by the CEC and during one month thereafter, the following shall be indicated when publishing public opinion poll results with regard to elections: the person ordering the poll (name according to public or electoral registration and legal address if a legal entity or a state body has ordered the public opinion poll; and first name, last name, and address according to a Georgian citizen's identity card if an individual has ordered the public opinion poll), whether the poll is paid or free of charge, the organisation conducting the public opinion poll (name according to public or electoral registration and legal address), date of the poll, methods used, exact formulation of the questions put in the poll, possible margin of errors.

Article 51– Information support to election campaigning

1. In the course of election campaigning, when broadcasting social-political programs and elections, a broadcaster shall observe the principle of impartiality and fairness according to the Law of Georgia on Broadcasting, the Code of Conduct of Broadcasters, and this Law.

2. A general broadcaster intending to cover election campaigning shall broadcast pre-election debates in a non-discriminatory manner and with the participation of all qualified electoral subjects in the course of the election campaigning within its coverage area.

3. The obligations provided for by this Law for equal allotment of airtime, creation of equal conditions for participating in debates and for setting equal conditions for election advertising shall apply only to the broadcasters referred to in paragraphs 5, 6 and 6¹ of this article and only in relation to qualified electoral subjects; in the case provided for in paragraph 6¹ of this article the obligations shall also apply in relation to the electoral subjects referred to in subparagraph (c) of the same paragraph.

4. (Deleted – 22.6.2016, No 5438).

5. During the election campaign in their respective coverage areas, the Public Broadcaster, Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster, and any community broadcaster shall allot, not later than the 50th day before the Election Day, in every hour five minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements, and every 3 hours broadcast free of charge and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to them by each qualified electoral subject, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 90 seconds (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other airtime allotted to the electoral subject.

6. During the election campaign in its respective coverage area, the Public Broadcaster shall allot, not later than the 50th day before the Election Day, in every three hours no less than 7.5 minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements, and broadcast on the basis of equality and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to it by each qualified electoral subject, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 90 seconds (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other airtime allotted to the electoral subject.

6¹. A broadcaster, other than the ones referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article, shall broadcast pre-election advertising free of charge for the last 30 days until the Election Day if during the election campaign within its coverage area it airs any paid pre-election advertising of the electoral subject specified in Article 30(12) of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens. In that case, the broadcaster shall allot time to pre-election advertising free of charge (if the paid advertising is aired during the prime time as defined by the Law of Georgia on Broadcasting, the free advertising shall be aired in the proportion provided for below and in the same time period, on the same day or, in agreement with the client, on another day. In all other cases, free advertising shall be broadcast in a three-hour interval from the time of broadcasting paid advertising in the broadcasting network, on the same day or, in agreement with the client, on another day. The free advertising airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other advertising airtime allotted to such subject):

a) for the above electoral subject, the time equal to the advertising time purchased by the electoral subject. The time shall be distributed so as not to take up more than 90 seconds in three hours (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts);

b) for qualified electoral subjects (other than the electoral subjects provided for in Article 30(12) of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens) the time equal the total advertising time purchased by the electoral subjects referred to in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph that shall be equally and without discrimination divided among the electoral subjects referred to in subparagraph (b) of this paragraph, provided that the time allotted to one electoral subject does not take up more than 90 seconds in three hours (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts);

c) (deleted – 22.6.2016, No 5438).

6². The broadcasters referred to in paragraph (6¹) of this article willing to air paid pre-election advertising shall provide the CEC and Georgian National Communications Commission, in 15-day time from the day of calling of elections but not later than the 55th day before Election Day, with information on the proposed paid pre-election advertising airing schedule and the advertising time price. The CEC will post the information on its official website within one day. An electoral subject indicated in Article 30(12) of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens shall provide the CEC and the relevant broadcaster, not later than the 40th day before Election Day, with information on the purchase of advertising time from each particular broadcaster according to the above schedule (the information shall contain dates, airtime intervals for the advertising to be aired during the day and the duration of the advertising time to be purchased). A broadcaster, from whom the electoral subject purchased advertising time, shall provide the CEC and Georgian National Communications Commission, not later than the 38th day before Election Day, with information on the free advertising airtime allotted under paragraph 6¹ of this article (such information shall indicate dates, airtime intervals for the advertising to be aired during the day and the duration of the advertising time), as well as information on the schedule for airing advertising within the advertising time allotted to each qualified electoral subject specified in paragraph 6¹(b) and (c) of this article. The CEC shall post the above information on its official website within one day. An electoral subject eligible to receive free advertising time shall give the relevant broadcaster at least two days prior notice of the intention to use its due time and submit the advertising at the time agreed with the broadcaster.

6³. The Public Broadcaster shall arrange for sign language translation for its programmes aired in connection with elections during the election campaign period.

7.(Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266).

8. A broadcaster shall have the right to recognize as a qualified electoral subject the political party that, according to the public opinion poll conducted throughout the territory of Georgia according to the terms and conditions referred to in this article, has gained not less than 4% of votes in not less than 5 public opinion polls conducted during the election year or in the public opinion poll conducted a month before elections. Discriminatory use of sociological surveys by any broadcaster shall not be permitted.

9. A local broadcaster shall be obliged to recognize a political party/bloc as a qualified electoral subject if:

a) it is a qualified electoral subject defined by Article 2(q¹) of this Law;

b) its candidate(s) won the previous parliamentary elections held in the majoritarian electoral district falling within the local broadcaster's coverage area, the candidate(s) moved to the second round of elections or received not less than 25% of votes;

c) it received not less than 25% of votes in the elections of the municipality representative body Sakrebulo.

[9. A local broadcaster shall recognise a party as a qualified electoral subject:

a) which is a qualified electoral subject defined by Article 2(q¹) of this Law;

b) which received not less than 25% of votes in elections of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

10. A local broadcaster shall have the right to recognise the following as a qualified electoral subject:

a) a political party that received not less than 10% of votes in the previous elections of the Parliament of Georgia or of a municipality body held in the respective majoritarian electoral district;

[a) a party which received not less than 10% of votes in the last elections of municipality bodies held in a respective majoritarian electoral district; (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

b) a political party that enjoys support of not less than 25% of voters according to the public opinion poll conducted in the respective majoritarian electoral district as defined by this Law, as identified by not less than two successive surveys conducted during the election year;

c) a majoritarian candidate nominated by an initiative group of voters that enjoys support of not less than 25% of voters according to the public opinion poll conducted in the respective majoritarian electoral district as defined in this Law, as identified by not less than two successive surveys conducted during the election year.

11. For the purposes of this Law, a public opinion poll shall meet the following requirements:

a) it shall be based on the acknowledged scientific methodology of representative random selection that provides 95% credibility of results with a margin of error not exceeding 3%;

b) it shall be published after double-checking the credibility of the methodology of the public opinion poll and objectivity of its results;

c) it shall be feasible to provide convincing scientific explanation if there are significant discrepancies or changes in the results of the same or other comparative public opinion polls;

d) it shall not constitute a tool for manipulating public opinion or fundraising and it shall not be conducted via telephone, mail, and/or internet;

e) it shall be based on transparent methodology that enables providing an independent double-check of the results;

f) while publishing the results, the following shall be specified:

f.a) an organisation having conducted a public opinion poll;

f. b) a person having ordered or funded a public opinion poll;

f. c) the exact formulation and sequence of questions put in a public opinion poll;

f.d) the time of conducting field opinion poll;

f.e) the number of individuals interviewed and the method of selection;

f.f) in what area or among what category of people the selection was conducted;

f.g) whether the survey is based on the opinions of all respondents;

f.h) the number of respondents who refused to participate in the poll, who did not answer a question, or who could not be interviewed;

f.i) the sample size;

f.j) the margin of error;

f.k) information on other factors that might have significantly affected the results.

12. The Public Broadcaster and Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster (legal entities under public law) shall be obliged to allot airtime for pre-election advertising for all other parties and electoral blocs, other than the qualified electoral subjects, and the airtime shall be equally distributed among these subjects.

[12. The Public Broadcaster and Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster (legal entities under public law) shall allot airtime for placement of pre-election advertising of all other parties, except for a qualified electoral subject, which shall be equally distributed among these parties. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

13. The parties who enjoy the right to use free air time, in the case of uniting under the electoral bloc, despite their number, shall lose their eligibility for free airtime from the day following the day of the registration of the electoral bloc, and the electoral bloc concerned gains the same eligibility as an electoral subject.

[13. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

14. The obligation to allot free airtime provided for by this article shall be solely applied to the local broadcaster in the course of by-elections.

15. The GNCC shall determine the procedure for participation and use of the media in the electoral process, shall supervise the observance of provisions under this Law by any broadcaster, and shall give respective response to violations of those provisions. The GNCC shall purchase the services necessary for media monitoring according to the legislation of Georgia.

16. It is prohibited to broadcast any paid and/or free pre-election advertising through TV or radio on polling day.

[Article 51 – Information support to election campaigning]

1. In the course of election campaigning, when broadcasting social-political programmes and elections, a broadcaster shall observe the principle of impartiality and fairness according to the Law of Georgia on Broadcasting, the Code of Conduct of Broadcasters, and this Law.

2. Free air time, in accordance with procedures provided for by this Law, shall be given equally to those political parties who obtained at least 3 per cent of votes during the last parliamentary elections.

3. The general broadcaster, which decides to cover the pre-election campaign on its own air, shall broadcast the pre-election debates in a non-discriminatory manner. In addition, the broadcaster is obliged to invite all other political parties to the pre-election debates, which showed similar or better results than the party participating in the last parliamentary elections.

4. The obligation of equal distribution of airtime established by this Law, creation of equal conditions for participation in pre-election debates and establishment of equal conditions for election advertising shall apply to the broadcasters mentioned in paragraphs 5, 6 and 15 of this article, in relation to the authorised parties.

5. During the election campaign in their respective coverage areas, the Public Broadcaster, Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster, and any community broadcaster shall allot, not later than the 50th day before the Election Day, in every hour five minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements, and every 3 hours broadcast free of charge and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to them by each qualified electoral subject, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 90 seconds (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other airtime allotted to the electoral subject.

6. During the election campaign in its respective coverage area, the Public Broadcaster shall allot, not later than the 50th day before the Election Day, in every three hours no less than 7.5 minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements, and broadcast on the basis of equality and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to it by each qualified electoral subject, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 90 seconds (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other airtime allotted to the electoral subject.

7. The public broadcaster is obliged to provide the sign language translation in its election-related programmes aired during the pre-election campaign.

8. The public broadcaster, Ajara TV/Radio of the public broadcaster (legal entity under public law) is obliged to allocate time for the placement of pre-election advertisements of all other parties except for the authorised party, which shall be equally distributed among these parties.

9. The obligation to allocate free advertising time provided for in this article during the extraordinary elections of the mayor of the municipality (except for the extraordinary elections of the mayor of the municipality of Tbilisi) shall apply only to the local broadcaster. The obligation established by this paragraph shall apply to the public broadcaster and the general national broadcaster during the elections of the Mayor of Tbilisi Municipality.

10. The Georgian National Communications Commission shall determine the rules of media participation and of the use thereof in the election process, monitor the observance of the norms established by this law by the broadcaster and respond accordingly to the violation of the mentioned norms. The Georgian National Communications Commission shall procure the services required for media monitoring in accordance with the rules established by the legislation of Georgia.

11. It shall be prohibited to place paid pre-election and/or free pre-election advertisements, programmes of electoral subjects on TV and radio 8 hours before the polling and until 8 pm of the polling day, as well as to make automated telephone calls and send short text messages for election purposes.

12. It shall be inadmissible for an electoral subject to place an advertisement on the broadcaster that serves the agitation goals of another electoral subject during the advertising time. The advertisement of the electoral subject shall not contain elements of advertisement conducive to the election of another electoral subject, including its representative, serial number and symbols.

13. In the course of political/pre-election advertising, the sum of the single contours of the letters denoting the name of the electoral subject and the single contours of the digits denoting his/her serial number shall occupy not less than 10% of the picture area. In addition, the advertisement shall be made in such a way that at the end of it, at least for the last 1 second, the name of the electoral subject and his/her serial number are displayed, so that the sum of the single contours of the letters indicating the name and the single contours of the serial numbers occupies 50% of the picture area. In the case of violation of the rule established by this paragraph, the broadcaster shall not place the relevant political/pre-election advertisement.

14. The broadcaster shall be prohibited from devoting more airtime to the relevant electoral subject than the fee paid for the placement of paid pre-election advertisements or devoting more time to the placement of free advertisements than those defined by this law. The action provided for by this paragraph shall be deemed to be a prohibited donation.

15. The broadcaster (except for the broadcasters mentioned in paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article) is obliged to broadcast pre-election advertisements free of charge during the last 30 days before the Election Day, if it places paid pre-election advertisements during the election campaign in its service area. In this case, the local broadcaster or cable broadcaster is obliged to devote 7.5 minutes every 3 hours to free pre-election advertisements and to place equally and in a non-discriminatory manner pre-election advertisements submitted to it by each authorised party, provided that the advertising time allocated to one electoral subject during this period does not exceed 90 seconds (an electoral subject may divide this time into several parts). No unused time may be added by the electoral subject to another time belonging to him/her.

16. At least 10% of the amount spent by the party participating in the elections for the placement of pre-election advertisements shall be used for the placement of pre-election advertisements in at least 7 non-national broadcasters.

17. To determine the status of a qualified electoral subject, a public opinion survey must meet the following requirements:

a) it should be based on a recognised scientific methodology for the random selection of a representative that ensures at least 95 per cent reliability of the results and the margin of error of which does not exceed 3 per cent;

b) shall be published after verifying the reliability of the public opinion research methodology and the objectivity of the results;

c) in the presence of significant differences or changes in the results of the same or other comparable public opinion survey, a convincing scientific explanation of such differences or changes shall be possible;

d) there shall be no manipulation by public opinion or a means of raising money, it shall not be conducted by phone, mail and/or the Internet;

e) shall be based on a transparent methodology that allows for independent verification of results;

f) when publishing public opinion survey results the following shall be specified:

f.a) an organisation conducting the survey;

f.b) an organisation ordering or financing the survey;

f.c) exact formulation and sequence of questions used in the survey;

f.d) time of the conduct of field survey;

f.e) number of respondents and the selection method;

f.f) in what area or in what category of people the selection was made;

f.g) whether the survey is based on the opinion of all respondents;

f.h) number of respondents who refused to participate in the survey or did not answer the question or could not be interviewed;

f.i) selection size;

f.k) information on any other factor that may have had a significant impact on the results of the survey.

18. The broadcaster commissioning the public opinion survey is obliged to comply with the requirements set forth in paragraph 17 of this article. A broadcaster that publishes a public opinion survey commissioned by others shall be subject only to the requirements set forth in paragraph 17(f) of this article. (Shall become effective upon acquiring the full authority by the Parliament of Georgia elected in the Parliamentary Elections of Georgia of 26 October 2024)

Chapter VII– Election/Referendum Funding

Article 52– Financial support for preparation and conduct of elections/referenda

1. Costs incurred by the Electoral Administration of Georgia for preparation and conduct of elections/referenda, as well as its activity carried out within the term of its office shall be funded from the State Budget of Georgia.
2. The CEC shall, on an annual basis and according to the procedures defined by this Law, submit to the Parliament of Georgia a budget statement of the Electoral Administration of Georgia for the following year in order to determine the budgetary financing for the following year.
3. If the budgetary funds allocated for the preparation and conduct of elections/referenda are not allocated to the CEC budgetary programme code concerned within the timeframe established by this Law, the CEC shall have the right to file an action in the district/city court of Georgia.
4. Enforcement of the allocation of funds to the CEC may not be carried out from the State Budget of Georgia intended for enforcement of court judgments.
5. The Electoral Administration of Georgia, represented by the CEC, may receive grants from persons duly authorised by law. The grant shall be used according to the agreement between the CEC and the authorised person.
6. For the purpose of unimpeded conduct of elections during an election/referendum, the Electoral Administration of Georgia shall have the right to conduct state procurement under simplified procedures as provided for by the Law of Georgia on State Procurement.
7. Lodging a complaint against actions/decisions of the CEC or a tender commission regarding state procurement during the election/pre-election period may not result in the suspension of procurement procedures.
8. Time limits for appealing, during the election/referendum period, by the state procurement-related Disputes Resolution Board of the State Procurement Agency against decisions of the CEC and/or its tender commissions, and the terms and procedure for considering a complaint and for appealing the decisions delivered shall be defined under Article 77 of this Law.

Organic Law of Georgia No 1274 of 26 July 2017 – website, 29.7.2017

Article 53– Funds necessary for elections/referenda

1. The CEC shall, not later than 55 days before polling, submit to the Ministry of Finance of Georgia a plan for funding the preparation and conduct of elections/referenda.
2. The Ministry of Finance of Georgia shall, not later than on the 50th day before polling day, according to the plan submitted to the ministry by the CEC, ensure that the funds for the preparation and conduct of elections/referenda are allocated from the State Budget of Georgia to the CEC budgetary programme code concerned.
3. The CEC shall by decree regulate the distribution and use of election funds, necessary for the conduct of elections, by election commissions.
4. The CEC shall, not later than 45 days before polling day, deposit funds allocated for a DEC into its current account.
5. A DEC shall, not later than on the 30th day after polling, cease all settlements with organisations and individuals and shall, within 10 days, transfer funds remaining on its account to the relevant account of the state treasury. A DEC shall, within two weeks after transferring funds remaining on its account, submit a financial report to the CEC.

Article 54 – Election/referendum campaign expense

1. An election/referendum campaign shall be funded from:

a) the funds of a political association if the party independently participates in the election/referendum;

b) the funds of the first party on the list of an electoral bloc if political associations come together as one electoral subject;

[b) (deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266); (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

c) the election funds opened by an initiative group of voters to fund the campaign of an independent candidate.

1¹. The basis for opening a bank account in a licensed commercial bank of Georgia for electioneering of an initiative group of voters shall be an ordinance on the registration of this electoral subject of a Chairperson of a relevant election commission.

2. The campaign expense shall mean the amount of funds designated for the election/referendum campaign of an electoral subject, as well as all types of goods and services obtained free of charge (calculated at market prices), except for the cost of free airtime, as defined by this Law.

3. A candidate nominated by an electoral subject shall use the fund of the electoral subject nominating the candidate.

4. An electoral subject shall be obliged to submit to the State Audit Office of Georgia the information about the bank account, from which the necessary costs shall be funded for an election campaign.

5. Election/referendum campaign funds shall be the money deposited into the relevant bank account, as well as all goods and services received free of charge (calculated at market prices).

6. During elections, an electoral subject may not use other financial means than the respective funds.

7. Restrictions defined by the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens shall apply to the election/referendum campaign funds and sources of funding, except for the exclusion provided for by paragraph 8 of this article.

8. Where an electoral bloc finances the election campaign, the parties united in the electoral bloc may, without restriction, transfer funds available in the fund of their political associations into the fund of the political association that is registered as number one on the list of the bloc.

[Article 54 – Election/referendum campaign expense

1. An election/referendum campaign shall be funded from:

a) the funds of a political party;

b) the election funds opened by an initiative group of voters to fund the campaign of an independent candidate.

2. A candidate nominated by an electoral subject shall use the fund of the electoral subject nominating the candidate.

3. The basis for opening a bank account in a licensed commercial bank of Georgia for electioneering of an initiative group of voters shall be an ordinance on the registration of this electoral subject of a Chairperson of a relevant election commission.

4. An electoral subject shall be obliged to submit to the State Audit Office of Georgia the information about the bank account, from which the necessary costs shall be funded for an election campaign. The information submitted on the mentioned fund should also include the contact details of the persons responsible for managing the election campaign fund.

5. Election/referendum campaign funds shall be the money deposited into the relevant bank account, as well as all goods and services received free of charge (calculated at market prices), except for the cost of free advertising time received in accordance with the law.

6. During elections, an electoral subject may not use other financial means than the respective funds.

7. The total amount of expenses incurred by the electoral subject during the year shall not exceed 0.1% of the gross domestic product of Georgia of the previous year. This amount includes the expenses incurred by the electoral subject and another person in its favour, which are determined by the State Audit Office and about which the relevant electoral subject is notified.

8. The upper limit of the total annual election expenses of an independent majoritarian candidate shall be determined as follows: the upper limit of the election campaign allowances for a political party (0.1% of the previous year's GDP) shall be divided by the total number of voters in the country and the number obtained must be multiplied by the number of voters in the respective electoral district. (Shall become effective on the second day from the day of acquiring the full authority by the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

Article 56– Financing of an election campaign fund from the State Budget of Georgia

1. An electoral subject that obtains 5% or more of votes in a parliamentary election conducted under the proportional electoral system, or 10% or more of votes in the first round of a presidential election shall receive a one-time amount of not more than GEL 1000000 from the State Budget of Georgia to cover election campaign expenses incurred in both rounds. An electoral subject that obtains 3% or more of votes in the general elections of municipality representative bodies Sakrebulo (the number of votes shall be calculated according to the votes obtained in the elections held under the proportional electoral system across the whole country) shall receive a one-time amount of not more than GEL 500000 from the State Budget of Georgia to cover election campaign expenses incurred in both rounds of the Sakrebulo/Mayoral elections. These electoral subjects shall receive such funding according to the information on election campaign expenses submitted by them, after submitting a report referred to in Article 57 of this Law.

[1. An electoral subject, who acquires 5% or more than 5% of votes in elections of the Parliament of Georgia, shall receive a one-off sum of not more than GEL 1 000 000 from the state budget of Georgia to cover expenses incurred during the election campaign. An electoral subject, who acquires 3% or more than 3% of votes in the general elections of municipality representative bodies Sakrebulo (this number of votes shall be calculated according to the votes obtained in the elections held under the proportional electoral system across the whole country) shall receive a one-off sum of not more than GEL 500 000 from the state budget of Georgia to cover expenses incurred during election campaign in both rounds of the Sakrebulo/Mayoral elections. These electoral subjects shall receive such funding according to the information submitted with regard to the expenses incurred during the election campaign, after submitting a report under Article 57 of this Law. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

2. To finance election campaign expenses from the State Budget of Georgia, an electoral subject shall apply in writing to the CEC within not later than 38 days before Election Day.
3. The relevant funds provided for by paragraph 1 of this article shall be deposited into the account of an electoral subject not later than the 15th day following the summarisation of election results, based on the CEC summary protocol of election results.
4. To provide financial support to the election campaign of political parties, additional funds shall be allocated from the State Budget of Georgia to cover TV advertising expenses. Only those parties that became eligible for funding based on the results of the last general elections shall receive the sum provided for in this paragraph. To calculate the amount of the sum allocated to a party under this paragraph, the number of the votes obtained by the electoral subject in question in the last general elections shall be multiplied by three and divided by the number of the political associations making up the electoral subject. At the same time, the amount of the sum allocated for a party or an electoral bloc (regardless of the number of parties making up the bloc) running independently in the elections shall not exceed GEL 600 000. At least 15% of the sum allocated to the electoral subject shall be used for pre-election advertising in at least 7 broadcasters who are not national broadcasters.

[4. To provide financial support to the election campaign of political parties, additional funds shall be allocated from the State Budget of Georgia to cover TV advertising expenses. Only those parties that became eligible for funding based on the results of the last general elections shall receive the sum provided for in this paragraph. In addition, the amount of money designated for a party running in the elections shall not exceed GEL 600 000. Not less than 15% of the sum allocated to the electoral subject shall be used for pre-election advertising in not less than 7 broadcasters that are not national broadcasters. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

4¹. If any party united in an electoral bloc does not run in the elections, the sum under paragraph 4 of this article shall be fully allocated to the parties united in the electoral bloc and running in the elections.

[4¹. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

5. The CEC shall pay a broadcaster the expenses provided for in paragraph 4 of this article, within the amounts determined by the same paragraph, based on a contract between a broadcaster and an electoral subject, within 10 business days after the contract is submitted to the CEC. A contract may provide for the price which is different from the price of advertising time for placement of campaign advertisement broadcasted by a broadcaster under the procedure and within the time limit determined by Article 51 of this Law, based on the pricing policy of the broadcaster.

6. Following the announcement of the final results of the elections:

- a) within 5 business days, a party shall submit to the CEC the appropriate information about the final execution of the contract;
- b) within 15 business days, a broadcaster shall return the appropriate sum to the State Budget of Georgia if the party fails to fully spend the amount allocated to it under this article.

Article 57– Report of election campaign expense

1. Once an electoral bloc is registered with the CEC, political associations united in the bloc shall be obliged to suspend activities of their party funds and use solely the fund of the party being the first on the list of the electoral bloc.

[1. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

2. An electoral subject, once in three weeks following the registration, shall be obliged to publish information, in the forms defined, about the sources, amounts, and dates of receipt of donations.

3. Electoral subjects shall, not later than one month after the announcement of final results of elections, submit to the State Audit Office a report of funds having been used up to the time of reporting, together with an audit (audit firm) report, specifying the source of funds. The electoral subjects that have received, based on preliminary data, the required number of votes as defined by this Law, shall submit the same to the State Audit Office not later than 18 days after the polling day. Any auditor (audit firm) operating in the territory of Georgia may carry out an audit.

4. Political associations united in an electoral bloc shall submit to the State Audit Office, together with the reports of their election campaign expense, a bank document evidencing the suspension of financial operations of the accounts of their funds.

[1. Candidate for an electoral subject/electoral subject shall submit a relevant financial report to the State Audit Office once every 3 weeks from the day of calling the elections, in the form prescribed by the State Audit Office.]

2. An electoral subject that, according to preliminary data, receives the number of votes required by this Law in the elections, shall submit a report on the funds used as of the polling day to the State Audit Office not later than 12 days after the polling day.

3. An electoral subject participating in the second round of elections is obliged to submit the financial report on the activities carried out after the polling day of the first round of elections to the State Audit Office, 3 days before the day of the second round of elections.

4. Not later than 1 month after the publication of the election results, and not later than 1 month after the publication of the results of the second round an electoral subject shall submit to the State Audit Office, together with the audit report (an audit firm), a report on the funds used from the day of calling the elections until the day of publishing the final election results. An auditor certified in accordance with the Organic Law of Georgia on the State Audit Office shall have the right to conduct an audit. Unless the election campaign expenses exceed GEL 10,000, the electoral subject shall have the right to submit a full election period report without an audit report. (Shall become effective on the second day from the day of acquiring the full authority by the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

5. Electoral subjects that nominated majoritarian candidates running in the second round of elections, not later than one month after the publication of final results of the second round, shall submit, in the form established by the State Audit Office, the information about the funds remaining unused by the electoral subject; while the electoral subjects that have received, based on preliminary data, the required number of votes as defined by this Law, shall submit the same not later than the eighth day after polling.

[5. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

6. If the electoral subjects having received the required number of votes as provided for by this Law fail to submit a report of their election campaign funds within the specified timeframe, or if any violation of the requirements provided for by law is confirmed, the State Audit Office shall notify the electoral subjects in writing and request them to remedy the deficiency and submit detailed information about the relevant violations in writing. If the State Audit Office deems that the violation is of an essential nature and could have affected the election results, it may recommend to the relevant election commission to apply to court and request to summarize election results without taking into account the votes received by that electoral subject.

7. The State Audit Office shall determine the form of a report for funds used for elections and the procedure for its completion.

Chapter VIII– Polling

Article 58– Arrangement of a polling station

1. The state bodies, municipal bodies, legal entities under public law (except for membership-based and religious unions) and organisations established with more than 50% participation interest of the state and municipal bodies shall provide the election commissions, temporarily and free of charge, with the premises and inventory required for preparing for and holding the elections. Furthermore, the above bodies shall pay the utility costs of the premises provided.

2. A PEC may not be established and a polling place may not be allocated in the same premises where the following are located:

- a) a party;
- b) state authorities and municipality bodies, except when there are no other appropriate premises within the territory of an electoral precinct for the conduct of polling according to this Law; a DEC shall make an appropriate decision;
- c) a division of the police or of the State Security Service of Georgia.

¹. A party or the headquarters of a party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters may not be located in the building where the election commission is located.

[². A party and the election headquarters of a party/an initiative group of voters may not be located in a building where an election commission is located. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

3. (Deleted – 7.3.2014, No 2093).

4. At a polling station:

- a) polling booths shall be set up so as to ensure that voters can complete ballot papers in secret. At least one booth with one pen shall be provided for every 500 voters;
- b) places shall be allocated for registration of voters and special envelopes;
- c) a transparent ballot box shall be installed in a visible place;
- d) public versions of lists of voters, party lists, lists of candidates, procedures for filling out a ballot paper established by the CEC, as well as an extract from this Law defining the cases when a ballot paper is deemed invalid, and demonstration protocol(s) of polling results shall be posted in a visible place.

5. If any electoral subject entered into a ballot paper no longer runs in elections, a notice thereof shall be posted in a visible place both at the polling place and in the voting booth (room).

6. In order to ensure that polling is secret, photo and video filming in a polling booth shall be prohibited.

Article 59– Keeping order at polling stations and its adjacent territory on polling day

1. The PEC chairperson shall be responsible for keeping order at the polling station on polling day.

2. Decisions made by the PEC chairperson for keeping order at a polling station shall be binding upon all members of the election commission, upon all persons authorised to be present at the polling station and upon voters.

3. No armed individual may enter a polling station.

4. If the commission operations are hindered and order is violated, a PEC may expel a troublemaker from the place where the PEC is located. The chairperson and members of the commission shall sign a respective act drawn up for the expulsion. The act shall specify the first and last names of the troublemaker, as well as the numbers of the electoral district and electoral precinct, and account of the violation and the exact time of its commitment.

5. A PEC shall decide to remove a representative of an electoral subject from the premises.

6. If social order, or the polling process or safe movement of electoral documents under this Law is threatened at a polling station or its adjacent territory, at the request of the PEC chairperson, police officers may be summoned to the polling station and its adjacent territory. Police officers shall leave the polling station and adjacent territory with the consent of the PEC chairperson as soon as the disturbance of social order is eliminated.

7. In exceptional cases, police officers may be present in an adjacent territory of a polling station but not in the polling station itself, without the request and consent of the Chairperson of a PEC, if this is absolutely necessary for preventing the violation of social order or for protecting thereof. As soon as such necessity is eliminated, police officers shall leave the adjacent territory of a polling place.

Organic Law of Georgia No 5593 of 24 June 2016 – website, 12.7.2016

Article 60– Polling time and place

1. Polling shall take place at a polling station on the election (polling) day from 8:00 to 20:00 hours.

2. It is prohibited to lock the polling station during voting or to terminate or suspend voting, except when it is impossible to ensure the universal and equal suffrage and free expression of the will of voters.

3. The PEC chairperson shall unilaterally decide to close a polling station temporarily, to terminate or suspend polling, to re-open the polling station, and to resume polling, and he/she shall be fully responsible for making such a decision.

4. In the case of the temporary closure of a polling station, a PEC shall, immediately after polling is terminated or suspended, decide to approve or revoke the relevant decision made by the PEC chairperson. If the decision of the commission chairperson concerns the suspension of the polling, the decision of the commission on confirming or revoking the decision shall be reflected in the log-book, the reason and the time of the suspension of the polling shall be indicated and confirmed by the signatures of the commission members. If the decision of the commission chairperson concerns the termination of the polling, the decision of the commission on confirming or revoking the decision shall be taken by an ordinance, where the reason and the time of the termination of the polling shall be indicated. As soon as the cause of the suspension of polling has been removed, the polling process shall be resumed by an ordinance of the commission chairperson. If the polling is declared terminated, it shall not be resumed.

5. A voter may stay at the polling station only during the time required for voting.

6. A PEC shall declare polling completed any time before 20:00 at electoral precincts set up at military units, hospitals, and other inpatient facilities and hard-to-access areas, provided all voters on the list of voters participated in the polling.

7. It is prohibited to conduct polling before the day or after the day of polling, except for the cases provided for by the legislation of Georgia.

Organic Law of Georgia No 5438 of 22 June 2016 – website, 12.7.2016

Article 61 – Opening of electoral precincts

1. An electoral precinct shall open at 7:00 a.m. If by this time the number of PEC members is less than 7, the higher DEC shall be immediately informed thereof, and it shall immediately make an appropriate decision.

2. Polling procedures from the time of opening an electoral precinct up to the time of starting polling shall be carried out in the following sequence:

a) immediately after opening an electoral precinct the polling day log-book shall be opened. All persons authorised to be present at the polling place shall sign the first and second pages of the book, and if necessary, the tenth and following pages as well;

b) the PEC chairperson shall inspect the integrity of the sealed package that contains a special seal of the PEC;

c) the PEC chairperson shall prepare papers for casting lots on same kind of sheets with the same pen, shall set a special PEC seal thereto and shall fold the papers so that the text inside cannot be read. The total number of blank and filled out papers shall be equal to the number of commission members participating in casting of lots. The commission chairperson shall conduct casting of lots in the presence of the commission members and persons authorised to be present at a polling station. The commission chairperson/deputy chairperson/secretary may not participate in the casting of lots. The papers shall be thrown onto the table and the commission members participating in casting of lots shall pick them up one by one;

d) the PEC chairperson shall identify from among the PEC members, by casting lots, 2 commission members to carry a mobile ballot box (if necessary);

d¹) if a commission member identified by casting lots to carry a mobile ballot box refuses to fulfil the function assigned to him/her, he/she shall lose the right to participate in the regular lots to be casted for distributing other functions of the commission members. The issue of assigning a function to this commission member shall be decided on by the PEC chairperson;

e) another casting of lots shall be conducted to assign other duties to the commission members, in which the following members shall be selected:

e.a) a commission member responsible for regulation of the flow of voters at a polling room and for verification of the inking of voters;

e.b) commission members registering voters (at least 1 member per 300 voters) who shall also issue ballot papers after signing and sealing the assigned place on the reverse side of a ballot paper;

e.c) a member of the commission supervising ballot boxes and special envelopes;

f) after the casting of lots is finished, the PEC secretary shall make a note on the 3rd page of the polling day log-book about the results of assigning duties by casting lots;

g) the duties of a commission member defined by casting lots may be delegated to another commission member only with permission of the commission chairperson and that shall be noted by the commission secretary on the 5th page of the polling day log-book by specifying the time.

3. If the number of commission members in terms of the duties to be assigned appears on the polling day to be:

a) less by one member, the number of members of the commission registering voters shall be reduced;

b) less by two members, the commission deputy chairperson shall perform the duties of the commission member regulating the flow of voters in the polling room;

c) less by three members, the commission chairperson shall perform the duties of the member of the commission supervising ballot boxes and special envelopes.

4. The DEC shall decide the matter of remuneration of a PEC member who appears before the commission after the end of the lot casting procedure, while the PEC chairperson shall decide the issue of assigning duties to that person.

5. If a person authorised to be present at a polling place finds (identifies) any violation during registration of a complaint, a decision regarding the registration of the complaint shall be made by the commission under the determined procedure.

6. After the completion of casting lots, the PEC chairperson shall:

a) announce the number of voters according to unified and special lists, including mobile ballot box list;

b) check the integrity of packages of ballot papers and special envelopes and announce the number of ballot papers and special envelopes received;

c) check and put a seal with a unique number on main and mobile ballot boxes as determined by the CEC.

7. Each registrar of voters shall be given a notebook containing all types of ballot papers that shall be confirmed with signatures of the commission chairperson and the registrar on a front page. After all ballot papers are issued from the notebook, another notebook shall be given to the registrar, and so on.

8. (Deleted – 7.3.2014, No 2093).

9. The PEC secretary shall announce the data referred to in paragraph 6(a)(b) of this article and shall incorporate (except for the number of special envelopes) it into the demonstration protocol of polling results and the polling day log-book.

10. Control sheets shall be signed by the first voter and all the PEC members present. The following details shall be indicated in the control sheets: first name, and surname of the first voter, his/her place of registration and personal identification number of a citizen of Georgia. The PEC chairperson and the secretary shall fill out control sheets in three copies. The PEC chairperson shall insert one copy of the control sheet into the main ballot box after the first voter appears, the second copy shall be inserted into a mobile ballot box, and the third copy shall be kept for the purpose of further comparison with the control sheets in the ballot boxes.

11. Polling shall start at 8:00 a.m. on the polling day.

Article 62– Polling day log-book

1. The polling process at an electoral precinct as well as claims, complaints, and comments concerning the progress of polling shall be recorded in a polling day log-book ('thelog-book').
2. The log-book shall be maintained in the Georgian language, while for those electoral districts for which ballot papers are also printed in other languages understandable to the local population, the log-book may also be maintained in the respective language.
3. The log-book shall be delivered to the commission secretary who is, together with the commission chairperson, in charge of recording every election procedure during the polling day in the log-book and of specifying the time of implementation thereof.
4. One copy of the log-book together with ballot papers shall be delivered to PECs.
5. The log-book shall be bound with a lace; the lace shall be sealed, the sheet to be sealed shall be signed by the DEC chairperson and secretary, and shall be affixed with a DEC seal. Every page of the log-book shall be numbered and the number of the electoral district and the electoral precinct shall be specified on each page.
6. The PEC secretary shall indicate on page 4 of the log-book the number of ballot papers handed over and of ballot papers left unused after the completion of polling.
7. The commission secretary shall record on page 5 of the log-book the information regarding temporary delegation of a commission member's duties defined by casting lots to another member of the commission.
8. The commission secretary shall record on pages 6 and 9 of the log-book every set of data to be entered into the summary protocol when summarising polling results.
9. All persons authorised to be present at a polling place may record in the log-book all claims, complaints, and comments related to the polling procedure on the polling day (page 10 and the following pages of the log-book shall be used for this purpose), and may specify witnesses (if any). Persons making records in the log-book shall specify their first and last names, and address as provided on the identity card of a citizen of Georgia.
10. No one shall have the right to prevent any person authorised to be present at a polling place from making records in the log-book.
11. The log-book shall be closed after polling results are summarised. It shall be signed by the chairperson and the secretary of the PEC and certified with the PEC seal. The log-book shall be sealed together with applications/complaints received and forwarded to the higher DEC together with the sealed documents specified in Article 67(5¹) and the summary protocol(s) of a PEC.

Article 63 – Ballot papers and special envelopes

1. Ballot papers shall be printed under a CEC ordinance and according to the sample established by the CEC in the Georgian language, while in Abkhazia ballot papers shall be printed in the Georgian and Abkhazian languages, and if necessary, in other languages understandable to the local population.
2. For electoral precincts the CEC shall ensure the use of technologies that allow voters with vision disabilities to complete a ballot paper independently.
3. The CEC shall ensure the printing of ballot papers and the production of ballot boxes (main and mobile), while the relevant DEC shall be responsible for the accuracy of the data to be entered into ballot papers for the elections of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo (except for Tbilisi (capital city of Georgia) municipality Sakrebulo). Ballot papers shall be printed under permanent supervision of observers and persons authorised by the CEC and DEC. Two commission members appointed by ordinance of the respective election commission and observer organisations registered under this Law may observe the process of printing of ballot papers (at every place of printing). The observer organisations shall agree upon nominating not more than 3 observers.
4. The respective election commission shall, within two days after adoption of the appropriate ordinance, publish data about the place where ballot papers are printed and ballot boxes are produced, as well as about the persons responsible for printing ballot papers and producing ballot boxes.

5. A person printing the ballot papers shall be personally responsible for the precise compliance of the number of ballot papers printed and transferred to the relevant election commission with the number of ballot papers ordered in order to make sure that no extra ballot papers are printed and disseminated.

6. The chairperson and secretary of an election commission shall be personally responsible for the storage and proper distribution of ballot papers in the election commission.

7. In order to provide a precise recording of ballot papers, each type of ballot paper shall be numbered sequentially (the number shall be specified on the counterfoil of a ballot paper; a ballot paper and its counterfoil shall be separated from each other by a perforated line) and bound in 50 copies in the form of a notebook. Each notebook shall specify on its cover page the type of ballot paper, the lines for a notebook number, numbers of ballot papers in the notebook, numbers and names of electoral districts and electoral precincts, the lines for signatures of a PEC chairperson and a PEC member (registrar of voters), to whom the notebook is to be delivered, as well as the line for recording the number of unused ballot papers.

8. The number of special envelopes delivered to each PEC shall equal to the total number of voters in an electoral precinct, while the number of ballot paper notebooks shall be equal to a multiple number of 50 of the total number of voters in an electoral precinct.

9. The CEC shall transfer ballot papers and special envelopes to DEC's not later than two days before polling day. On the other hand, the DEC shall transfer ballot papers and special envelopes to PEC's not later than 12 hours before polling starts.

10. The number of ballot papers and special envelopes shall be precisely registered. Two copies of a delivery and acceptance certificate shall be drawn up after the CEC transfers ballot papers and special envelopes to a DEC and the DEC transfers them to a PEC. A delivery and acceptance certificate shall specify the names of the commissions having transferred and having received ballot papers and special envelopes, the amount of special envelopes, the type of ballot papers, the amount of ballot paper notebooks (specifying their numbers and the numbers of ballot papers), the identity of persons having issued and having received them. A delivery and acceptance certificate shall be signed by the persons having issued and having received the documents (one copy of the certificate shall remain with the commission having transferred ballot papers and special envelopes, while another copy shall be given to the commission having received the ballot papers and special envelopes). A representative of the election commission that is given ballot papers and special envelopes shall request one copy of a delivery and acceptance certificate to be transferred to the respective DEC/PEC. A delivery and acceptance certificate shall represent public information.

11. Signatories to a delivery and acceptance certificate referred to in paragraph 10 of this article shall, before drawing it up, and after determining the compliance of ballot paper information, count ballot papers and enter data into the delivery and acceptance certificate. Thereafter, ballot papers shall be sealed again and that shall be endorsed by the signatures of the parties.

12. The front page of a ballot paper shall include:

a) the name of an election/referendum and the date of the election/referendum;

b) the name and the number of an electoral district;

c) the number of an electoral precinct (on counterfoil of a ballot paper and on ballot paper itself);

d) during elections held under the proportional system – the serial number and name of the party/electoral bloc independently running in the elections; during the Presidential elections of Georgia, the Mayor of a self-governing city (including Tbilisi), the Mayor of a self-governing community and during the elections held under the majoritarian system – the serial number, first name, and last name of a candidate, and the name of a nominating electoral subject. If a presidential candidate of Georgia or any majoritarian candidate is nominated by an initiative group of voters, the word 'independent' shall be indicated next to the serial number in the ballot paper;

[d) during elections held under the proportional election system – the sequence number and name of a party running in the elections; during elections of the Mayor of a self-governing city (including Tbilisi city)/a self-governing community and elections of Sakrebulo held under the majoritarian election system – the sequence number, surname and first name of a candidate, and the name of an electoral subject nominating him/her. If a majoritarian candidate is nominated by an initiative group of voters, the word 'independent' shall be specified along the sequence number in the ballot paper; (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

e) a referendum paper shall also specify the question to citizens concerning the referendum issue and options of possible answer: 'yes' and 'no';

f) the procedure for filling out a ballot paper.

13. If it turns out that a ballot paper was supposed to be in another electoral precinct/district or the quantity thereof does not comply with the one determined in advance, or it has a typographical or other defect, the higher election commission shall be immediately notified thereof, while the relevant election commission may, by an appropriate certificate, enter the actual number of ballot papers into the summary protocol.

14. The reverse page of a ballot paper shall specify the following:

a) the place for affixing a signature by the registrar of voters;

b) the place for affixing a special stamp by the registrar of voters.

15. If an electoral subject is withdrawn from an election, a stamp 'withdrawn from election' shall be placed on a ballot paper after the name of an electoral subject.

16. Ballot papers are state property. It is prohibited to take ballot papers out of a polling station, to take them away, or to destroy them on the polling day without permission.

17. Ballot papers shall be printed on a paper with protective signs and only the CEC shall have the right to order and purchase such papers.

18. The violation of the restrictions provided for by the sixteenth paragraph of this article, as well as the dissemination and use of forged ballot papers, is a criminal offence punishable by law.

19. A PEC shall issue a ballot paper (papers) and special envelopes based on a list of voters against presentation of the identity card of a citizen of Georgia or the passport of a citizen of Georgia.

20. Each voter shall be given one special envelope and the appropriate amount of ballot papers on the polling day.

21. Voters shall be given two types of ballot papers during elections of the Parliament of Georgia – one for majoritarian and the other for proportional elections.

[21. During elections of the Parliament of Georgia, election ballot papers shall be given a voter. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

22. A commission member acting as a registrar of voters shall endorse the issuance of a ballot paper(s) by his/her signature on the list of voters.

23. Voters shall endorse receipt of a ballot paper(s) by his/her signature on the list of voters.

Article 64– Inking of voters

1. Inking of voters shall be conducted in every electoral precinct (except for the cases referred to in paragraph 5 of this article), which implies applying of invisible and non-hazardous indelible ink on the voter's right thumbnail or forefinger nail (in the case of impossibility to perform this action, the invisible and indelible ink shall be applied on the voter's right nail of another finger, and if this is also impossible, the same procedure shall be conducted on the left hand).

2. A voter shall go through the inking verification procedure provided by the respective election commission member upon entering a polling room. The commission member shall illuminate the place for inking with a special device and after making sure that a voter has not been inked before, he/she shall grant the voter the right to participate in polling. If the device determines that a voter has been inked before, the voter shall be restricted from participating in polling and his/her name shall be recorded in the log-book.
3. A voter who has gone through the inking verification procedure shall move to the registration desk, where the registrar of voters shall ink a voter and issue a ballot paper(s). In the case of refusal to inking, a voter shall have no right to vote and a ballot paper(s) shall not be issued to him/her.
4. If a member of the election commission, an observer present at an electoral precinct and/or a representative of an electoral subject becomes suspicious of the inking or inking verification procedure, he/she shall have the right to require the repeated conduct of the procedure referred to in paragraphs 2 and/or 3 of this article. The same persons shall have the right to require respective responses to any identified violation of the inking procedure.
5. Inking shall not apply to penitentiary institutions, hospitals and other inpatient facilities (for patients), or to mobile voters.
6. A voter who has gone through the inking procedure and has participated in an election may not vote again at the same or another electoral precinct.
7. An individual violating the requirements referred to in this article shall be held liable under the legislation of Georgia.

Article 65– Conduct of polling

1. Each voter shall vote personally. It is restricted to vote in the place of another person.
2. Voting shall be conducted under the procedure and in the sequence as follows:
 - a) on entering the polling room, a voter shall be checked for ink; if a voter is not inked, he/she shall be allowed to vote. A commission member responsible for regulating the voters' flow in the polling room shall let a voter in the polling room only after the voter presents the identity card of a citizen of Georgia or the passport of a citizen of Georgia, and if there are not more than two voters standing at the registration desk designated for voters;
 - b) after entering the polling room, a voter shall go to the registration desk corresponding to the first letter of his/her last name in the list of voters, and shall present to the registrar of voters the identity card of a citizen of Georgia or the passport of a citizen of Georgia. The registrar of voters shall verify compliance of the voter's registration data specified in the presented document(s) with the data on the list of voters, and compliance of the voter's face and photos in the presented document(s) and in the list of voters with each other. If compliance is verified, the registrar of voters shall ink the voter and sign in a respective box in the list of voters, after which the voter will confirm the receipt of a ballot paper(s) by his/her signature. When issuing a ballot paper(s), a registrar of voters shall sign in the appropriate box on the back of the ballot paper(s) and certify the ballot paper(s) with a special seal;
 - c) after endorsing a ballot paper(s), a voter shall enter a secret polling booth and fill out the ballot paper(s) as defined by this Law. After filling out the ballot paper(s), the voter shall fold it (them) so that it is impossible to see who/what he/she voted for;
 - d) a voter shall take the folded ballot paper(s) to a desk standing separately, shall independently take a special envelope and put the ballot paper(s) therein. Only a voter shall have the right to put a ballot paper(s) in a special envelope. An election commission member may not open the filled out ballot paper(s) or otherwise violate the secrecy of voting;
 - e) not more than 1 voter at a time shall be allowed at a ballot box;
 - f) a commission member supervising a ballot box and special envelopes shall be permanently present by the ballot box. He/she shall keep closed the ballot box opening for inserting envelopes and shall open it only after making sure that a voter has only one envelope in hand;
 - g) after the end of the election, the ballot box opening for inserting envelopes shall be sealed.

2². If the PEC chairperson:

a) confirms inconsistency defined in paragraph 2¹ of this article, the PEC secretary shall make a record in the log-book, on a specially designated page, specifying the fact of inconsistency, the voter's name, last name and serial number in the list of voters. That record shall be certified by the signatures of a PEC chairperson and a PEC secretary. The PEC secretary shall attach the photocopy of the document presented by the voter to the log-book, and certify it with his/her signature;

b) does not confirm the inconsistency defined in the paragraph 2¹ of this article but the registrar of voters, who detected the inconsistency, does not agree with him/her, the registrar of voters shall record and certify with signature his/her special opinion in the log-book, on a specially designated page, after which the PEC secretary shall add to that record the voter's name, surname and the serial number in the list of voters and certify the record with his/her signature. The PEC secretary shall attach the photocopy of the document presented by the voter to the logbook, and certify it with his/her signature.

3. It is restricted for any other person to be present at the moment of filling out a ballot paper. A voter who is unable to fill out a ballot paper independently may ask any person for help in the secret polling booth except for:

a) a member of an election commission;

b) a candidate;

c) a representative of an electoral subject;

d) an observer;

e) representatives of press and other media.

4. If a voter or a PEC member spoils a ballot paper or a special envelope, he/she shall inform the PEC chairperson thereof, re-submit the spoiled ballot paper/special envelope, and get a new one. A corner of the spoiled ballot paper/special envelope shall be cut off in the presence of a voter, the word 'spoiled' shall be written thereon, and then the spoiled ballot paper/special envelope shall be signed by the PEC chairperson and stored separately.

5. Members of a PEC and persons authorised to be present at a polling place may require a voter, before he/she goes into the polling booth and places the ballot paper(s) into a special envelope, to show them that he/she has the exact number of ballot papers and special envelopes in hand as defined by this Law. A voter shall be obliged to comply with this requirement.

6. A PEC secretary shall, on the polling day, count the number of signatures of voters in the list of voters twice, at 12:00 and at 17:00, and record the number of signatures of voters in the PEC demonstration protocol and log-book.

7. If the seal integrity of a ballot box is lost during elections, a PEC shall stop the voting process and shall decide by ordinance whether or not to re-seal the ballot box and resume polling.

8. A polling place shall be closed at 20:00. Voters standing in the line by that time may vote. For this purpose, one of the election commission members shall, by order of the PEC chairperson, register the first and last names of voters waiting in the line and inform the PEC chairperson about the number thereof, while the commission secretary shall enter the number of voters standing in the line into the log-book. The PEC chairperson shall announce that only voters standing in the line have the right to vote.

9. After closing a polling place, authorised persons of a PEC set up for exceptional cases shall take the ballot box and electoral documents of an electoral precinct established for exceptional cases to a polling place pre-designated by a DEC.

Article 66– Mobile voting

1. The mobile voting procedure shall start at 9:00 and end at 19:00. A mobile ballot box shall be returned to an electoral precinct not later than 20:00.
2. Persons referred to in Article 33 of this Law shall have the right to cast a vote through mobile voting.
3. From 9:00 on polling day, the PEC chairperson shall provide the election commission members accompanying a mobile ballot box with the mobile ballot box list, special envelopes, and necessary number of ballot papers signed and sealed with a special seal by the registrar of voters.
4. Two members of a PEC selected by casting lots and persons authorised to be present at a polling place shall participate, at their own discretion, in polling conducted according to the location of voters.
5. If a vehicle is used during mobile voting, a PEC shall allocate space in the vehicle for 2 observers selected by casting lots from among persons authorised to be present at a polling station.
6. A voter (except persons indicated in Article 33 (1)(d) of this Law) shall cast a vote through mobile voting in case his/her actual whereabouts is assigned to the territory of an electoral precinct where he/she is registered.
7. One transparent mobile ballot box shall be used to conduct polling according to the actual whereabouts of voters. The PEC secretary shall enter into the log-book the amount of ballot papers and special envelopes delivered to the election commission members accompanying a mobile ballot box. After the end of polling, the amount of ballot papers and special envelopes in a ballot box as well as unused ones shall be summarised in order to make a comparison thereafter. After the completion of the above procedure, a corner of each unused ballot paper and special envelope shall be cut off, the word 'spoiled' shall be written thereon, and then it shall be signed by the PEC chairperson and stored separately. All procedures related to polling at an electoral precinct shall apply to mobile voting as well. The powers of representatives and observers shall also be identical.
8. If, in the cases provided for by Article 33 of this Law, both the place of registration and the actual whereabouts of a voter are assigned to one and the same electoral district, the voter shall have the right to participate in elections held under the proportional and majoritarian electoral systems and a respective ballot paper and special envelope shall be issued to him/her. Otherwise, a voter (except persons indicated in Article 33 (1)(d) of this Law) shall have the right to participate only in elections held under the proportional electoral system.
- [8. If, during elections of municipality bodies, in cases under Article 33 of this Law, the place of registration and the actual location of a voter are assigned to the same electoral district, the voter shall have the right to participate in elections held under the proportional and majoritarian electoral systems and a respective ballot paper and special envelope shall be issued to him/her. Otherwise, a voter (except for persons indicated in Article 33(1)(d) of this Law) shall have the right to participate only in elections held under the proportional electoral system. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]
9. Polling procedures referred to in paragraph 8 of this article shall be conducted by the PEC on the territory where there is a military unit, a hospital or other inpatient facility or a penitentiary establishment, in which a voter is located.
10. After the end of polling, the mobile ballot box opening shall be sealed so that it cannot be opened without damaging the seal.
11. Polling procedure through mobile voting may not take place for the voters staying abroad on polling day.

Article 67– Procedures to be conducted before opening ballot boxes

1. After the end of polling, a PEC chairperson shall select by lot at least 3 counting officers under Article 61(2)(c) of this Law, while observers shall select from within their members not more than 2 supervisors by mutual agreement (if observers fail to come to an agreement, the PEC chairperson shall select 2 supervisors from among the observers by lot).
2. The commission chairperson shall select by casting lots not more than 2 representatives from among the representatives present at an electoral precinct who shall participate in the process of counting valid and/or invalid ballot papers, together with the counting officers selected from among the commission members by casting lots. Moreover, representatives of the electoral subjects who are at the same time the counting officers selected by casting lots from among the commission members appointed by the same electoral subjects shall not participate in casting lots for above-mentioned representatives.
3. Counting officers shall sequentially count the total number of voters participating in polling by unified, special, and mobile ballot box lists of voters. The PEC secretary shall immediately incorporate the results into a demonstration protocol and a polling day log-book, and then wrap and seal separately the unified, special, and mobile ballot box lists of voters.
4. The commission secretary shall cut an edge off any unused ballot paper. Unused and spoiled ballot papers shall be bound in separate packages. Each package shall specify the name and number of an electoral precinct, and the type of ballot paper.
5. Packages shall be sealed and signed by counting officers and the PEC chairperson.
- 5¹. Upon the completion of the above procedures, the PEC secretary shall record the number of cases defined in Article 65(2²), the number of documents attached to the log-book and shall enter the relevant data into the log-book. Then the secretary shall pack and seal the documents, indicate the number of the electoral precinct, the type of the document and sign the sealed package.
6. Polling procedures at an electoral precinct set up in exceptional cases shall be conducted according to the general procedures. After the end of polling, a PEC established in exceptional cases shall seal the ballot box opening, list of voters, and unused and spoiled ballot papers. The ballot box, list of voters, and sealed unused and spoiled ballot papers shall immediately be submitted to an electoral precinct (main electoral precinct) pre-designated by ordinance of a DEC.
7. The main electoral precinct shall open the ballot box of an electoral precinct established in exceptional cases defined in paragraph 8 of this article, and shall mix special envelopes and ballot papers from that box with the special envelopes and ballot papers available at the main electoral precinct.
8. A ballot box of an electoral precinct established in exceptional cases shall be opened after mobile and main ballot boxes of the main electoral precinct are opened. The results of the main electoral precinct and the electoral precinct established in exceptional cases shall be recorded in one summary protocol.

Article 68– Opening of ballot boxes

1. The PEC chairperson shall check the seal integrity on a ballot box in the presence of PEC members and persons authorised to be present at a polling place.
2. If the seal integrity is lost but a PEC considers that this has not led to violation of the requirements of this Law, the procedure of summarising results shall be resumed under a PEC ordinance. Otherwise, a ballot box shall be sealed and the PEC ordinance and the sealed ballot box shall immediately be submitted to the higher DEC.
3. Counting officers shall move ballot boxes to a desk standing separately and take their places on opposite sides so as to maintain two meters distance between PEC members and persons authorised to be present at the polling station. Two supervisors and two representatives selected from among the observers shall stand next to counting officers.
4. A PEC shall first open mobile ballot boxes. Counting officers shall take special envelopes from the mobile ballot box and place them on the desk, check whether there is a control sheet in the mobile ballot box and compare it with the control sheet kept with the PEC for comparison. If any difference between the two control sheets is identified or if the control sheet is missing in the mobile ballot box, all special envelopes and ballot papers shall be bundled in one package and labelled 'invalid' and then submitted to the higher DEC after the polling and vote counting procedures are completed at the electoral precinct. After this procedure, counting officers shall open the main ballot box.

5. Counting officers shall take special envelopes and ballot papers from the main ballot box and place them on a separate desk, check whether there is a control sheet in the main ballot box and compare it with the control sheet kept by the PEC chairperson for comparison. If any difference between the two control sheets is identified or the control sheet is missing in the main ballot box, all special envelopes and ballot papers shall be bundled in one package and sealed. A respective protocol shall be drawn up and immediately submitted to the higher DEC. If violations do not occur, counting officers shall mix special envelopes from the main and mobile ballot boxes and start counting ballot papers.

Article 69– Counting of votes

1. A PEC shall count ballot papers in compliance with the following procedure:

a) the first counting officer shall take a ballot paper out of a special envelope, announce for whom the vote has been cast and transfer one type of ballot paper to the second counting officer, another type of ballot paper to the third counting officer, etc., while he/she shall place special envelopes separately. Counting officers shall sort ballot papers separately by the votes given to each electoral subject;

b) unidentified type of ballot papers and ballot papers deemed by counting officers invalid shall be placed separately from ballot papers raising doubt about their validity.

2. One of supervisors selected from among observers shall stand next to the second counting officer as referred to in paragraph 1(a) of this article, and another supervisor shall stand next to the third counting officer as referred to in the same subparagraph. Supervisors shall have the right to observe the entire procedure of counting votes, make remarks on errors, require rectification of errors, and unless the requirement is met, appeal the PEC action to the higher DEC, and thereafter in court. Persons authorised to be present at a polling station may require the counting officer to put aside any ballot paper raising doubt about its validity.

3. A standard ballot paper shall be deemed invalid only in the following cases:

a) the ballot paper is not endorsed by the signature and special seal of a registrar of voters;

b) it is impossible to determine for which electoral subject a voter cast a vote;

c) the number of ballot papers in a special envelope exceeds the number required;

d) the special envelope does not comply with the sample;

e) the ballot paper in a ballot box is without a special envelope;

f) the ballot paper was intended for another electoral precinct.

4. Any corrections, changes, or amendments to a ballot paper after a voter casts a vote shall give rise to liability under the legislation of Georgia.

5. Ballot papers raising doubt about their validity shall be verified after all ballot papers are sorted into different categories. A PEC shall decide by voting whether each ballot paper is valid. Ballot papers that are deemed valid shall be added to the pile of valid ballot papers, while ballot papers that are deemed invalid shall be added to the pile of invalid ballot papers.

6. After the procedure referred to in paragraph 5 of this article, the ballot papers that have been determined to be invalid shall be counted and labelled 'invalid'. Such ballot papers shall be bundled in a package and signed by counting officers and the PEC chairperson, and the PEC secretary shall immediately enter the quantity thereof in the demonstration protocol and the log-book. Valid ballot papers intended for another electoral precinct shall be packed in a separate bundle and the quantity thereof shall be entered only in the log-book.

7. Each package of ballot papers shall be packed and sealed in an envelope of appropriate size. The number of the electoral precinct and the type and quantity of ballot papers contained therein shall be specified on each package.

8. After the procedure referred to in paragraph 7 of this article, the number of votes cast for each electoral subject shall be counted and ballot papers shall be packed according to the procedure referred to in paragraph 9 of this article. The bundle of ballot papers belonging to each electoral subject shall separately be wrapped and sealed. The number of votes obtained by each electoral subject shall immediately be recorded by the PEC secretary in the demonstration protocol and the log-book.

9. Every 10 ballot papers shall be bound with metal clips and each package, either complete or incomplete, shall specify on the top of the package the quantity of ballot papers in the package. The packages shall be bound in a single bundle. The bundles shall specify on the top of the bundle the name and the number of an electoral precinct, the information about an electoral subject(s) (name, first and last names), the number of votes received by an electoral subject(s), and the number of ballot papers in the bundle.

Article 70– Summary protocols of polling and election results

1. Polling and elections results shall be entered in summary protocols of polling and election results of the CEC, DEC, and PECs.

2. A summary protocol is an individual administrative-legal act evidencing the polling and election results. A summary protocol and its copy, certified as defined by this Law, shall have equal legal force.

3. It is prohibited to modify data in a summary protocol. The higher election commission shall consider whether a summary protocol is void. Modification of any summary protocol data shall give rise to liability of the respective election commission chairperson and secretary as defined by this Law.

4. If any mistake is made during filling out a summary protocol, in order to correct it, an inscription 'corrected' shall immediately be put alongside the respective data in a summary protocol. An election commission shall draw up an amendment protocol that shall specify the amended data entered into a summary protocol and the date and time of drawing up the protocol. All members of an election commission attending the election commission session shall sign the amendment protocol. A commission seal shall be put on the amendment protocol, the amendment protocol shall be registered in the log-book, and shall be attached to the summary protocol in which data were amended.

5. Each type of summary protocols (summary protocols of PEC polling results and summary protocols of DEC polling and election results) shall be assigned individual numbers that shall not be reiterated.

6. Summary protocols shall be registered accurately. The CEC shall ensure the printing of summary protocols. Summary protocols shall be printed under the constant supervision of observers and persons authorised by the CEC. The person printing summary protocols shall be solely responsible for exact compliance of the number of printed protocols transferred to the CEC with that of ordered protocols in order to prevent printing and dissemination of an excess number of protocols.

7. An election commission chairperson shall be responsible for keeping the protocols in the election commission and for distributing them as required.

8. A DEC shall provide a PEC with each type of summary protocol of polling results at an electoral precinct.

9. Summary protocols shall be printed on paper with protective markings that can only be ordered and purchased by the CEC.

10. Summary protocols shall be printed in the Georgian language, while in Abkhazia they shall be printed in the Abkhazian language, and for electoral districts for which ballot papers have been printed in a different language understandable to the local population, summary protocols shall be printed in the corresponding language.

Article 71– Drawing up summary protocols of polling results by PECs

1. Upon determination of all data referred to in paragraph 3 of this article, the PEC secretary shall, in agreement with the PEC chairperson and according to all available information, draw up each type of summary protocol of polling results.

2. Two summary protocols shall be drawn up during the Parliamentary elections of Georgia and the elections of the municipality representative body Sakrebulo. One protocol shall be prepared according to the results of the elections held under the proportional electoral system, and the other protocol shall be prepared according to results of the elections held under the majoritarian electoral system. During the Presidential elections of Georgia, for the Mayor of a self-governing city (including Tbilisi), the Mayor of a self-governing community and during by-elections, one summary protocol shall be prepared.

[2. One summary protocol shall be drawn up during elections of the Parliament of Georgia, and two summary protocols shall be drawn up during elections of the municipality representative body Sakrebulo. One protocol shall be prepared according to the results of the elections held under the proportional electoral system, and the other one shall be prepared according to the results of the elections held under the majoritarian electoral system. One summary protocol shall be drawn up during elections of the Mayor of a self-governing city (including Tbilisi)/a self-governing community and during by-elections. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

3. A summary protocol of polling results shall specify the following:

- a) the number and the name of an electoral district, the number of an electoral precinct;
- b) the number of an electoral precinct set up in exceptional cases (if any) that is attached to the main electoral precinct;
- c) the name of elections/referenda, voting system (proportional, majoritarian);
- d) the polling date (it shall also specify if it is a repeat voting or the second round of elections);
- e) the numbers of seals of PECs and registrars of voters;
- f) the number of voters in a unified list;
- g) the number of voters in a special list;
- h) the number of signatures of voters participating in elections in the list of voters at 12:00 and 17:00;
- i) the total number of voters participating in elections (according to signatures in the lists of voters);
- j) the number of received ballot papers;
- k) the number of invalid ballot papers;
- l) the name of electoral subjects, the number of votes cast therefore;
- m) the date and time of drawing up of the protocol;
- n) the protocol data, with which a PEC member disagrees (a commission member shall make this note in the column 'dissenting opinion' and shall sign it).

4. All PEC members shall be obliged to sign a summary protocol of polling results, thus evidencing their presence at an electoral precinct. The protocol shall be endorsed by the PEC seal.

5. If a PEC member does not agree with the data entered in a PEC summary protocol of polling results, he/she shall have the right to attach his/her dissenting opinion to the protocol in writing.

6. If a PEC member expresses a dissenting opinion, he/she is obliged to sign a summary protocol of polling results in the relevant section designated for the commission member's signature.

7. A summary protocol of polling results (attached with dissenting opinions of PEC members), together with a sealed package of ballot papers and lists of voters, shall immediately be submitted to the higher DEC, and the higher DEC shall submit the same protocol, together with the DEC summary protocol, to the CEC.

8. A PEC shall be responsible for posting a photocopy of a summary protocol of polling results for public review. A PEC shall, if requested, immediately give a photocopy of the protocol (attached with dissenting opinions of commission members) to representatives of a party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters or to a PEC member appointed by a party and to observers from an observer organisation. The photocopy of a protocol shall be certified by the PEC seal and signatures of the PEC chairperson and secretary (these protocols shall have the same legal force as PEC summary protocols for polling results). The above-mentioned persons shall endorse the receipt of a photocopy of the protocol by signing in the PEC log-book.

[8. A PEC shall be responsible for posting a photocopy of a summary protocol of polling results for public review. A PEC shall, if requested, immediately give a photocopy of the protocol (attached with dissenting opinions of commission members) to representatives of a party/an initiative group of voters or to a PEC member appointed by a party and to observers from an observer organisation. The photocopy of a protocol shall be certified by the PEC seal and signatures of the PEC chairperson and secretary (these protocols shall have the same legal force as PEC summary protocols for polling results). The above-mentioned persons shall endorse the receipt of a photocopy of the protocol by signing in the PEC log-book. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

9. From the day following the polling day, a DEC shall issue photocopies of summary protocols for polling results. The photocopies shall be endorsed by signatures of the DEC chairperson and secretary and by the DEC seal (those protocols shall have the same legal force as PEC summary protocols for polling results). Any representative/observer shall endorse the receipt of a photocopy of the protocol by signing in the DEC log-book.

10. Failure to issue a summary protocol of polling results, if requested as defined by this Law, shall give rise to the liability of authorised persons of a commission as defined by this Law.

11. A summary protocol of polling results, together with lists of voters and signatures of the voters participating in polling, shall be delivered to a DEC. A DEC, on the other hand, shall deliver the same lists to the CEC that shall sort and archive them.

12. After the completion of all polling procedures, the registration book of a PEC shall be closed, signed by the PEC chairperson and secretary, and endorsed by a PEC seal.

13. A PEC seal shall be sealed in a separate package. The package shall be signed by the PEC chairperson, its secretary, and other PEC members.

14. It is the duty of a PEC to submit immediately a photocopy of a summary protocol of polling results, upon filling it out, to the CEC through all technical means available (including fax, where possible).

Article 72– Procedures for drawing up and submitting applications/complaints on polling day

1. An application/complaint shall be delivered to the PEC chairperson, his/her deputy, or the secretary of the commission. The commission secretary shall register the application/complaint in the log-book and send a notice (signed by the secretary) to the applicant/complainant specifying the date, time, and registration number of the application/complaint submitted to the commission.

2. An application/complaint shall include:

- a) the date and time of drawing up the application/complaint;
- b) the first name, last name, and place of registration of the applicant/complainant;
- c) the number of the electoral precinct;
- d) if there is a witness – his/her first name, last name, and place of registration;
- e) the essence and time of the violation;

f) if an offender is identified – all possible data obtained about him/her;

g) an explanation by the offender (if any);

h) other additional information.

3. The PEC chairperson shall immediately respond to the application/complaint and eliminate any existing violation. If the PEC chairperson fails to eliminate the violation, or otherwise refuses to respond to the application/complaint, an observer/representative of an electoral subject or another observer of the same observer organisation/another representative of the electoral subject shall have the right to immediately appeal the above violation to the respective DEC.

4. If the violation specified in the application/complaint is eliminated, the following record– ‘violation eliminated’ shall be entered in the log-book and the exact time shall be specified therein.

Organic Law of Georgia No 3269 of 21 July 2018 – website, 27.7.2018

Article 73– Applications and complaints about violation of polling and vote counting procedures

1. An application/complaint about a violation of polling procedure in an electoral precinct shall be drafted immediately upon identifying any violation of this Law as defined by Article 72 of this Law, from 7:00 until a ballot box is opened on polling day.

2. An application/complaint about violations that occurred during the procedure of counting votes or summarising polling results and requesting a revision or annulment of polling results shall be drawn up within the period from opening a ballot box until drafting a summary protocol of polling results as defined by Article 72 of this Law.

3. A PEC secretary shall register the application/complaint referred to in paragraph 2 of this article in a log-book. The PEC/PEC chairperson shall immediately respond appropriately to the application/complaint and eliminate any existing violation. If the PEC and/or the PEC chairperson fail to eliminate the violation, or otherwise refuse to respond to the application/complaint, an observer/representative of an electoral subject or another observer of the same observer organisation/another representative of the electoral subject shall have the right to appeal the action of the PEC/PEC chairperson to the respective DEC within 2 days. The DEC shall review the application/complaint within two days after it is received.

Article 74–Consideration of applications/complaints about counting votes and summarising polling results

1. A DEC secretary shall, upon the receipt of an application/complaint referred to in Article 73 of this Law, register the application/complaint in the DEC registration book. The commission shall consider the application/complaint and make a decision within two days after its registration with the DEC. The DEC shall deliver a decision by issuing an ordinance that may be appealed only in court under this Law.

2. If the procedure for submission of information referred to in Article 72(2)(a-d) of this Law is not met, the respective official who is in charge of receiving applications/complaints in an election commission shall identify the omission for the applicant/complainant and define a reasonable term for its rectification. The commission secretary shall make a respective note thereof in the commission registration book. The note shall be signed by the applicant/complainant and the respective official of the commission. Unless the omission is rectified within the period defined, the respective election commission shall apply the procedure referred to in paragraph 5 of this article.

3. The applicant/complainant shall have the right to rectify any omission within the period established by an authorised official of the election commission by submitting a similar application/complaint about the violation where the grounds for the omission shall be eliminated and/or the applicant shall submit an application specifying the data of the determined omission.

4. If the omission is rectified, a respective note shall be made in the registration book of the election commission specifying the exact time and date of rectification, and it shall be signed by the person rectifying the omission and the respective official of the commission.

5. An application/complaint submitted in violation of the procedures defined in Articles 72 and 73 of this Law and paragraphs 3 and 4 of this article shall not be reviewed and the chairperson of a respective election commission shall issue a decree to dismiss the application/complaint without prejudice.

6. The summary protocol of the PEC polling results and the PEC polling results shall be appealed under the procedure established by Article 77(2) of this Law.

Article 75–Summarisation of polling and election results in DEC

1. Based on the summary protocols of PECs, and taking into account the results of the examination of the violations of the electoral legislation of Georgia, a DEC shall, not later than the 11th day after polling day, summarise the results of a referendum, elections of the Parliament of Georgia, elections of the municipality representative body Sakrebulo, and of the Mayor. It shall prepare the results of the Parliamentary elections of Georgia, elections of the municipality representative body Sakrebulo and of the Mayor, and shall draw up summary protocols of each type for polling and election results held in an electoral district. The DEC shall forward the protocols to the CEC not later than the following day.

2. A summary protocol of the DEC polling/election results shall include the following:

a) the number and name of the electoral district;

b) the name of the election/referendum, voting system (proportional, majoritarian);

c) the polling date (it shall also specify if it is a repeat voting or a second round of election);

d) the number of voters in the electoral district;

e) the number of voters in the electoral district participating in the election;

f) the number of received ballot papers;

g) the number of invalid ballot papers;

h) the names of electoral subjects, and the number of votes cast for electoral subjects;

i) the number of valid ballot papers (the total number of votes cast for all electoral subjects);

j) the identifying number of the electoral precinct where polling results were annulled, the total number of voters in the same precinct and the basis for annulment of polling results;

k) the number of ballot papers issued to the electoral precincts where polling results were annulled;

l) the date and time of drawing up a protocol;

m) the protocol data with which a DEC member disagrees (this note shall be made and signed by the commission member in the box 'dissenting opinion');

n) the data enumerated in a summary protocol of election results in this paragraph, as well as the names of the person(s) elected, the names of persons advanced to the second round, and the name of the person elected in the second round.

3. If a DEC annuls polling results of any electoral precinct(s) and if the total number of voters in this precinct(s) is such that a repeat voting shall not affect the identification of person(s) elected or person(s) moved to the second round, the DEC shall determine who is the person elected or who is the person(s) moved to the second round without taking into account the results from that precinct(s).

4. All DEC members attending the commission session shall be obliged to sign a summary protocol of polling/election results. The protocol shall be endorsed by the DEC seal.

5. If a DEC member disagrees with the data included in a summary protocol, he/she may specify in the protocol with what he/she disagrees, and may attach a written dissenting opinion to the protocol. In the case of dissenting opinion, the member of the District Election Commission is obliged to sign the summary protocol of the polling results in the appropriate section designated for the signature of the member of the commission.

6. The DEC secretary shall include the data referred to in this article, upon determination, in the demonstration protocol posted at a visible and accessible place in the DEC.

7. A DEC summary protocol of polling/election results (attached with dissenting opinions of DEC members), as well as DEC ordinances about amending PEC summary protocols (if such amendments have been made) shall immediately be submitted to the CEC.

8. A photocopy of a DEC summary protocol (attached with dissenting opinions of DEC members) shall, upon request, immediately be submitted to representatives of a party/an initiative group of voters and to observers from an observer organisation. The photocopy of the protocol shall be endorsed by the DEC seal and the signatures of the DEC chairperson and secretary (those protocols shall have the same legal force as DEC summary protocols). The representative/observer shall confirm the receipt of a photocopy of the protocol by signing in the log-book.

9. If a certified copy of a summary protocol that is requested as defined by this Law is not issued, it shall give rise to liability of the commission chairperson and secretary under the legislation of Georgia.

10. Within seven days after polling results are summarised, the DEC secretary shall open the sealed log-books of PECs, make photocopies of the pages of the log-book that contain records provided for in Article 65(2²) and 67(5¹) of this Law (after this procedure the log-book must be sealed again), certify the records with his/her signature and transfer them together with relevant sealed documents (photocopies of ID cards and passports) to the CEC.

11. When conducting the procedures defined in paragraph 10 of this article, the DEC secretary shall, within the same time frame, make photocopies of the log-book pages that contain records provided for in Article 61(2)(a) of this Law, certify the records with the signature and commission seal and, if needed, forward them to the CEC.

Article 76–Summarisation of election results at the CEC

1. The CEC shall, based on protocols received from DEC and PECs, and not later than the 19th day after polling day, summarise at its meetings the results of elections of the Parliament of Georgia, elections of the Mayor of Tbilisi and Sakrebulo of Tbilisi, and shall prepare a summary protocol thereon.

2. The CEC shall summarize election results and draw up a summary protocol of election results specifying the following:

a) the number of voters;

b) the number of voters participating in the election;

c) the number of ballot papers deemed invalid;

d) the number of votes cast for electoral subjects;

e) the name(s) of the person(s) elected;

f) the data as per the relevant Articles of this law.

3. A summary protocol of election results shall be signed by the CEC Chairperson and the CEC Secretary. The protocol shall be kept with the CEC, and certified copies thereof shall be given to the authorities defined by this Law and to all persons concerned.

4. The CEC shall ensure the posting of summary protocols of polling results on the CEC website at the same time when summary protocols from electoral precincts are received. The Electoral Administration officers shall be prohibited to make announcements about preliminary results of elections, unless the results are duly published on the CEC website.

5. It is prohibited to summarize election results by the CEC until election disputes pending in the courts of common jurisdiction are resolved, without giving full consideration to the court decisions.

6. In the case of any application/complaint and/or dissenting opinion of any CEC member, the CEC may summarize election results based on PEC summary protocols.

7. Upon summarising the final results of elections, the CEC shall post information about election results on its website and give it to the Legislative Herald of Georgia that shall publish it in two day time.

8. The CEC shall make the protocols referred to in Article 71(14) of this Law public, as well as shall ensure the immediate publication thereof on the CEC website. At the same time, if electoral precinct results have been appealed to the court as defined by the legislation of Georgia, the CEC shall be obliged to make proper note thereof in the respective protocol published on the website immediately after the official notification.

9. In any elections, after receiving from DEC's the documents defined in Article 75(10) of this Law, the CEC shall process the documents within 40 days after polling day and draw up a separate document for each case: each document shall contain a certified copy of the respective page of the log-book and the attached relevant documents. The materials shall be transferred to the Agency not later than the 45th day after polling day. The agency shall study the materials in order to verify the identity of the persons in question. If the verification reveals that a person participated or attempted to participate in the elections with counterfeit or other person's documents, the person shall be held liable under Article 164² of the Criminal Code of Georgia.

Article 76¹–Time frames and measures required for the second round of elections

1. Voters participating in the second round of elections shall vote according to the lists of voters in the first round, which shall be amended only taking into account the following requirements:

a) according to the data provided to the CEC by the Agency on the citizens of Georgia who have attained 18 years after the first round or on the day of the second round, as well as on the basis of information on the deceased in the same period;

b) not later than the 3rd day before the second round of elections, the District Election Commission shall establish a special list of persons specified in Article 32 (1)(a) of this Law, taking into account the data on PEC members who have the right to vote;

- c) for the second round of elections special lists shall be used, which meet the requirements set forth in Article 32 of this Law on the day of the second round;
- d) not later than the second day before the second round of elections, 2 copies of the final version of the revised voter lists (unified and special lists) (for the election commission and public versions) approved by the CEC shall be handed over to the Precinct Election Commission. The secretary of the Precinct Election Commission shall immediately post the version of the voter list for the public information in a visible place in the building of the Precinct Election Commission (polling station);
- e) in the case of inability to arrive at the polling station on the day of the second round of elections, a voter shall apply to the Precinct Election Commission not later than 2 days before the polling day with a request to vote through a mobile ballot box. Not later than the 2nd day before the second round, the Precinct Election Commission shall establish a list of mobile ballot boxes.
2. Not later than the 3rd day before the second round of elections, the District Election Commission shall draw up a special list.
3. The term of office of the temporary members of the relevant District Election Commission shall be extended including the day the CEC publishes the summary protocol of the results of the second round of elections.
4. In the case of early termination of the term of office of a member of the relevant District Election Commission, his/her successor may be elected/appointed in accordance with the rules established by the election legislation of Georgia.
5. The authority of relevant Precinct Election Commissions for the second round of elections shall be exercised by the relevant Precinct Election Commissions established for the first round, unless the CEC decides otherwise.
6. The term of office of the members of the Precinct Election Commissions provided for in paragraph 5 of this article shall be calculated from the day of calling the second round of elections, including the day of drawing up the summary protocol of the District Election Commission.
7. In the case of early termination of the term of office of a member of the Precinct Election Commission appointed by a political party, the relevant party shall have the right to appoint a member of the commission within 2 days after receiving the notification of the District Election Commission. The District Election Commission shall immediately notify the relevant political party of the early termination of the commission member's term of office.
8. If the political party does not exercise the right granted by the same paragraph within the term established by paragraph 7 of this article, the District Election Commission is authorised, if necessary, to elect a member(s) of the Precinct Election Commission in accordance with the procedures provided for by paragraph 9 of this article.
9. In the case of early termination of the term of office of a PEC member elected by the District Election Commission, as well as, if necessary, in order to fill up to 12 members, the District Election Commission shall be authorised to announce a competition within 1 day in accordance with the rules and conditions established by the election legislation of Georgia, and to elect a member(s) of the Precinct Election Commission the next day after the deadline for submission of such documents.
10. It shall be prohibited to challenge a member of the Precinct Election Commission during the last 4 days before the polling day of the second round of elections, on the polling day and the day following the polling day.
11. The term of office of the representatives of the electoral subjects participating in the second round of elections shall be extended until the deadlines for appealing the results of the second round expire.
12. The electoral subjects defined by this article may appoint and/or replace the representatives in accordance with the rules established by this Law.
13. The term of office of observer organisations and observers registered with the CEC and the relevant District Election Commission shall be extended until the deadline for appealing the results of the second round of elections expires.
14. Representatives of media organisations accredited by the CEC and the relevant District Election Commission shall have their accreditation period extended until the day of announcing the final results of the second round of elections.
15. The observer organisations defined in this article shall have the right to submit new/additional lists of observers to the secretaries of the Relevant Election Commissions not later than the 5th day before the second round.
16. Registered media organisations shall have the right to submit additional lists for accreditation of media representatives to the secretaries of the relevant election commissions not later than the 5th day before the second round, in accordance with the rules established by this Law.

17. In order to participate in the process of counting real and/or invalid ballot papers together with the counting officers, the casting of lots determined by Article 67(2) of this Law shall not be held and the representatives of the electoral subjects participating in the second round of elections shall be automatically entitled to participate in the procedure.

18. In order to comply with the rules set forth in paragraph 17 of this article, to identify at least 3 counters specified in Article 67(1) of this Law and to fulfil the requirement of the second sentence of paragraph 2 of the same article, a member of a Precinct Election Commission appointed by a political party shall not participate in the casting of lots held by the Precinct Election Commission, whose representative was automatically granted the right to participate in the procedure referred to in paragraph 1 of this article.

19. The second round of elections shall be held on the third Saturday after the elections. The second round shall be appointed by the CEC by a decree.

20. If one of the electoral subjects participating in the second round of elections loses the passive suffrage, the second round shall not be held and the CEC shall declare the second electoral subject as the winner.

21. Tariffs for the first round of elections shall apply to the placement of pre-election advertisement. Changing the relevant tariff shall be allowed not later than the 10th day after the end of the first round. The new tariff shall be sent to the Georgian National Communications Commission for publication on the website. Such tariffs shall become effective upon publication. The pre-election advertisements shall be broadcast by the broadcasters from the next Monday of the day of the appointment of the second round.

22. In the electoral district(s) where the second round of elections is held, free airtime shall be distributed among the electoral subjects participating in the second round in the proportion in which such electoral subjects are represented for participation in the second round in the respective electoral district(s).

23. If necessary, the CEC shall be authorised by a resolution to determine other additional measures and deadlines required for the second round.

Chapter IX– Electoral Dispute Resolution

Article 77– Term and procedure for appeal

1. Violation of the electoral legislation of Georgia may be appealed to the respective election commission. The decision of an election commission may be appealed only to a higher election commission or to the court under the procedure and within the timeframes as defined in this Law, unless otherwise provided for hereby.

2. A decision of a PEC/the head of a PEC may be appealed to a respective DEC within 2 calendar days after the decision is made. The DEC shall review the appeal within 2 calendar days. The decision of the DEC may be appealed to a respective district/city court within 2 calendar days. The district/city court shall consider the appeal within 2 calendar days. The decision of the district/city court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals within 1 calendar day after the decision is made. The Court of Appeals shall review the appeal within 1 calendar day. The decision of the Court of Appeals shall be final and may not be appealed.

3. If a DEC decision is appealed to the CEC based on the appeal of a PEC decision, an application/complaint shall not be considered.

4. Decisions of DEC/DEC head officers may be appealed to the CEC within one calendar day after decisions are made. The CEC shall examine the appeal within one calendar day. The decision of the CEC may be appealed to the Tbilisi City Court within one calendar day after its delivery. The Tbilisi City Court shall examine the appeal within two calendar days. The decision of the Tbilisi City Court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals within one calendar day after the decision is delivered. The Court of Appeals shall deliver its decision within one calendar day after filing the appeal. The decision of the Court of Appeals shall be final.

5. A decision of the CEC/CEC head officers may be appealed to the Tbilisi City Court within two calendar days after the decision is delivered. The Tbilisi City Court shall examine the appeal within two calendar days. The decision of the Tbilisi City Court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals within two calendar days after the decision is delivered. The Court of Appeals shall deliver its decision within two calendar days after filing the appeal. The decision of the Court of Appeals shall be final and may not subject to appeal.

5¹. (Deleted – 12.6.2015, No 3695).

5². During the election/referendum period, decisions of the CEC and/or its tender commissions may be appealed within 2 calendar days after they are made to the state procurement-related Disputes Resolution Board of the State Procurement Agency, which will consider a complaint and will make an appropriate decision within 2 calendar days after the complaint is received. Decisions of the Dispute Resolution Board regarding the actions/decisions of the CEC and/or its tender commissions may be appealed to Tbilisi City Court within 2 calendar days after the decisions are made. Tbilisi City Court shall consider a claim and make an appropriate decision within 2 calendar days. The decision of Tbilisi City Court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals within 2 calendar days after the decision is made. The Court of Appeals shall consider a claim within 1 calendar day after it is received. The decision of the Court of Appeals shall be final and may not be appealed.

6. If a lawsuit/complaint is lodged with the court, the court shall immediately inform a DEC/CEC about receipt of the lawsuit/complaint and about the decision once it is delivered. The decision of the District/City Court shall be given to parties before 12:00 on the following day.

7. If a party fails to appear at the court hearing, the court shall deliver its decision based on an inquiry into case materials and according to the provisions of Articles 4, 17, and 19 of the Administrative Procedures Code of Georgia.

8. An application/lawsuit/complaint shall be considered to be lodged with an election commission/court from the moment it is registered with the respective election commission/court.

9. Lodging of an application/lawsuit/complaint with the election commission/court shall not suspend the validity of the appealed decision.

10. It is prohibited to extend timeframes for appeal and dispute resolution as determined in this article, unless otherwise defined by this Law.

10¹) An application/complaint shall be dismissed if the time limit and procedure for submitting it has been violated.

11. An application/lawsuit/complaint, as referred to in Article 78 of this Law, submitted to the election commission/court concerning election disputes by the persons other than those specified in the same Article, shall not be considered.

12. The legislation of Georgia shall determine the timeframes and procedures for appealing election commission decisions and violations of the electoral legislation of Georgia. The legislation of Georgia shall also define the timeframe for examining an application/lawsuit/complaint and delivering a decision, as well as the group of claimants, unless otherwise defined by this Law.

13. The timeframes and procedures for appealing violations of electoral legislation during elections held within the competence of the Supreme Election Commission of an Autonomous Republic shall be determined under the procedure defined by the legislation of the Autonomous Republic.

14. Applicants/observer organisations/electoral subjects shall be informed about the time and place of consideration of the complaint by an election commission according to the requirements defined by this Law.

15. If an applicant is an observer organisation or its representative registered with an election commission, the respective observer or the observer organisation registered with the election commission shall be notified of the time and place of consideration of the complaint.

16. If the applicant is an electoral subject or its appointed representative, the appointed representative of the electoral subject, based on Article 42 of this Law, shall be notified of the time and place of the consideration of the complaint.

17. If the applicant is a member of an election commission, he/she shall be personally informed of the consideration of the complaint.

18. Parties shall be required to clearly specify the applicant's contact number (home and/or cell phone numbers), as well as fax number and email address (if any) in the complaint.

19. Parties may be summoned to the consideration of a complaint either in writing or by telephone (including cell phone, text message), email, fax, or other technical means in order to meet the timeframes for examination of complaints as defined by this Law. Summoning a party through technical means shall be confirmed by:

a) contacting the person at the telephone number specified thereby;

b) sending an e-mail, fax, or text message with acknowledgement of receipt through the relevant technical means. If such acknowledgement is received, the party shall be deemed to be summoned. The party shall also be deemed summoned if it is impossible to contact him/her through the technical means referred to in the complaint (if the cell phone, fax, computer is switched off, etc.).

19¹. Information about dismissing an application/complaint without prejudice shall be communicated to the party immediately upon issuance of the decree of the chairperson of an election commission, under the procedure established by paragraph 19 of this article.

20. When a party is summoned by any technical means, a report shall be drawn up and attached to the complaint submitted at a commission session.

21. The CEC report shall be drawn up and signed by an officer and the head of Legal Department of the CEC.

22. A report in a lower election commission shall be drawn up by one of the commission members by order of the commission chairperson, and shall be signed by that member and the chairperson of the commission.

23. The Electoral Administration of Georgia shall be obliged to inform a party of the time and place of examination of a case not later than three hours before the examination commences.

24. The form of a report shall be approved by the CEC ordinance.

25. The failure of a party to appear shall not be the grounds for postponing the consideration of a complaint.

26. A party attending the election commission session shall be provided, if required, before the session starts, with photocopies of investigation materials related to the review of the complaint.

27. A party shall have the right to participate in the process of consideration of a complaint as defined in the electoral legislation of Georgia.

28. A decision whether or not to consider a complaint shall be made based on an accurate inquiry into and study of the evidence submitted by the parties and the materials obtained by the Electoral Administration of Georgia on its own initiative.

29. A party participating in the process of consideration of a complaint, upon request, shall be provided with the decision about the complaint (except for minutes of a commission session) not later than 12:00 of the day following adoption of the decision, taking into account the timeframes for drawing up the respective documents as defined in the legislation of Georgia.

30. A written commission decision shall be sent to a party who has failed to appear at the consideration of a complaint, notwithstanding that he/she has been summoned.

31. If a party fails to appear at a commission session during consideration of a complaint, the date of serving a written document of delivered decision upon that party shall not be basis for starting an appeal period for the commission decision.

32. An election commission shall be obliged to specify in its decision the term and place (name and address of an institution) to which the decision may be appealed.

33. Courts shall immediately communicate information to the CEC about claims/complaints filed with common courts with respect to electoral disputes. In addition, a respective court shall forward to the CEC the ruling, concerning the case to be considered, about fixing a session and the involvement of third persons. Upon receiving the ruling, the CEC shall immediately post it on its webpage. The ruling shall be considered delivered to the third persons immediately after passing 3 hours from its publication on the CEC webpage, and the third persons shall be considered summoned to appear in court.

Chapter XIII– Registration of Electoral subjects Running in Elections of the Parliament of Georgia

Article 113 – Registration of parties/cancellation of registration

1. In order to be eligible to participate in the parliamentary elections of Georgia, a party shall apply to the Chairperson of the CEC with an appropriate application signed by its leading person (persons):

a) after the Georgian parliamentary elections are called, not later than the 57th day before Election Day, if it has an MP elected on the basis of its nomination;

b) from 1 January to 15 July of the year of the parliamentary elections if the party does not meet the conditions under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph.

2. An application shall be attached with an excerpt from the register of political associations of citizens (parties) issued by the Legal Entity under Public Law operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – the National Agency of Public Registry, before the application was submitted to the CEC, within the last 10 days, with indication of a person (persons) authorised to be the head/representative of a party, and a document evidencing that the party has a representative in the Parliament of Georgia (if a party has such a representative). At the time of registration of the party, to verify/confirm the authenticity of the data in the excerpt issued by the Legal Entity under Public Law operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia – the National Agency of Public Registry, the Agency shall provide the CEC with the possibility of accessing the bases of electronic data and verification.

3. An application for registration shall include the following information about a party:

a) the name of the party in full and in short, if any, and/or the abbreviated name under which the party runs in elections;

[a) the name and/or its abbreviated name, if such is indicated in the statute of the political party. Additionally, the names and surnames, or only surnames of no more than three leaders of the political party may be indicated. The name by which the political party has been registered shall remain unchanged on the ballot paper; (shall become effective on the second day from the day of acquiring the full authority by the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

b) the first and last name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number and specimen of signature of a leader(s) of the party;

c) the first and last name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number, and scope of powers of a representative of the party;

[c) the first, last name, address (according to the place of registration), and the telephone number of a representative; (shall become effective on the second day from the day of acquiring the full authority by the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

d) if there are several leaders, the scope of powers of each leader in relation to the party's electoral process.

4. The name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of a party referred to in paragraph 3(a) of this article shall not coincide with:

- a) the official name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of another party already registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use the name);
- b) the name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of an electoral bloc running in elections if the bloc filed the application to the CEC earlier (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use the name);
- c) the name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name used by another party/electoral bloc during the previous parliamentary elections, unless the consent thereto of the party/electoral bloc is obtained.

[4. The name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of a party referred to in paragraph 3(a) of this article shall not coincide with:

- a) the official name, its shortened form, and the abbreviation of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (if coincided, the party may not use them);
- b) the name, its shortened form, and the abbreviation used by another party in the last parliamentary elections of Georgia, unless there is consent of the party thereto. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

[4. The name and/or its abbreviated name referred to in paragraph 3(a) of this article shall not coincide with the official name and its abbreviated name of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (if coincided, the party may not use such name and its abbreviated name). (Shall become effective on the second day from the day of acquiring the full authority by the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

5. In the case provided for by paragraph 1(b) of this article, the respective CEC office shall provide a party representative with a sample of the list of supporting voters. The respective CEC office shall check the application and documents attached thereto and shall submit its report to the CEC Chairperson not later than the day after the filing of the application.

6. In the case provided for by paragraph 1(a) of this article, the CEC Chairperson shall, not later than the day after filing of the report referred to in paragraph 5 of this article:

- a) register the party and its representative for election purposes if the application filed and the documents attached meet the requirements of this Law;
- b) submit a written notification to a representative of the party about any non-compliance of the filed application and the attached documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance) and give the party three days after receipt of notice for correction of the application and documents.

7. A corrected application and documents referred to in paragraph 6(b) of this article shall be verified and the decision about electoral registration shall be made within two days after submission of the application and documents. If the corrected application and documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the party and its representative for election purposes. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall, within the same timeframe, issue an ordinance refusing to provide electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance decree and shall be provided with a copy of the decree upon request.

8. In the case provided for by paragraph 1(b) of this article, the CEC Chairperson shall, not later than the third day after the provision of the report referred to in paragraph 5 of this article, notify the party representative in writing about any non-compliance of the application and attached documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance). The corrected application and documents shall be returned to the CEC within three days.

9. A party that fails to meet the condition under paragraph (1)(a) of this article shall, within 60 days after a sample form of the list of party supporters is received, but not later than 1 August, submit to the CEC the list of not less than 25 000 voters supporting participation of the party in elections of the Parliament of Georgia. The list of the party supporters shall be verified by an appropriate CEC office under the procedure and within a time limit determined in Article 38 of this Law. During the election period, an appropriate CEC office shall verify the lists of the party supporters and shall submit the report to the CEC Chairperson within two days after the lists are submitted.

10. If an application and attached documents (or a corrected application and documents), and the list of supporting voters under this article are submitted within the timeframe defined in this Law and meet the requirements it sets, the CEC Chairperson shall, based on a report of the respective CEC office, register the party and its representative for election purposes within ten days after the receipt of the report, but not later than the 42nd day before Election Day. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall issue an ordinance within the same time about the refusal to provide electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and shall be provided with a copy of the ordinance upon request.

11. The CEC shall publish the list of registered parties on its official website in the order of submitting applications, not later than the 30th day before Election Day. It shall also publish the list of the parties that have been denied registration or the registration of which has been cancelled, specifying the reasons for the denial or cancellation.

12. The CEC Chairperson shall by ordinance cancel the registration of a party where:

a) the party applies for cancellation;

b) the Constitutional Court of Georgia prohibits operation of the party;

c) the electoral registration of the electoral bloc, to which the party is a member, is cancelled according to paragraph 14(c) or (d) of Article 114 of this Law;

[c] (deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266); (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

d) the party leaves or is expelled from the electoral bloc before the summarisation of parliamentary election results after the expiration of the deadline for the submission of party lists by the bloc;

[d] (deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266); (shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

e) the party fails to submit a party list or the submitted party list has not been registered;

f) the number of candidates in the party list, not later than the 2nd day before Election Day, is less than the minimum number defined in this Law.

Article 114 – Registration of electoral blocs/cancellation of registration

1. Parties registered by the CEC Chairperson shall have the right to establish an electoral bloc and to leave an electoral bloc. In order to register an electoral bloc, an application signed by authorised leaders of all parties united in the bloc and a copy of the statutes of the bloc shall be submitted to the CEC not later than the 43rd day before the day of a regular election.

2. An application shall include the following information about an electoral bloc:

a) name, in full or in short, and/or abbreviated name (if any) under which the bloc runs in the election, and the list of parties united in the bloc;

b) first and last name, and address (according to the place of registration) of a leader(s);

c) first and last name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number of a representative;

d) if there are several leaders, the scope of powers of each leader with relation to the electoral process.

3. The name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of an electoral bloc referred to in paragraph 2(a) of this article may not coincide with:

a) official name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of another party already registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (in the case of coincidence, the bloc may not use the name);

b) name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name of another electoral bloc running in elections if the bloc filed the application to the CEC earlier (in the case of coincidence, the bloc may not use the name);

c) name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name used by another electoral bloc during the previous parliamentary elections, unless the consent thereto of the previously registered bloc is obtained.

4. The statutes of an electoral bloc, signed by the leaders of all parties united in the bloc, shall include:

a) name, in full or in short, and/or the abbreviated name (if any) of the electoral bloc under which the bloc runs in the election;

b) list of the parties united in the electoral bloc;

c) governing body (if any) of the electoral bloc, leaders and their powers;

d) procedure for decision-making by the electoral bloc, including the procedures for acceptance, withdrawal or exclusion of a party from the bloc, nomination of candidates for a representative body by the bloc, and cancellation of such nomination; the procedures for distribution between the parties included in this block of the total amount to be received from the State Budget may also be specified;

e) person(s) authorised to sign electoral bloc documents on behalf of the electoral bloc;

f) procedure for using the seal of one of the electoral bloc member parties during election activities;

g) procedure for appointment of the persons in charge of election campaign expense, the manager, and the accountant;

h) procedure for making amendments to the electoral bloc statutes.

5. A party member of one electoral bloc may not be a member of another electoral bloc, or may not run independently in the same election.

6. The CEC Chairperson shall, upon the acceptance of an application and statutes as referred to in paragraph 1 of this article, give to the representative of an electoral bloc a document evidencing the submission of the above application and statutes.

7. The respective CEC office shall verify an application and statute submitted as referred to in paragraph 1 of this article and shall submit its report to the CEC Chairperson not later than the day after the filing of an application. The CEC Chairperson shall, not later than the day after the receipt of the report, provide electoral registration of an electoral bloc and its representative if the submitted documents meet the requirements defined in paragraphs 1-5 of this article. If the submitted documents do not meet the above requirements, the CEC Chairperson shall notify the electoral bloc representative, in writing, about non-compliance of the documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance). Corrected documents shall be re-submitted to the CEC not later than the second day after notification. The CEC Chairperson shall make a final decision on registration within two days after acceptance of the corrected documents. If the corrected documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the electoral bloc and its representative. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall issue an ordinance refusing registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the electoral bloc shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and a copy of the ordinance shall be provided to the representative upon request. The registration procedure referred to in this paragraph shall end on the 37th day before Election Day.

8. A party having gone through electoral registration may join a registered electoral bloc prior to the expiration of the term for registration of electoral blocs. For these purposes, the party shall, with consent of the bloc, file an application with the CEC Chairperson.

9. The CEC Chairperson by an ordinance shall, upon registration of an electoral bloc, cease the powers of representatives of the parties united in the bloc to all election commissions. The electoral bloc may appoint 2 representatives to each election commission.

10. If a party (parties) withdraws or is expelled from an electoral bloc before the expiration of the deadline for nomination of party lists/candidates, each of them may continue running in elections. If only one party remains in an electoral bloc for the above reason, electoral registration of the electoral bloc shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the CEC chairperson, and the parties previously united in the bloc may continue running in elections.

11. If a party withdraws or is expelled from an electoral bloc after the expiration of the deadline for nomination of party lists/candidates, the electoral registration of the party shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the CEC Chairperson. If only one party remains in the electoral bloc for the above reason, the electoral registration of the bloc shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the CEC Chairperson and the party remaining shall become the legal successor of the bloc.

12. The CEC shall publish the list of registered electoral blocs on its official website in the order of submitting applications, not later than the 30th day before Election Day, as well as the list of the electoral blocs that have been denied registration or the registration of which has been cancelled, specifying the reasons for the denial or cancellation.

13. A party/electoral bloc registered according to this Law may, on the basis of its application, take part in elections at all levels to be held until the following parliamentary elections. A party united in an electoral bloc shall have the right to run, either independently or as a part of another electoral bloc, in elections at all levels to be held until the following parliamentary elections.

14. The CEC Chairperson shall by ordinance cancel the registration of an electoral bloc provided that:

a) the bloc applies for cancellation;

b) the electoral bloc dissolves or only one party remains in the bloc due to abandoning the bloc by a member party (parties), or because of its (their) expulsion, or cancellation of electoral registration;

c) the electoral bloc fails to submit a party list or the submitted party list is not registered;

d) the number of candidates in the bloc party list, not later than the second day before Election Day, is less than the minimum number defined in this Law.

Article 116–Nomination of candidates in majoritarian electoral districts

1. The following entities shall have the right to nominate a candidate for MP of Georgia in a majoritarian electoral district:

- a) a party running in elections independently;
- b) an electoral bloc;
- c) an initiative group of 5 voters.

2. Any party running in elections independently/electoral bloc may nominate one candidate to be elected through the majoritarian system in every electoral district. An initiative group of voters may nominate one candidate in the respective majoritarian electoral district.

3. In order to nominate a candidate for MP of Georgia, an initiative group of voters shall file an application to the respective DEC not later than the 57th day before polling, after which day the initiative group of voters may start collecting signatures of supporting voters.

4. The application shall specify the following information about a candidate for MP of Georgia:

a) first and last name;

b) date of birth (day/month/year);

c) (deleted – 3.9.2020, No 7097);

d) position (activity);

e) place of work;

f) place of registration;

g) party membership;

h) duration of residence in Georgia;

i) first and last name, personal number of a citizen of Georgia, place of registration, contact telephone number, and other information (if any) of members of the nominating initiative group of voters, and their representative.

5. The application signed by all members of the initiative group of voters shall be accompanied by written consent of any nominated candidate for MP of Georgia to run in elections, a photocopy of the identity card of a citizen of Georgia or of the passport of a citizen of Georgia, a certificate on the deprivation of the right and two photos.

6. The DEC chairperson shall, not later than the day after filing an application, register an initiative group of voters. Unless the requirements determined by paragraphs 1-5 of this article are met, the DEC chairperson shall immediately notify the applicant about any error. Corrected documents shall be re-submitted to the DEC chairperson for registration not later than the following day.

7. In order to register a candidate for MP of Georgia, a representative of the initiative group of voters shall, not later than the 50th day before polling, submit a list of supporters of the candidate to the relevant DEC.

8. A party running independently in the election/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters shall nominate their majoritarian candidates to the electoral district as defined in Article 115(7-11) of this Law.

9. Nomination of a candidate by an initiative group of voters shall be endorsed by signatures of not less than one percent of supporting voters registered in the territory of the respective electoral district, except when the nominated candidate was elected as an MP of Georgia during the previous parliamentary elections.

10. The respective DEC chairperson shall, by ordinance, not later than the 30th day before Election Day, register a candidate for MP of Georgia.

11. The DEC chairperson shall, within three days after the registration, issue a respective certificate to the candidate for MP of Georgia.

12. The DEC chairperson shall not register a candidate for MP of Georgia if:

a) the data referred to in paragraph 8 of this article is not complete or accurate;

b) the number signatures in the list of supporting voters is less than required;

c) the requirements and the timeframes defined in paragraph 7 of this article are not met.

Article 117– Verification and electoral registration of party lists and documents of candidates for MPs nominated in majoritarian electoral districts

1. The CEC Chairperson shall by ordinance register a party list, while the respective DEC chairperson shall by ordinance register a majoritarian candidate nominated in an electoral district, provided that all documents under this Law comply with the requirements defined herein. Respective commissions may not consider the issue of electoral registration where the timeframes for the submission of documents referred to in this Law are not met.

2. A designated office of the CEC shall verify the party list presented by a party/electoral bloc and shall submit its report to the CEC Chairperson within 10 days after submission of the list, but not later than the 26th day before Election Day. The CEC Chairperson shall, within three days, but not later than the 25th day before Election Day:

a) register the party list and the candidates nominated by a party/electoral bloc only if the submitted party list and the documents attached thereto comply with the requirements defined by this Law;

b) give written notice to the representative of the party/electoral bloc of any discrepancy between the requirements defined by this Law and the data in the party list and documents attached thereto (specifying the details of the discrepancy), and the representative shall have three days to correct the discrepancy in the party list or other documents;

3. The corrected data referred to in paragraph 2(b) of this article shall be verified and the issue of electoral registration shall be resolved within five days after submission of corrected data, but not later than the 20th day before Election Day. If the corrected data complies with the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the party list or the part of the list that complies with the requirements defined by this Law (if the number of candidates in that part is not less than the required minimum). The CEC Chairperson shall, within the same timeframe, issue an ordinance regarding the refusal of electoral registration for other candidates (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). If the number of other candidates in the party list that comply with the requirements of this Law remains less than the required minimum, neither the party list nor the candidates nominated by the party/electoral bloc shall be registered and the CEC Chairperson shall, within the timeframe referred to above, issue an ordinance regarding the refusal of registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and shall be provided with a copy upon request.

4. The respective DEC chairperson shall register/refuse to register a majoritarian candidate nominated by a party/electoral bloc in an electoral district under the procedure and within the timeframe referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article. A party/electoral bloc shall be obliged to submit registration documents of a majoritarian candidate to the CEC within the timeframe defined in this Law.

5. The electoral registration shall be denied to a candidate for MP of Georgia, and either an ordinance of the respective election commission chairperson (in the cases referred to in subparagraphs (a-e) and (g) of this paragraph) or a court decision (in the case referred to in subparagraph (f) of this paragraph) shall cancel the electoral registration of any registered candidate, provided that the applications and documents submitted to the election commission fail to comply with all the requirements defined by this Law or other provisions defined in the same Law are not met, namely, if:

a) the data referred to in applications and documents is incomplete or inaccurate;

b) the candidate entered in the party list is a member of another party running in the elections;

- c) the candidate is entered in more than one party list and he/she gives or gave his/her consent to be entered simultaneously into more than one party list;
- d) the candidate entered in the party list gives his/her consent to be nominated for a majoritarian electoral district by another party/electoral bloc;
- e) the other election is held during the parliamentary election of Georgia and the candidate for MP of Georgia gives or gave his/her consent to run in that election with the status of a candidate;
- f) the requirements defined in Article 47(1) and/or Article 48 are not met;
- g) the candidate for an MP of Georgia failed to submit a drug test certificate and a document on the deprivation of a right.

6. A ordinance issued by the CEC/DEC chairperson regarding the refusal of electoral registration of a party list and candidates for MP of Georgia nominated by a political party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters may be appealed under the procedure defined in Articles 77 and 78 of this Law.

[Article 117 – Electoral registration of party lists

1. A party list shall be registered by an ordinance of the CEC Chairperson if all documents defined in this Law comply with the requirements established by the same Law. If the time limit set under this Law for submission of documents is not met, the issue of electoral registration shall not be reviewed.

2. An appropriate office of the CEC shall verify the party list submitted by a party, and shall, within 10 days after the list is submitted but not later than the 26th day before Election Day, submit its report to the CEC Chairperson, who shall, within 3 days but not later than the 25th day before Election Day:

a) register the party list and the candidates nominated by a party if the submitted party list and the documents attached thereto comply with the requirements established by this Law;

b) give a written notice to a party representative of any noncompliance of the data in the party list and the documents attached thereto with the requirements established by this Law (specifying the noncompliance), if such noncompliance exists, and the representative shall be allowed 3 days to improve the list and the documents.

3. The corrected data referred to in paragraph 2(b) of this article shall be verified and the issue of electoral registration shall be resolved within 5 days after submission of the corrected data but not later than the 20th day before Election Day. If the corrected data complies with the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the party list or the part of the list that complies with the requirements defined by this Law (if the number of candidates in that part is not less than the required minimum). The CEC Chairperson shall, within the same time limit, issue an ordinance regarding the refusal of electoral registration for other candidates (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). If in the part of the party list that complies with the requirements established by this Law the number of candidates remains less than the required minimum, neither the party list nor the candidates nominated by the party shall be registered and the CEC Chairperson shall, within the aforementioned time limit, issue an ordinance on refusing registration to them (the ordinance shall specify exactly the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). The ordinance referred to in this paragraph shall immediately be communicated to a representative of the party and shall be forwarded to him/her upon request.

4. The electoral registration shall be denied to a candidate for MP of Georgia, and either an ordinance of the respective election commission chairperson (in the cases referred to in subparagraphs (a-d) and (f) of this paragraph) or a court decision (in the case referred to in subparagraph (e) of this paragraph) shall cancel the electoral registration of any registered candidate, if the applications and documents submitted to the election commission fail to comply with all requirements established by this Law, or if other conditions defined in the same Law are not met, namely, when:

a) the data referred to in applications and documents is incomplete or inaccurate;

- b) the candidate entered in the party list is a member of another party running in the elections;
- c) the candidate is entered in more than one party list and he/she gives or gave his/her consent to be entered simultaneously into more than one party list;
- d) the other election is held during the parliamentary election of Georgia and the candidate for MP of Georgia gives or gave his/her consent to run in that election with the status of a candidate;
- e) the requirements defined in Article 47(1) and/or Article 48 are not met;
- f) a candidate did not take a drug test.

5. An ordinance of the CEC chairperson on refusing electoral registration of a party list and candidates for MP of Georgia nominated by a party may be appealed under the procedure established in Articles 77 and 78 of this Law. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)

Article 118 – Cancellation of electoral registration of registered majoritarian candidates/initiative group of voters

1. The electoral registration of a registered majoritarian candidate shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the Chairperson of a respective DEC:

- a) based on his/her own application;
- b) if the Constitutional Court of Georgia prohibits the party that has nominated the candidate;
- c) if:
 - c.a) the electoral registration of the party that nominated him/her was cancelled;
 - c.b) the electoral registration of the electoral bloc that nominated him/her was cancelled under Article 114(14)(a, c or d) of this Law;
 - c.c) the electoral registration of the party, which was the legal successor of the electoral bloc that nominated him/her, was cancelled;
 - c.d) the electoral registration of the initiative group of voters that nominated him/her was cancelled under paragraph 2 of this article;
- d) the person died;
- e) in other cases as defined by this Law.

2. The CEC Chairperson shall by ordinance cancel the electoral registration of a registered initiative group of voters, provided that:

- a) the initiative group of voters applies for cancellation;
- b) a candidate for MP of Georgia nominated by the initiative group of voters is not registered or the electoral registration of a candidate for MP of Georgia nominated by the initiative group of voters is cancelled;
- c) all the members have left the initiative group of voters.

Article 125– Summarisation of election results at the CEC

1. The CEC shall, based on protocols received from DEC’s, PECs and on final court decisions, summarize at its sessions the results of the elections of the Parliament of Georgia held through the proportional system not later than on the 19th day after Election Day. The CEC shall, if necessary, set the day for the second round of the elections and draw up a summary protocol of the results of the first round of the elections, if the second round of the elections has been set. The CEC shall draw up a summary protocol of the final results of the elections of the Parliament of Georgia, if the second round of the elections has not been set. The CEC shall draw up a summary protocol of the final results of the elections of the Parliament of Georgia, not later than on the 19th day after the polling day of the second round of the elections, if the second round of the elections has been set.

[1. The CEC shall, based on protocols received from DEC’s and PECs, and on final court decisions, not later than the 19th day from Election Day, summarise, at its session, the results of the Parliamentary elections of Georgia, and shall draw up a final summary protocol of the results of the Parliamentary elections of Georgia. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

2. One counterpart of the protocol shall be kept with the CEC; the second counterpart shall be delivered to the Parliament of Georgia, while the copies endorsed by the CEC seal shall be delivered to the representatives of electoral subjects.

3. A candidate for the membership of Parliament of Georgia that has received more than half of the total number of votes cast in the elections shall be deemed elected in a majoritarian electoral district. The number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers shall not be included in the number of votes cast in the election.

[3. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

4. Seats of MPs of Georgia shall be distributed between the political parties that received at least 5% of valid votes cast in the elections. The number of votes of the voters participating in the elections shall not include the number of votes recorded on ballot papers declared void.

5. In order to determine the number of seats obtained by a party list, the number of votes obtained by that list shall be multiplied by 77 and divided by the total number of the votes cast for electoral subjects. The integer part of the number thus received shall represent the number of the seats obtained by the party list.

[5. To determine the number of seats obtained by a political party, the number of votes it has obtained shall be multiplied by 150 and divided by the sum of votes received by all those political parties that received at least 5 % of the valid votes cast in the elections. The integer part of the figure obtained shall be the number of seats obtained by the political party. If the sum of the numbers of seats obtained by political parties, the undistributed seats shall be successively awarded to the political parties with better results. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

8. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266).

9. If the number of votes received by 2 or more party lists turns out to be equal, the seat shall be awarded to the list that was registered with the CEC earlier.

[9. If the number of votes received by two or more than two parties appears to be equal, the seat shall be awarded to a political party that was registered with the CEC earlier. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

10. If a candidate for MP of Georgia is elected both through the majoritarian electoral system and under the party list, he/she shall be deemed elected through the majoritarian electoral system. The place of the candidate in the party list shall be taken by another candidate as defined in Article 130(2) of this Law.

[10. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

11. The candidates for MP of Georgia whose sequence numbers in the party list are less than or equal to the number of seats obtained by the list shall be deemed elected under the party list. The number of MPs elected under that list shall remain unchanged.

12. If polling results of more than half of electoral precincts in any electoral district are declared void as a consequence of gross violations of this Law and that affects the election results, or if polling results of several electoral precincts, in which the total number of voters is more than half of the total number of voters in the electoral district, are declared void and that affects the election results, the majoritarian election results in the electoral district shall be deemed void and the CEC shall call for a re-run election in the electoral district.

[12. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

13. If polling results are declared void during elections held under the proportional electoral system as a consequence of gross violations of this Law in more than half of or in several electoral districts, in which the total number of voters is more than half of the total number of voters in Georgia, the election results shall be declared void and the CEC shall call for re-run elections.

[13. If polling results were declared void in elections due to gross violation of the requirements of this Law in more than half of, or in several electoral districts, in which the total number of voters is more than half of the total number of voters in Georgia, the election results shall be considered as void and the CEC shall call re-run elections. (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

14. If an application/complaint is filed for the verification or invalidation of polling results, the CEC shall by ordinance decide on opening the sealed packages and re-counting the ballot papers received from the respective PEC, or the CEC shall assign that activity to the respective DEC/special group. If necessary, the CEC may summarize election results based on protocols drawn up by PECs.

15. In an electoral precinct in which the polling results have been declared void, the CEC shall call a repeat vote in that precinct, provided that the difference between the votes cast for the candidates with the best results in the electoral district is less than the total number of voters in the electoral precinct. If the polling results of the repeat vote are also declared void, the election results shall be summarised without giving consideration to the results from that precinct.

[15. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

16. A repeat vote may be called after the first round of the elections, as well as after the second round of elections. A repeat vote shall be held within two weeks after the first or second round of elections accordingly. The CEC shall have the right to assign the same or a different composition of the PEC to hold a repeat vote.

[16. (Deleted – 21.7.2018, No 3266). (Shall become effective upon recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next Parliamentary Elections of Georgia)]

17. A repeat vote during elections held through the proportional electoral system shall be called if the total number of voters in those precincts, in which the results have been declared void, is more than 10% of the total number of voters in Georgia. In this case, the repeat vote shall be held not later than two weeks after general election day.

18. Article 142 – Registration of parties/electoral blocs

[Article 142 – Registration of parties (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

1. To obtain the right to run for the elections of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo, a party/electoral bloc shall apply to the CEC chairperson with an appropriate application signed by its leader(s):

a) after the Sakrebulo elections are called, but not later than the 57th day before Election Day, provided the party/electoral bloc meets one of the following conditions:

a.a) was registered in the last parliamentary election;

a.b) has a representative in the Parliament of Georgia on the day the elections are called;

b) from 1 January to 15 July of the year of the elections of municipal bodies, if the party fails to meet any of the conditions under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph.

2. A party failing to meet any of the conditions under paragraph (1)(a) of this article shall, within 60 days after receiving a sample form of the list of supporting voters, but not later than 1 August, submit to the CEC a list of at least 1 000 voters, provided that such party is a qualified electoral subject, but if it is not a qualified electoral subject, a list of at least 25 000 voters (the number shall not exceed 1% of the total number of voters) supporting the party's participation in the elections of a municipal representative body Sakrebulo. The appropriate CEC office shall verify the list of supporting voters under the procedure and within the timeframe provided for in Article 38 of this Law. During the election period, the appropriate CEC office shall verify the lists of supporting voters and present a report to the CEC chairperson within two days after the list is submitted.

[1. To obtain the right to run in the elections of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo, a party shall submit to the CEC chairperson an appropriate application signed by its leader (leaders):

a) after the Sakrebulo elections are called, not later than the 57th day before Election Day if it meets one of the following conditions:

Article 145– Registration of party lists and candidates for members of a Sakrebulo nominated in a local majoritarian electoral district

1. During the Sakrebulo elections, the appropriate DEC chairperson shall examine the documents of the party list submitted by a party/electoral bloc and the documents submitted for the registration of a Sakrebulo nominee in the local majoritarian electoral district. The respective DEC chairperson shall, within two days of receiving the documents, but not later than 28th day before Election Day:

a) register for the elections a party list, Sakrebulo candidates nominated by the electoral subject, provided the submitted party list and the accompanying documents, as well as the registration documents of a Sakrebulo majoritarian candidate meet the requirements referred to by this Law;

b) notify the representative of an electoral subject in writing of the non-conformity (if any) of the data in the party list and in its accompanying documents, as well as the non-conformity of the data in the registration documents of a Sakrebulo majoritarian candidate with the requirements referred to by this Law (specifying the details of non-conformity); a representative of the party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters shall be given two days to bring the above list and documents in compliance with the requirements.

2. The corrected details referred to in paragraph (1)(b) of this article shall be verified and the question of registration for elections shall be decided within three days after such details are submitted.

3. If the corrected details meet the requirements referred to by this Law, the respective DEC chairperson shall register for election: a Sakrebulo majoritarian candidate if a party list or that part of the party list that meets the requirements referred to by this Law (if the number of candidates in that part of the list is not less than the statutory minimum) and issue, within the same timeframe, an ordinance on refusing electoral registration to the rest of the candidates (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for refusal of registration and those legal provisions upon which the noncompliance is based). The ordinance shall be immediately communicated to a representative of a party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters and delivered to him/her upon request.

4. The respective DEC chairperson shall issue certificates to candidates for members of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo within three days after registration of candidates.

5. A candidate nominated in an electoral district shall be registered if the following documents are submitted:

a) a candidate's registration card indicating the fact of his/her residence in Georgia for 5 years;

b) an application for nomination of the candidate endorsed by signatures of the leaders of the respective parties/electoral blocs;

c) two photos of the candidate;

d) the candidate's consent to run in the elections.

6. A party list or a Sakrebulo candidate nominated by an electoral subject shall not be registered taking into account the requirement of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this article, or their electoral registration shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the respective election commission chairperson or by court decision (in the case provided for in subparagraph (g) of this paragraph):

a) if the registration card does not indicate:

a.c) the candidate's date of birth (day, month, year);

a.d) the candidate's address (according to a Georgian citizen's identity card or the Agency database);

a.e) the candidate's party affiliation (in the case of party membership), and if the candidate has no party affiliation, the word 'non-partisan' shall be indicated;

a.f) the candidate's position and work place; if unemployed, 'unemployed' shall be indicated;

a.g) the fact of a candidate's residence in Georgia for 5 years;

a.h) the candidate's consent to run for the Sakrebulo;

a.i) the name and number of the local majoritarian electoral district, in which the candidate is nominated as a majoritarian candidate;

a.j) the date of the completion of the registration card;

b) if the candidate entered on the party list is a member of any other party participating in the elections;

c) if the candidate is entered on more than one party list and there is or was his/her consent to be simultaneously included in more than one party list;

d) if the candidate entered on a party list gives a written consent to be nominated as a candidate by any other party/electoral group/initiative group of voters;

Article 146– Revocation of decisions on nomination of candidates

1. After registration, a party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters may revoke its decision to nominate a candidate not later than 12 days prior to the polling day.

[1. A party/an initiative group of voters may, after the registration, not later than 12 days before the polling day, revoke its own decision to nominate a candidate. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

2. A candidate may withdraw his/her candidacy not later than 12 days prior to the polling day. To this effect, he/she shall submit an appropriate application to a respective DEC.

2¹. The procedures under paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article shall not apply to the second round of elections.

2². A party running independently in elections or an electoral bloc may, after the recognition of authority of the elected members of a Sakrebulo, revoke its decision about nominating a candidate for member of the Sakrebulo remaining on the party list. A party/electoral bloc may not revoke its decision about nominating a candidate for member of the Sakrebulo remaining on the party list when the authority of the member of the Sakrebulo elected under the same list ceases, until the authority of his/her successor is recognized. The candidate for member of Sakrebulo nominated by the party/electoral bloc shall be withdrawn from the party list by an ordinance of the chairperson of a respective DEC, based on an application signed by the party leader/the person determined by the statutes of the party/electoral bloc, within three days after submission of the application. Unless the application is satisfied within this time, the candidate for member of a Sakrebulo shall be deemed withdrawn from the party list on the day following the lapse of the above-mentioned time.

[2². A party running in elections may, after the recognition of authority of the elected members of a Sakrebulo, revoke its own decision on nomination of a candidate for member of the Sakrebulo remaining on the party list. A party may not revoke its own decision on nomination of a candidate for member of the Sakrebulo remaining on the party list when the term of office of a member of the Sakrebulo elected under the same list is terminated until the authority of his/her successor is recognised. The candidate for member of Sakrebulo nominated by the party shall be withdrawn from the party list by an ordinance of the chairperson of a respective DEC, based on an application signed by the party leader, within 3 days after the application is submitted. Unless the application is granted within this time limit, the candidate for member of Sakrebulo shall be considered withdrawn from the party list as from the day following the expiry of the aforementioned time limit. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

2³. A candidate for MP of Georgia may withdraw his/her candidacy from a party list after the recognition of authority of the elected MPs by filing an application with the CEC. The candidacy shall be withdrawn by an ordinance of CEC Chairperson within three days after filing the application. If the application is not satisfied within this time, the candidate for MP shall be deemed withdrawn from the party list on the day following the end of the third day.

3. The DEC concerned shall immediately publish on the official CEC website the information on cancellation of a candidate's registration or on revocation of a decision to nominate a candidate.

1. To determine the number of seats obtained by a party list, the number of votes received by the party list shall be multiplied by the number of the seats to be allocated under the proportional system in the electoral district and divided by the sum of the votes received by those parties/electoral blocs that received at least 4% of the votes cast in the elections. The integer part of the number thus determined shall be the number of seats obtained by the party list. The number of votes cast in the election shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers.

[1. To determine the number of seats obtained by a party list, the number of votes received by the party list shall be multiplied by the number of the seats to be allocated under the proportional system in the electoral district and divided by the sum of the votes received by those parties that received not less than 4% of the votes cast in the elections. The integer part of the number thus determined shall be the number of seats obtained by the party list. The number of votes cast in the election shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

2. If the total number of seats obtained by party lists in an electoral district is less than the total number of seats, each unallocated seat shall first be allocated in sequence to the better polling party lists that failed to obtain a seat under paragraph 1 of this article, but received at least 4% of the votes cast in the election. If any undistributed seat(s) is/are still left, each seat shall be allocated in sequence to the party lists that acquired at least one seat and have the largest fractional remainder. The number of votes cast in the election shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers.

3. If none of the party lists obtain a seat under paragraph 1 of this article, one seat out of the number of seats to be allocated under the proportional system, shall be assigned to each of those subjects that received more votes than others. The number of votes cast in the election shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers.

4. If those two or more than two party lists to which one seat is to be assigned under paragraph 2 or 3 of this article receive equal number of votes, the seat shall be assigned to the party list that was registered earlier for Sakrebulo elections with the respective DEC.

5. Candidates whose sequence numbers in a party list are less or equal to the number of seats obtained by the given party shall be deemed elected to Sakrebulo through the proportional electoral system.

6. If a candidate for member of a Sakrebulo is elected either from a single-seat majoritarian district or on a party list, he/she shall be deemed elected from the single-seat majoritarian electoral district and shall be removed from the party list, while the next candidate on the list shall move up under the procedure provided for by this Law.

Article 149 – Determination of election results held through the majoritarian electoral system

1. A candidate receiving more votes than other candidates shall be deemed elected to a Sakrebulo through the majoritarian electoral system.

2. If two candidates receive an equal number of votes, the candidate who was registered first with the respective DEC shall be deemed elected.

Article 150–Summarisation of Sakrebulo election results in DECs

1. A DEC may annul polling results in the electoral precinct where the law is grossly violated. Polling results may not be summarised in the DEC until a decision is made on complaints that could annul polling results in the precinct.

2. Elections shall be declared invalid in an electoral district if the number of invalid ballots in the district is more than half of the total number of voters participating in the election in that district and the results would affect the results of the election.

3. A DEC shall determine election results and draw up a protocol at its session.
4. During elections of a municipality representative body Sakrebulo, a DEC shall, based on protocols received from PECs, determine the following:
 - a) total number of voters;
 - b) number of participants in the election;
 - c) number of invalid ballot papers;
 - d) number of votes cast for each electoral subject.
5. A DEC summary protocol of election results shall indicate data provided for by Article 75(2) of this law. A DEC summary protocol shall be drawn up in one copy that shall be transferred to the CEC not later than the day following the day of summing up the results of elections.
6. A certified photocopy of a summary protocol of the election of the Sakrebulo results shall be kept at the relevant DEC. Certified photocopies of a summary protocol shall be given to the credentials committee of the relevant Sakrebulo, as well as to representatives of parties and electoral blocs.
[6. One certified photocopy of a summary protocol of the Sakrebulo election results shall be kept at a respective DEC. Certified photocopies of the protocol shall be forwarded to the credentials committee of a respective Sakrebulo, and to representatives of the parties. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]
7. A DEC shall, after summarising results, immediately post a copy of the summary protocol of election results in a visible place for public availability.
8. A DEC shall publish information on the official CEC website of the results of Sakrebulo elections in the respective districts within 10 days after election results are summarised. The information shall also include party affiliation (if a Sakrebulo member has no party affiliation, the word 'non-partisan' shall be indicated), date of birth, occupation, position, and place of work of elected Sakrebulo members.

Article 154 – Procedure for filling vacancies of the Sakrebulo members

1. If the term of office of a Sakrebulo member elected through the proportional system terminates early, his/her successor, the next candidate on the same party list, shall take his/her place in the Sakrebulo within two weeks, provided that the candidate accepts membership in the Sakrebulo within ten days after being notified by the relevant DEC. If no candidate is left in the submitted party list, the seat shall be eliminated.

2. If a Sakrebulo member who last held the vacant seat was elected through the party list of an electoral bloc and the party list specified that the member was a member of one of the parties in the electoral bloc, the next candidate on the same party list for Sakrebulo membership shall replace him/her within two weeks, provided that the candidate accepts membership in the Sakrebulo within ten days after the vacancy occurs. Otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by the next candidate on the same party list, etc. If the party list did not specify that the Sakrebulo member who last held the vacant seat is a member of one of the parties in the electoral bloc, his/her successor shall be determined under paragraph 1 of this article.

3. If powers of a Sakrebulo member elected through the majoritarian system are prematurely terminated, by-elections shall be held under the procedure established by this Law. If powers of a Sakrebulo member are terminated between the period from 15 February to 15 July, by-elections shall be held in October of the same year, and if powers of a Sakrebulo member are terminated between the period from 15 July to 15 February, by-elections shall be held in the nearest May. By-elections of Sakrebulo shall not be held in the year of regular elections of local self-government bodies.

4. Not later than the 50th day before Election Day, the CEC shall set the date for by-elections and the timeframes for election events by an ordinance, taking into account the timeframes specified in paragraphs 5 and 6 of this article.

5. To participate in Sakrebulo by-elections, a party/electoral bloc indicated in Article 142(1)(a) of this Law, as well as a party registered for the last municipal elections, shall apply to the CEC not later than on the 47th day before Election Day. A party failing to meet this condition shall apply to the CEC within the same timeframe. Upon the receipt of the application, the CEC shall give such party a sample form of a list of party supporters to collect supporter signatures. An initiative group of voters shall apply to the relevant DEC within the same timeframe. The initiative group of voters, as well as the candidate nominated by such group, shall be registered under Article 141(3) of this Law.

[5. To participate in the Sakrebulo by-elections, a party referred to in Article 142(1)(a) of this Law, and a party registered for participation in the last elections of municipality bodies, shall file an application to the CEC not later than the 47th day before Election Day. A party that fails to meet this condition shall submit an application to the CEC within the same time limit. Article 159¹ – Cancellation of a decision on nominating a candidate for the membership of Tbilisi Sakrebulo

1. A candidate for member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo may withdraw his/her candidacy not later than on the 12th day prior to the polling day. To this effect, he/she shall submit an appropriate application to the CEC.

2. After the recognition of authority of an elected member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo, in the case of revoking a decision on nominating a candidate to the Sakrebulo membership remaining on the party list by a party/electoral block running independently in elections, the candidate nominated to the Sakrebulo membership shall be withdrawn from the party list by an ordinance of the CEC chairperson.

[2. After recognition of the authority of members of Tbilisi Sakrebulo elected in the Tbilisi Sakrebulo elections, in case of revocation of the decision on nominating a candidate for Tbilisi Sakrebulo membership remaining on the party list by a party running in the elections, the nominated candidate for membership of Tbilisi Sakrebulo shall be withdrawn from the party list by an ordinance of the CEC chairperson. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)

3. After the recognition of authority of an elected member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo, in the case of withdrawing his/her candidacy for the Sakrebulo membership, a candidate shall file an appropriate application to the CEC. His/her candidacy shall be removed from the party list by an ordinance of the Chairperson of the CEC.

4. The CEC shall immediately publish a notification about the registration of a candidate for the membership of Tbilisi Sakrebulo and the cancellation of the decision on the nomination of the candidate.

Article 160–Ballot papers

1. During Tbilisi Sakrebulo elections, a voter shall be given one majoritarian ballot paper and one proportional ballot paper.

2. Voters participating in the elections shall mark only one assigned sequence number on the ballot paper.

Article 161– Ascertaining the results of majoritarian elections of the Tbilisi Sakrebulo

A majoritarian candidate receiving the most number of votes in a single-seat majoritarian electoral district shall be deemed elected to the Tbilisi Sakrebulo. If two candidates receive an equal number of votes, the candidate who was the first to file an application for registration with the relevant DEC, shall be deemed elected.

Article 162 – Procedure for allocating seats in the Tbilisi Sakrebulo under the proportional system

1. Seats in the Tbilisi Sakrebulo shall be allocated under the proportional system only to electoral subjects that received at least 4% of votes cast in the election. Seats shall be allocated under this article.

2. To determine the number of seats received by a party list, the number of votes received by the party list shall be multiplied by 25 and divided by the sum of the votes received by those parties/electoral blocs that acquired at least 4% of the votes cast in the elections. The integer of the resulting number is the number of seats received by the party list. The number of votes cast in the elections shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers.

[2. To determine the number of seats obtained by a party list, the number of votes received by the party list shall be multiplied by 25 and divided by the sum of the votes received by those parties that received not less than 4% of the votes cast in the elections. The wholepart of the figure obtained is the number of seats received by the party list. The number of votes cast in the elections shall not include the number of votes recorded on the ballot papers declared invalid. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

3. If the sum of the seats received by party lists is less than 25, each undistributed seat shall first be allocated, in sequence to the better polling party lists that failed to obtain a seat under paragraph 1 of this article, but received at least 4% of the votes cast in the elections. If any undistributed seat(s) is/are still left, each seat shall be allocated in sequence to the party lists that obtained at least one seat and have the largest fractional remainder. The number of votes cast in the elections shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers.

4. If none of the party lists obtains a seat under paragraph 2 of this article, each seat shall be awarded to those 25 subjects that received more votes than others. The number of votes cast in the elections shall not include the number of votes recorded on invalid ballot papers.

5. If those two or more than two party lists, to which one seat is to be allocated under paragraph 3 or 4 of this article, receive an equal number of votes, the seat shall be awarded to the party list that was earlier registered for the elections with the CEC.

6. The candidates whose serial numbers on a party list are less than or equal to the number of seats acquired by the party list, shall be deemed to have been elected to the Sakrebulo through the proportional electoral system.

7. If a Sakrebulo candidate is elected both from a single-seat majoritarian district and through a party list, he/she shall be deemed to have been elected from the single-seat majoritarian electoral district, shall be removed from the party list, and the candidate shall be replaced in the list as provided for by this Law.

Article 163– Registration of members elected to Tbilisi Sakrebulo

Article 164– Procedure for replacement of a member withdrawn from Tbilisi Sakrebulo

1. If the authority of a member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo elected under the proportional system is prematurely terminated, his/her place in Sakrebulo shall be taken, within 2 weeks, by his/her replacement, by a candidate who is the following in sequence on the party list, if he/she gives consent to becoming a member of Sakrebulo within 10 days after being notified by the CEC. If there is no candidate on the party list submitted, the seat shall be annulled.

2. If a withdrawn member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo was elected through the party list of an electoral bloc and the party list indicated that he/she is a member of one of the parties in the electoral bloc, the next candidate for Sakrebulo membership on the same party list shall replace him/her within two weeks if, within ten days after the vacancy occurs, the new candidate consents to become a Tbilisi Sakrebulo member. Otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by the next candidate on the same party list, etc. If the party list did not indicate that the Sakrebulo member who last held the vacant seat is a member of one of the parties in the electoral bloc, his/her successor shall be determined under paragraph 1 of this article.

3. A successor of the withdrawn member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo elected through proportional system shall, within 10 days of having notified the CEC, consent to Sakrebulo membership. Otherwise, the vacancy will be filled by the candidate determined according to paragraph 2 of this article. If no candidate appears in the party list, the seat shall be annulled.

[3. Thereplacement of a withdrawn member of Tbilisi Sakrebulo elected under the proportional system shall, within 10 days after being notified by the CEC, give consent to the membership of Sakrebulo. Otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by a candidate who, in the same party, is the following in sequence on the party list, etc. If there is no candidate on the party list submitted, the seat shall be annulled. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

4. If powers of a Tbilisi Sakrebulo member elected through the majoritarian electoral system are prematurely terminated, by-elections shall be held under the procedure established by this Law. If powers of the Sakrebulo member are terminated between a period from 15 February to 15 July, by-elections shall be held in October of the same year, and if powers of the Sakrebulo member are terminated between the period from 15 July to 15 February, by-elections shall be held in the nearest May. By-elections of Tbilisi Sakrebulo shall not be held in the year of regular elections of local self-government bodies.

5. The CEC shall set the date of by-elections by ordinance. The CEC shall set the timeframes for election events by ordinance not later than the 50th day before Election Day.

6. Candidates, who have won the by-elections, shall take the places of withdrawn Tbilisi Sakrebulo members, elected through the majoritarian system for the remaining term of office of the Sakrebulo.

7. To run in Tbilisi Sakrebulo by-elections, the party/electoral bloc referred to in Article 142(1)(a) of this Law as well as the party registered for the last elections of municipality bodies, shall apply to the CEC not later than the 47th day before Election Day. A party which fails to meet this condition shall apply to the CEC within the same timeframe. Upon receipt of the application, the CEC shall give such party a sample form of a party supporter list to collect supporter signatures. An initiative group of voters shall apply to the CEC within the same timeframe. The initiative group of voters, as well as the candidate nominated by such group shall be registered under Article 141(3) of this Law.

[7. To run in the Tbilisi Sakrebulo by-elections, a party referred to in Article 142(1)(a) of this Law, which was registered for the last elections of municipality bodies, shall file an application to the CEC not later than the 47th day before Election Day. A party which fails to meet this condition shall file an application to the CEC within the same time limit. Upon receiving of the application, the CEC shall forward to such party a sample list of party supporters to collect supporter signatures. An initiative group of voters shall file an application to the CEC within the same time limit. The initiative group of voters and a candidate it has nominated shall be registered under Article 141 of this Law. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

8. The party, the registration of which under paragraph 7 of this article requires the presentation of the party supporter list, shall present to the CEC, not later than the 40th day before Election Day, the list of voters supporting the party to run in the Sakrebulo elections.

Article 167 –Registering Mayoral candidates and determining their serial numbers

1. A citizen of Georgia from the age of 25 with the right to vote who has resided in Georgia for at least 5 years may be elected as a Mayor.

2. (Invalidated – Judgment of the Constitutional Court of Georgia of 14 April 2016 No 3/2/588 – website, 4.5.2016).

2¹. The nomination of a Mayoral candidate shall be the right of a party/electoral bloc registered in accordance with Article 142 of this Law, as well as an initiative group of voters registered in accordance with Article 141 of this Law, not later than on the 30th day before the polling day.

[2¹. A party registered under Article 142 of this Law, and an initiative group of voters registered under Article 141 of this Law shall have the right to nominate a candidate for Mayor not later than the 30th day before the polling day. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

3. The incompatibility of the Mayoral candidate's status with his/her office shall be determined under Article 136 of this Law. Article 117(5)(e) of this Law shall not apply to the incompatibility of the Mayoral candidate's status with his/her office.

4. A party/an electoral bloc/an initiative group of voters shall submit the documents for the registration of a Mayoral candidate to the respective DEC. The documents of the candidate for Mayor of Tbilisi shall be an exception and shall be submitted to the CEC. The chairperson of the respective election commission shall examine the documents submitted for the registration of Mayoral candidates and within two days from the submission of documents but not later than the 28th day prior to the Election Day:

a) register a candidate for Mayoral elections if the candidate's registration documents meet the requirements defined by this Law;

b) notify the representative of the nominating party/electoral bloc/an initiative group of voters in writing of a non-conformity (if any) of the data in the registration documents of the candidate for Mayoral elections with the requirements determined by this Law (specifying the details of the non-conformity); the representative of the party/electoral bloc/initiative group of voters shall be given two days to bring those documents in compliance with the requirements.

[4. A party/an initiative group of voters shall submit documents for registration of a candidate for Mayor to an appropriate DEC. The candidate for Mayor of Tbilisi shall be an exception, whose documents shall be submitted to the CEC. The documents submitted for registration of a candidate for Mayor shall be verified by the chairperson of an appropriate election commission, who, within 2 days after the documents are submitted but not later than the 28th day before Election Day, shall:

a) conduct the electoral registration of a candidate for Mayor, provided that the registration documents of the candidate for Mayor comply with the requirements under this Law;

b) give a written notice to a representative of a party/an initiative group of voters, which nominated the candidate for Mayor, of any noncompliance of the data in the registration documents with the requirements established by this Law (specifying the noncompliance), if such noncompliance exists. The representative of the party/initiative group of voters shall be allowed 2 days to improve the documents. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)

5. The corrected data referred to in paragraph (4)(b) of this article shall be checked and the decision whether to register the candidate shall be made within two days after the data are submitted.

6. If the corrected data conform to the requirements contained in this Law, the chairperson of the election commission concerned shall register the candidate for Mayoral elections. In the case of nonconformity, the chairperson of the election commission shall issue an ordinance denying registration for the election (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for denial of registration, as well as the requirements of those legal provisions which form the basis for the refusal). The ordinance shall be immediately communicated to the nominating electoral subject and delivered to it upon request.

7. Within three days after registration of a Mayoral candidate, the chairperson of the appropriate electoral commission shall hand him/her a candidate's certificate.

8. A Mayoral candidate shall be registered if the following documents are submitted:

a) the candidate's registration card;

b) the application for nominating the candidate, confirmed by signatures of leaders;

b¹) an application on the nomination of the candidate, confirmed by signatures of a party/electoral bloc leader(s), and of members of an initiative group of voters;

c) two photos;

d) a photocopy of the identity card of a citizen of Georgia or the passport of a citizen of Georgia of the candidate;

e) a certificate on the deprivation of the right.

[8. A candidate for Mayor shall be registered if the following documents are submitted:

a) the registration card of a candidate;

b) an application for nomination of a candidate certified by signatures of the head officers;

b¹) an application for nomination of a candidate certified by signatures of the party leader(leaders), and of members of an initiative group of voters;

c) two photos;

d) a photocopy of a candidate's identity card of a citizen of Georgia, or of the passport of a citizen of Georgia;

e) a certificate on the deprivation of the right. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)

9. Decision of an electoral subject nominating a candidate on the nomination of a candidate for Mayor shall be attached with a registration card indicating the candidate's:

a) first name, last name;

b) date of birth (day, month, year);

- c) sex;
- d) address (according to the identity card of a citizen of Georgia or the Agency database);
- e) personal number of a citizen of Georgia;
- f) place of work (name of the institution, organisation, enterprise, etc.);
- g) position; indicate 'unemployed' if unemployed;
- h) party affiliation; indicate 'nonpartisan' if not a member of any party;
- i) fact of residence in Georgia for 5 years;
- j) consent to run in the elections of Mayor;
- k) signature and date of signature.

10. A Mayoral candidate shall not be registered based on the requirements of paragraphs 4-6 of this article, and the registration of an already registered candidate shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the chairperson of the respective DEC, or for the elections of the Mayor of Tbilisi, by an ordinance of the CEC chairperson (in the cases specified in subparagraphs a-c of this paragraph), or by court decision (in the case specified in subparagraph d of this paragraph), if the applications and documents submitted to the election commission fail to meet all the requirements of this Law or if any other conditions referred to by this Law are not met, in particular:

- a) if data in the applications and documents are incomplete or inaccurate;
- b) if there is or was a Mayoral candidate's consent to run simultaneously for Mayor in another municipality and/or for another Sakrebulo;
- c) if the requirements under paragraph 3 of this article are not met;
- d) if the requirements under Article 47(1) and/or Article 48 of this Law are not met.

Article 169¹– Second round of Mayoral elections and re-run elections

1. If a candidate fails to receive the necessary number of votes under Article 169 of this Law in the Mayoral elections, a second round of elections shall be called. The two candidates with the highest number of votes in the first round shall participate in the second round. If more than two candidates receive an equally high number of votes, or if several candidates following the top candidate receive an equal number of votes, all those candidates shall take part in the second round.

2. The second round (rounds) of a Mayoral election shall be called by the CEC upon summarising the first round results. The second round (rounds) of a Mayoral election shall be held on the third Saturday after the election.

3. The candidate who received the highest number of votes shall be deemed elected in the second round of the elections. If the candidates receive an equal number of votes, the candidate who received more votes in the first round shall be deemed elected. If the number of those votes is equal as well, the candidate who was registered earlier shall be deemed the winner.

4. If the registration of one or both of the candidates proceeding to the second round of elections is cancelled or if a candidate dies, re-run elections shall be held two months from the cancellation/death. The CEC shall fix the date of elections within three days after the above fact occurs.

Article 169²– Mayoral Extraordinary elections

1. If powers of a Mayor are prematurely terminated, the extraordinary elections shall be called by the CEC by ordinance. The elections shall be held not later than on the 50th day after the elections are called. The CEC shall set by an ordinance the timeframes for the election arrangements not later than on the 49th day prior to the Election Day.

2. If powers of a Mayor are prematurely terminated, the extraordinary elections shall be held in May or October under the procedure established by this Law. If powers of a Mayor are terminated between the period from 15 February to 15 July, the extraordinary elections shall be held in October of the same year, and if powers of a Mayor are terminated between the period from 15 July to 15 February, the extraordinary elections shall be held in the nearest May. The extraordinary Mayoral elections shall not be held in the year of regular elections of municipal bodies.

2¹. Procedures established by paragraphs 1 and 2 of this article shall not apply to the case under Article 154¹ of this Law.

3. In extraordinary elections, a Mayor shall be elected for the remaining term of office of the Sakrebulo of the respective municipality.

4. (Invalidated – Judgment of the Constitutional Court of Georgia of 14 April 2016 No 3/2/588 – website, 4.5.2016).

4¹. To participate in extraordinary elections of Mayor, a party/electoral block referred to in Article 142(1)(a), as well as a party registered for the last municipal elections, shall apply to the CEC not later than on the 47th day before Election Day. A party failing to meet this condition shall apply to the CEC within the same time, and an initiative group of voters shall apply to a relevant election commission. Upon the receipt of the application, the CEC shall give such party a sample form of a list of party supporters to collect supporter signatures, and the relevant election commission shall give such initiative group of voters a sample of a list of supporters to collect signatures in support of the Mayoral candidate nominated by the initiative group of voters.

[4¹. To participate in extraordinary Mayoral elections, a party referred to in Article 142(1)(a), and a party registered for participation in the last elections of the municipality bodies, shall file an application to the CEC not later than the 47th day before Election Day. A party that fails to meet this condition shall file an application to the CEC within the same time limit, while an initiative group of voters shall file an application to a respective election commission. Upon receiving of the application, the CEC shall forward to such party a sample list of party supporters to collect supporter signatures, and the respective election commission shall forward to the initiative group of voters a sample list of supporters to collect signatures of the supporters of a Mayoral candidate it has nominated. (Shall become effective from 1 January 2021)]

5. A party whose registration under paragraph 4¹ of this article requires the presentation of a party supporters list, and the initiative group of voters shall present to the CEC or to the respective election commission a list of voters supporting the participation in the Mayoral elections of the candidate nominated by the party/initiative group of voters not later than on the 40th day before Election Day.

Article 185– Temporary procedure for information support to pre-election campaigning before the attainment of full power by the Parliament elected as a result of the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia

1. In the course of pre-election campaigning, when broadcasting social-political programmes and elections, a broadcaster shall observe the principle of impartiality and fairness according to the Law of Georgia on Broadcasting, the Code of Conduct of Broadcasters, and this Law.

2. The general broadcaster, which decides to cover the pre-election campaign on its own air, shall broadcast the pre-election debates in a non-discriminatory manner with the participation of all qualified electoral subjects in the course of pre-election campaigning within its coverage area. The general broadcaster shall be authorised to invite other parties/blocs participating in the relevant elections in the course of debates.

3. The obligations of equal distribution of airtime established by this Law, creation of equal conditions for participation in pre-election debates and establishment of equal conditions for election advertising shall apply only to the broadcasters mentioned in paragraphs 4-6 of this article and only to qualified electoral subjects.

4. During the election campaign in their respective coverage areas, the Public Broadcaster, Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster, and any community broadcaster shall allot, from the 50th day before the Election Day, in every hour five minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements, and every 3 hours broadcast free of charge and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to them by each qualified electoral subject, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 90 seconds (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other airtime allotted to the electoral subject.

5. During the election campaign in the case of general elections, the Public Broadcaster carrying out general over-the-air broadcasting shall allot, from the 50th day before the Election Day, in every three hours, not less than 7.5 minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements, and broadcast on the basis of equality and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to it by each qualified electoral subject, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 90 seconds (each electoral subject may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by an electoral subject may not be added to other airtime allotted to the electoral subject.

6. The broadcaster (except for the broadcasters mentioned in paragraphs 4 and 5 of this article) is obliged to broadcast pre-election advertisements free of charge during the last 30 days before the Election Day, if it places paid pre-election advertisements during the election campaign in its service area of the electoral subject determined by Article 30(12) of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens. In this case, it is obliged to devote time to free pre-election advertisements (if the paid pre-election advertisement is placed between the best time interval determined by the Law of Georgia on Broadcasting, the free advertising time shall be allocated at the same time, on the same day or in agreement with the customer – on another day in the proportion set out below. In all other cases, free advertising time shall be allocated within three hours from the time of posting the paid advertisement in the broadcasting network, on the same day or in agreement with the customer – another day. Free advertising time unused an electoral subject may not be added by to other advertising time belonging to the electoral subject):

a) for the above mentioned electoral subject – the time equal to the advertising time acquired, which shall be distributed in such manner that during three hours it does not exceed 90 seconds (an electoral subject may divide this time into several parts);

b) for qualified electoral subjects (except for the electoral subjects provided for in Article 30(12) of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens) – the time equal to the total advertising time acquired by the electoral subjects determined in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, which shall be distributed in the equal and non-discriminatory manner among the electoral subjects specified in subparagraph (b) of the same paragraph, provided that the time allotted to one electoral subject does not exceed 90 seconds in three hours (an electoral subject may divide this time into several parts).

7. The broadcaster mentioned in paragraph 6 of this article, which intends to place the paid pre-election advertisement, shall submit information on the proposed schedule of paid pre-election advertisement to the CEC and the Georgian National Communications Commission within 15 days from the day of calling the elections, but not later than the 55th day before the Election Day. The CEC shall publish such information on its official website within one day. The electoral subject provided for by Article 30(12) of the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens shall submit information to the CEC and the relevant broadcaster on the acquisition of advertising time in each broadcaster, considering the above mentioned schedule, not later than the 40th day before the Election Day (such information shall indicate the dates, time intervals for the placement of the advertisement to be placed during the day, and the duration of the advertising time to be purchased). The broadcaster in which the electoral subject has purchased advertising time shall, not later than the 38th day before the Election Day, submit information to the CEC and the Georgian National Communications Commission on the time allocated for free advertising in accordance with paragraph 6 of this article (such information shall indicate the dates, time intervals for the placement of the advertisement to be placed during the day, and the duration of the advertising time), also, on the schedule of posting election advertisements for each electoral subject during the advertising time allotted to the qualified electoral subjects specified in paragraph 6(b) of this article. The CEC shall publish such information on its official website within one day. An electoral subject entitled to receive free advertising time shall notify the relevant broadcaster at least two days prior to the date of the advertisement of its intention to use its own time and shall deliver the advertisement at the time agreed with it.

8. The public broadcaster is obliged to provide the sign language translation in its election-related programmes aired during the election campaign.

9. The broadcaster shall be authorised to recognise a political party as a qualified electoral subject, which, according to public opinion polls conducted in accordance with the conditions set forth in this article, enjoys the support of at least 4 percent of voters in accordance with the results of at least 5 polls or and the results of research 1 month before the elections. It shall be inadmissible for the broadcaster to use the results of sociological research in a discriminatory manner.

10. The local broadcaster is obliged to recognise a political party/bloc as a qualified electoral subject:

a) an electoral subject who is a qualified electoral subject determined by Article 2 (q¹) of this Law;

b) whose one or more candidates won the last parliamentary elections in the majoritarian electoral district in his or her service zone, ran in the second round or received at least 25 percent of votes;

c) who received at least 25 percent of the votes in the elections of the representative body of the municipality – Sakrebulo.

11. The local broadcaster shall be authorised to recognise as a qualified electoral subject:

a) a political party that received at least 10 percent of the vote in the last parliamentary or municipal elections in the respective majoritarian electoral district;

b) a political party that, according to the public opinion research conducted in accordance with the rules established by this law in the respective majoritarian electoral district, enjoys the support of at least 25 percent of the voters in accordance with the results of at least 2 consecutive public opinion survey conducted in the election year;

c) a majoritarian candidate nominated by the initiative group of voters, who, according to the public opinion survey conducted in the respective majoritarian electoral district in accordance with the rules established by this law, according to the results of at least 2 consecutive public opinion survey in the election year, enjoys the support of no less than 25% of voters.

12. To determine the status of a qualified electoral subject, a public opinion survey must meet the following requirements:

- a) it should be based on a recognised scientific methodology for the random selection of a representative that ensures at least 95 per cent reliability of the results and the margin of error of which does not exceed 3 per cent;
- b) shall be published after verifying the reliability of the public opinion research methodology and the objectivity of the results;
- c) in the presence of significant differences or changes in the results of the same or other comparable public opinion survey, a convincing scientific explanation of such differences or changes shall be possible;
- d) there shall be no manipulation by public opinion or a means of raising money, it shall not be conducted by phone, mail and/or the Internet;
- e) shall be based on a transparent methodology that allows for independent verification of results;
- f) when publishing public opinion survey results the following shall be specified:

 - f.b) an organisation ordering or financing the survey;
 - f.c) exact formulation and sequence of questions used in the survey;
 - f.d) time of the conduct of field survey;
 - f.e) number of respondents and the selection method;
 - f.f) in what area or in what category of people the selection was made;
 - f.g) whether the survey is based on the opinion of all respondents;
 - f.h) number of respondents who refused to participate in the survey or did not answer the question or could not be interviewed;
 - f.i) selection size;
 - f.j) scope of error;
 - f.k) information on any other factor that may have had a significant impact on the results of the survey.

13. The broadcaster commissioning the public opinion survey is obliged to comply with the requirements set forth in paragraph 12 of this article. A broadcaster that publishes a public opinion survey commissioned by others shall be subject only to the requirements set forth in paragraph 12 (f) of this article.

14. During the election campaign, the Public Broadcaster, Ajara TV and Radio of the Public Broadcaster (a legal entity under public law), shall allot, from the 50th day before the Election Day, in every hour 2.5 minutes to broadcast free of charge, the pre-election advertisements of another party/bloc, except for the qualified electoral subject and every 3 hours broadcast free of charge and without discrimination, the pre-election advertisements submitted to them by each party/bloc, on the condition that the time allotted to a qualified electoral subject during such period shall not exceed 45 seconds (each party/bloc may divide the time allotted in several parts). The airtime not used by a party/bloc may not be added to other airtime allotted to the party/bloc.

15. Political parties that enjoy the right to use free airtime, in the case of joining an electoral bloc, regardless of their number, shall lose the right from the day after the registration of the electoral bloc, and the electoral bloc shall acquire the right from the same day as a electoral subject.

16. The obligation to allocate free airtime under this article shall apply only to the local broadcaster during the by-elections.

17. The Georgian National Communications Commission shall determine the rules for the participation and use of the media in the election process, ensure the monitoring of the observance of the norms established by this Law by the Broadcaster and shall respond accordingly to the violation of the mentioned norms. The Georgian National Communications Commission shall procure the services required for media monitoring in accordance with the rules established by the legislation of Georgia.

18. It shall be prohibited to place paid pre-election and/or free pre-election advertisements, programmes of electoral subjects on TV and radio during 8 hours before the polling and before 8 pm on the polling day, as well as to make automated telephone calls and send short text messages for election purposes.

19. It shall be inadmissible for an electoral subject to place an advertisement on the broadcaster that serves the agitation goals of another electoral subject within the advertising time. The advertisement of the electoral subject shall not contain elements of advertisement conducive to the election of another electoral subject, including its representative, serial number and symbols.

20. In the course of political/pre-election advertising, the total of the single contours of the letters indicating the name of the electoral subject and the single contours of the numbers indicating the serial number of his/her participation in the elections shall occupy not less than 5% of the frame area. In addition, the advertisement must be made in such a way that at the end of the advertisement, the name and serial number of the electoral subject are displayed for at least the last one second, so that the total of the single contours of the letters denoting the name and the number of contours of the serial numbers occupies not less than 25% of the frame area. In the case of violation of the rule established by this paragraph, the broadcaster shall not place the political/pre-election advertisement.

21. The broadcaster shall be prohibited from allocating more airtime than the corresponding fee paid for the placement of paid advertisements to the relevant electoral subject or allocating more time than that provided for by this law for the placement of free advertisements. The action provided for in this paragraph shall be deemed a prohibited donation.

Article 187–Temporary procedures for financing a representative of an electoral subject before the acquisition of full power by the Parliament elected as a result of the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia

1. A qualified electoral subject participating in the elections (a qualified party participating in the elections independently, as well as an electoral bloc of which the qualified party is a member) shall receive funding in the amount of GEL 100 for each electoral precinct and GEL 150 for each electoral district on the Election Day, and the electoral bloc, which consists of two or more qualified parties, shall receive funding in the amount of GEL 150 for each electoral precinct and GEL 200 for each electoral district. An electoral bloc that does not include any of the qualified parties, but the parties included in the bloc, in the last parliamentary elections or the elections of municipality bodies held within the framework of the proportional election system, acquired totally 3% or more than 3% of votes from voters participating in the elections, for ensuring the representation in the district and precinct election commissions on the Election Day, shall receive funding in the amount of GEL 100 for each electoral precinct and GEL 150 for each electoral district. The amount allocated for one electoral precinct shall be issued only to a representative(s) appointed for the said electoral precinct.

1¹. The funding provided for in paragraph 1 of this article shall be issued for the respective electoral precincts and electoral districts in the case of holding a second round of elections only to the qualified electoral subjects whose nominee candidates participate in the second round of elections.

2. The CEC shall transfer the amount of funding of the representative of the electoral subject provided for in paragraph 1 of this article to the account of the relevant electoral subject not later than three days before the Election Day. The electoral subject shall be entitled to redistribute the amount to the relevant representatives in the district and precinct election commissions, so that the activities of no more than two representatives are funded in each commission.

3. The funded electoral subject is obliged to submit written information to the CEC on the use of the funds allocated for the financing of the representatives within 15 days after the summarising of the election results. If the funded electoral subject does not appoint a representative in the election commission and/or the amount is not fully used, the party is obliged to ensure the return of the relevant amount to the State Budget of Georgia within the same period.

4. For funded electoral subjects who do not participate in the second round of elections, the requirements set forth in paragraph 3 of this article shall apply from day of summarising the results of the first round of the respective elections.

5. A representative of an electoral subject who is included in the unified database of socially vulnerable families, the funding received under this article shall not be included in the joint income of the family and the state funding shall not be terminated.

Article 189– Temporary procedures for financing from the State Budget of Georgia of the election campaign fund for the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia

1. An electoral subject, that obtains 5% or more of votes in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections conducted under the proportional electoral system, shall receive a one-off sum of not more than GEL 1 000 000 from the State Budget of Georgia to cover election campaign expenses incurred in both rounds. An electoral subject shall receive such funding according to the information on the election campaign expenses submitted by it, after submitting a report referred to in Article 57 of this Law applicable before the recognition of the authority of the Parliament of Georgia elected in the next parliamentary elections of Georgia.
2. In order to receive financing of the expenses incurred during the election campaign from the State Budget of Georgia, the electoral subject shall submit a written application to the CEC not later than 38 days before the Election Day.
3. The respective amount provided for by paragraph 1 of this article shall be deposited into the account of the electoral subject not later than the 15th day following the summarisation of election results, based on the CEC summary protocol of election results.
4. To provide financial support to the election campaign of political parties, additional funds shall be allocated from the State Budget of Georgia to cover TV advertising expenses. Only those parties that became eligible for funding based on the results of the last general elections shall receive the sum provided for in this paragraph. To calculate the amount of the sum allocated to a party under this paragraph, the number of the votes obtained by the electoral subject in question in the last general elections shall be multiplied by three and divided by the number of the political associations making up the electoral subject. At the same time, the amount of the sum allocated for a party or an electoral bloc (regardless of the number of parties making up the bloc) running independently in the elections shall not exceed GEL 600 000. At least 15% of the sum allocated to the electoral subject shall be used for pre-election advertising in at least 7 broadcasters who are not national broadcasters.
5. If any party united in an electoral bloc does not run in the elections, the sum under paragraph 4 of this article shall be fully allocated to the parties united in the electoral bloc and running in the elections.
6. The CEC shall pay a broadcaster the expenses provided for in paragraph 4 of this article, within the amounts determined by the same paragraph, based on a contract between a broadcaster and an electoral subject, within 10 business days after the contract is submitted to the CEC.
7. Following the announcement of the final results of the elections:
 - a) within 5 business days, a party shall submit to the CEC the appropriate information about the final execution of the contract;
 - b) within 15 business days, a broadcaster shall return the appropriate sum to the State Budget of Georgia if the party fails to fully spend the amount allocated to it under this article.

1. An election/referendum campaign shall be funded from:
 - a) the funds of a political party;
 - b) the funds of the number one electoral bloc – if political associations are united in a single electoral subject;
 - c) the election funds opened by an initiative group of voters to fund the campaign of an independent candidate.
2. A candidate nominated by an electoral subject shall use the fund of the electoral subject nominating the candidate.
3. The basis for opening a bank account in a licensed commercial bank of Georgia for electioneering of an initiative group of voters shall be an ordinance on the registration of this electoral subject of a Chairperson of a relevant election commission.

4. An electoral subject shall be obliged to submit to the State Audit Office of Georgia the information about the bank account, from which the necessary costs shall be funded for an election campaign. The information submitted on the mentioned fund should also include the contact details of the persons responsible for managing the election campaign fund.
5. Election/referendum campaign funds shall be the money deposited into the relevant bank account, as well as all goods and services received free of charge (calculated at market prices), except for the cost of free advertising time received in accordance with the law
6. During elections, an electoral subject may not use other financial means than the respective funds.
7. The total amount of expenses incurred by the electoral subject during the year shall not exceed 0.1% of the gross domestic product of Georgia of the previous year. This amount includes the expenses incurred by the electoral subject and another person in its favour, which are determined by the State Audit Office and about which the relevant electoral subject is notified.
8. The upper limit of the total annual election expenses of an independent majoritarian candidate shall be determined as follows: the upper limit of the election campaign allowances for a political party (0.1% of the previous year's GDP) shall be divided by the total number of voters in the country and the number obtained must be multiplied by the number of voters in the respective electoral district.
9. Restrictions provided by the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens shall apply to election/referendum campaign expenses and sources of funding, except for the exception provided for by paragraph 10 of this article.
10. When a campaign is funded by an electoral bloc, it is possible for the parties united in the bloc to transfer the funds in the fund of their political associations to the fund of the political association, which is registered as the number one electoral bloc.
11. Violation of the requirement provided for by paragraphs 7 and 8 of this article shall result in a fine of double the amount of the expense incurred in excess.

Article 192– Temporary procedures for submitting a report on election campaign expenses before the acquisition of full power by the Parliament elected as a result of the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia

1. From the day of calling the elections, a candidate/electoral subject shall submit the financial report to the State Audit Office once in three weeks in the form prescribed by the State Audit Office.
2. Those electoral subjects who, according to the preliminary data, receive the required number of votes established by this Law, shall submit to the State Audit Office not later than 12 days after the polling day a report on the funds used as of the polling day.
3. The electoral subject participating in the second round is obliged to submit to the State Audit Office three days before the day of the second round the financial report of the activities carried out after the polling day of the first round.

4. Electoral subjects, not later than one month after the publication of the election results, and electoral subjects participating in the second round – not later than one month after the publication of the results of the second round, shall submit to the State Audit Office, together with the opinion of the audit (audit firm), a report on the funds used as of the date of publication of the final results from the day of calling the elections. An auditor certified in accordance with the Organic Law of Georgia on the State Audit Office shall have the right to conduct audit. If the election campaign expense does not exceed GEL 10,000 (ten thousand), the electoral subject shall have the right to submit a full election period report without an audit report.

5. The electoral subjects whose nominee majoritarian candidates participate in the second round of elections, not later than one month after the publication of the final results of the second round, and the electoral subjects who, according to preliminary data, receive the required number of votes established by this Law, not later than the 8th day after the polling day, shall submit information on funds which have not been used by the electoral subject in the form prescribed by the State Audit Office.

6. If the electoral subjects who receive the required number of votes established by this Law do not submit the election campaign fund report within the established period, or if the violation of the requirements of law is verified, they shall be warned in writing by the State Audit Office and shall request that the violation be eradicated and that detailed written information regarding the violation be provided. If the State Audit Office deems that the violation is substantial and could have affected the election results, it shall be entitled to make a recommendation to the relevant election commission to apply to a court with a request to summarise the election results without regard to the votes received by the said electoral subject.

7. The form of the report on the funds used for the elections and the procedure for its filling out shall be determined by the State Audit Office.

Additional procedures for determining the quotas of those political parties included in the election board in the case of calling extraordinary elections of the President of Georgia before the elections to be held through the proportional election system of the Parliament of Georgia, who acquired the mandates in the elections to be held under the proportional election system of the representative body of the municipality – Sakrebulo by being members of the electoral blocs, shall be determined by the ordinance of the CEC.

Organic Law of Georgia No 6723 of 2 July 2020 – website, 3.7.2020

Article 196 – Certain procedures and time frames applicable to the conduct of the Parliamentary elections of Georgia before the elections of the Parliament of Georgia to be held through the proportional election system

1. The procedures and time frames established by this Law shall be applied to the conduct of the parliamentary elections of Georgia before the elections of the Parliament of Georgia to be held through the proportional election system, unless otherwise provided for by this article.

2. The parliament elected in the next parliamentary elections of Georgia shall consist of 120 parliament members elected under the proportional system and 30 parliament members elected under the majoritarian system.

3. As a result of elections conducted under the proportional system, the seats of the Members of Parliament of Georgia shall be distributed to the political parties that receive at least one percent of the actual votes cast in the elections, and to the electoral blocs of those political parties the percentage of actual votes of which comprises at least one percent multiplied by the number of political parties included in the electoral block.

4. To determine the number of seats received by a political party or electoral bloc, the number of actual votes received by it shall be multiplied by 120 and divided by the sum of the actual number of votes received by all those political parties and electoral blocs, who have exceeded the relevant electoral threshold set forth in paragraph 3 of this article. The whole part of the number received shall be the number of seats received by a political party or electoral bloc. If the sum of the number of seats received by political parties and electoral blocs is less than 120, the non-distributed seats will be awarded sequentially to the political parties and electoral blocs with the biggest remaining number.

5. Percentage of total seats received by a political party or electoral bloc under the proportional and majoritarian systems in the total number of seats shall not exceed the sum of the percentage share and one fourth of the percentage share of those actual votes received under the proportional system by a political party or an electoral bloc included in the total number of actual votes received under the proportional system by political parties or electoral blocs. If the percentage of total seats received by a political party or electoral bloc under the proportional and majoritarian systems in the total number of seats exceeds the sum of the percentage share and one fourth of the percentage share of those actual votes received under the proportional system by a political party or an electoral bloc included in the total number of actual votes received under the proportional system by political parties or electoral blocs, the political party or electoral bloc will be deprived of relevant seats from the voter list submitted for the proportional elections and shall be distributed sequentially in accordance with paragraph 6 of this article according to the voter lists submitted by the other political parties and electoral blocs with better results, which have exceeded the relevant electoral threshold.

6. To distribute deprived seats, the number of actual votes received by a political party or electoral bloc authorised to receive a deprived seat shall be multiplied by the number of deprived seats and divided by the sum of actual votes received by political parties and electoral blocs authorised to receive deprived seats.

7. 30 single-seat majoritarian electoral districts shall be established for the parliamentary elections of Georgia in accordance with the administrative boundaries in force at the time of adoption of the relevant constitutional law:

a) Mtatsminda and Krtsanisi districts of Tbilisi Municipality; Vake district; Saburtalo district; Isani district; Samgori district; Didube and Chugureti districts; Gldani district; Nadzaladevi district;

8. A political party registered in accordance with the procedures established by law shall have the right to participate in the next parliamentary elections if its support is confirmed with the signatures of at least 5,000 voters under the procedures established by this law.

9. All qualified political parties (which receive funding from the State Budget of Georgia), all political parties that participated independently or as members of an electoral bloc in the recent parliamentary elections or the elections of the municipality body, shall be exempt from the obligation to confirm the support of at least 5,000 voters in order to participate in the next parliamentary elections of Georgia, if the party or the relevant electoral bloc receives at least 15,000 votes in at least one of the elections held under the proportional system, as well as all the political parties whose nominees or whose member candidates received at least 15,000 votes in the first round of the 2018 presidential elections of Georgia.

10. Each party and electoral bloc participating in the next parliamentary elections of Georgia shall have the right to submit one party list. The number of candidates for the membership of the Parliament in the submitted party list should not be less than 120 and not more than 200. In the party list submitted by the electoral bloc, each candidate for the membership of the Parliament must indicate the name of his/her nominating political party and/or its abbreviated name.

11. The time frame for establishing electoral precincts specified in Article 23(2) of this Law, determining the numbers of the majoritarian electoral districts specified in Article 110²(4) of this Law and for adopting an ordinance by the CEC specified in Article 110²(4) of this Law shall be not later than 1 August of the regular parliamentary elections of Georgia, and in the case of extraordinary parliamentary elections – not later than the 5th day after the date of calling the elections.

12. In the period from the next parliamentary elections of Georgia to the October 2024 parliamentary elections of Georgia, by-elections and extraordinary elections of the parliament shall be held in the administrative units determined in accordance with paragraph 7 of this article. The boundaries of the said electoral districts shall remain unchanged during this period, despite possible changes in the administrative boundaries of municipalities and the boundaries of local majoritarian electoral districts.

13. During its session the CEC shall summarise the results of the elections held under the proportional election system of the Parliament of Georgia on the basis of the protocols received from the district and precinct election commissions and court decisions not later than the 19th day after the Election Day, if necessary, shall schedule the second round of elections based on the ordinance, which shall be held on the third Saturday after the elections, and shall draw up a summary protocol of the results of the first round of elections, if the second round of elections is scheduled, but if the second round of elections is not scheduled – the summary protocol of the final results of the Parliamentary elections of Georgia. If the second round of elections is scheduled, the CEC shall draw up a summary protocol of the final results of the parliamentary elections of Georgia not later than the 19th day after the second round of the polling day.

14. The summary protocol of the results of the elections held under the proportional election system of the Parliament of Georgia shall indicate: number of participants in the elections held under the proportional election system and the number of invalid ballot papers; the total number of votes received by each electoral subject; percentage of votes received by each electoral subject; the numbers of the electoral districts and precincts in which the elections were declared invalid; as well as the number of voters in the electoral districts and precincts and the reasons for declaring the elections invalid.

15. The summary protocol of the results of the first round of the elections held under the majoritarian election system of the Parliament of Georgia shall indicate:

a) total number of voters in Georgia; the numbers of electoral districts and precincts in which the elections were declared invalid, as well as the number of voters in the electoral districts and precincts and the reasons for declaring the elections invalid; the date of the repeat voting – if therepeat voting has been scheduled, also the numbers of the electoral districts and precincts in which the repeat voting has been scheduled; the numbers of electoral districts in which the re-run elections were scheduled, and the date of the re-run elections;

a) the official name and its short form of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use the name);

b) the official the name, in full or in short, and the abbreviated name of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use the name);

c) the name, in full or in short, and the abbreviated name of an electoral bloc running in elections if the bloc filed the application to the CEC earlier (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use the name);

d) the name, in full or in short, and the abbreviated name used by another party/electoral bloc during the recent parliamentary elections, unless the consent thereto of the party/electoral bloc is obtained.

5. In the case provided for by paragraph 1(b) of this article, the respective CEC office shall provide a party representative with a sample of the list of supporting voters. The respective CEC office shall check the application and documents attached thereto and shall submit its report to the CEC Chairperson not later than the day after the filing of the application.

6. In the case provided for by paragraph 1(a) of this article, the CEC Chairperson shall, not later than the day after filing of the report referred to in paragraph 5 of this article:

a) register the party and its representative for election purposes if the application filed and the documents attached meet the requirements of this Law;

b) submit a written notification to a representative of the party about any non-compliance of the filed application and the attached documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance) and, if there is such non-compliance, give the party three days after receipt of notice for correction of the application and documents.

7. A corrected application and documents referred to in paragraph 6(b) of this article shall be verified and the decision about electoral registration shall be made within two days after submission of the application and documents. If the corrected application and documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the party and its representative for election purposes. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall, within the same time frame, issue an ordinance refusing to provide electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and shall be provided with a copy of the ordinance upon request.

8. In the case provided for by paragraph 1(b) of this article, the CEC Chairperson shall, not later than the third day after the provision of the report referred to in paragraph 5 of this article, notify the party representative in writing about any non-compliance of the application and attached documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance), if there is such non-compliance. The corrected application and documents shall be returned to the CEC within three days.

9. A party that fails to meet the condition under paragraph (1)(a) of this article shall, within 60 days after a sample form of the list of party supporters is received, but not later than 1 August, submit to the CEC the list of not less than 5 000 voters supporting participation of the party in elections of the Parliament of Georgia. The list of the party supporters shall be verified by an appropriate CEC office under the procedure and within a time limit determined in Article 38 of this Law. During the election period, an appropriate CEC office shall verify the lists of the party supporters and shall submit the report to the CEC Chairperson within two days after the lists are submitted.

10. If an application and attached documents (or a corrected application and documents), and the list of supporting voters under this article are submitted within the time frame determined in this Law and meet the requirements it sets, the CEC Chairperson shall, based on a report of the respective CEC office, register the party and its representative for election purposes within ten days after the receipt of the report, but not later than the 42nd day before Election Day. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall issue an ordinance within the same time about the refusal to provide electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and shall be provided with a copy of the ordinance upon request.

11. The CEC shall publish the list of registered parties on its official website in the order of submitting applications, not later than the 30th day before Election Day. It shall also publish the list of the parties that have been denied registration or the registration of which has been cancelled, specifying the reasons for the denial or cancellation.

12. The CEC Chairperson shall by ordinance cancel the registration of a party where:

a) the party applies for cancellation;

b) the Constitutional Court of Georgia prohibits operation of the party;

c) the electoral registration of the electoral bloc, to which the party is a member, is cancelled according Article 114(14)(c) or (d) of this Law;

d) the party leaves or is expelled from the electoral bloc before the summarisation of parliamentary election results after the expiry of the deadline for the submission of party lists by the bloc;

e) the party fails to submit a party list or the submitted party list has not been registered;

f) the number of candidates in the party list, not later than the 2nd day before Election Day, is less than the minimum number determined by this Law.

From the day of recognition of powers of the parliament elected as a result of the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia until the date of calling the next elections of the Parliament of Georgia to be held under the proportional election system, the by-elections of the Parliament of Georgia shall be conducted on the basis of the amendment to the relevant provision of this Law applicable before the recognition of powers of Parliament elected as a result of the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia.

Organic Law of Georgia No 6723 of 2 July 2020 – website, 3.7.2020

Article 199 –Certain election measures and deadlines determined for preventing the spread of the infection (COVID-19) caused by the novelcoronavirus (SARS-CoV-2)

1. The Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia is obliged to submit to the CEC not later than the 10th day before voting the information on the number of voters placed in inpatient facilities, infected with new coronavirus and those placed in quarantine areas and on their places of location.

2. Based on the information provided in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article and the recommendation of the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia to the CEC, the CEC shall make a decision based on an ordinance on the expediency of the conduct of voting in the above-mentioned locations.

3. If the CEC decides to conduct voting in the above-mentioned locations:

a) voters placed in inpatient facilities, the infected with the novel coronavirus and those placed in quarantine areas shall participate:

a.a) in the elections of the Parliament of Georgia to be held under the proportional election system;

a.b) in the elections of the Parliament of Georgia to be held under the majoritarian election system, if their registration address and their location specified in this paragraph are located within the borders of the same majoritarian electoral district;

a.c) elections of the Supreme Council of the Autonomous Republic of Ajara to be held under the proportional election system, if their registration address and their location specified in this paragraph are in the territory of the Autonomous Republic of Ajara;

a.d) elections of the Supreme Council of the Autonomous Republic of Ajara to be held under the majoritarian election system, if their registration address and their location specified in this paragraph are in the territory of the Autonomous Republic of Ajara;

a.e) in the extraordinary elections of the mayors of the municipalities and in the by-elections of the Sakrebulo, if their registration address and their location specified in this paragraph are located within the borders of the same municipality/local majoritarian electoral district;

b) the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia is obliged to submit to the CEC not later than the 6th day before the voting,a list of persons who will be placed in quarantine areas/inpatient medical institutions due to the novel coronavirus infection;

c) not later than the 3rd day before the voting, on the basis of the data provided in accordance with subparagraph (b) of this paragraph and the data of the members of the relevant special group, the CEC shall approve special lists, in which the entry 'transferred to a special list' is made in the unified list of voters along with the last name and first name of the registered voters;

d) a voter specified in subparagraph (c) of this paragraph, who has been transferred to a special list, is obliged to submit a certificate issued by the relevant agency of the Ministry of Internally Displaced Persons from the Occupied Territories, Labour, Health and Social Affairs of Georgia, which confirms the fact and date of his/her departure from his/her place oflocation specified in paragraph 1 of this article. The mentioned certificate shall be attached to the election documents;

e) the types of ballot papers issued to the members of the special group included in the special list shall be issued in the same manner as defined by this Law for the members of other election commissions included in the special list;

f) a voter included in the special list defined by this article shall vote through a mobile ballot box or at a polling station established at the location specified in this article. The CEC shall resolve the matter by an ordinance, as well as matters related to voting by registered voters, assignment to the main polling stations if necessary, duration of the polling day, counting of votes, participation of observers and representatives of electoral subjects, and matters related to voting procedures and the drafting of the summary protocol.

4. For conducting elections in the cases provided for by paragraphs 1-3 of this article, as well as in the case of origination of such circumstances in other election commissions when a member(s) of the election commission or the entire election commission fails to perform the duties due to the health condition or circumstances related to such condition, the CEC shall establish a special group (special groups) by an ordinance on the basis of at least 2/3 of the votes present at the session and approve its (their) composition and the scope of its (their) authority. The special group shall consist of 12 members (if necessary, less members may be determined by the CEC). The members of the special group shall comply with the requirements set by this law for the members of the Precinct Election Commission. The half of the group members, including the leaders of the special group, shall be appointed by the CEC immediately after the group is formed. The second half shall be appointed within two days of the formation of the group, and if there are less than two days remaining before the voting, the second half of the group shall be appointed the same day by the parties who have the right, under this law, to appoint the members of the commission. If the party does not exercise such right within the period specified in this paragraph, the CEC shall have the right to complete the special group, if necessary, to the set number of members by appointing the members of the special group.

5. In order to prevent the spread of the novel coronavirus the CEC shall be authorised, if necessary, to determine by an ordinance:

a) sanitary and hygienic requirements for entering/leaving and staying/moving in the buildings owned and/or transferred to the election commissions by the persons authorized by this Law, as provided for by the applicable legislation and the recommendations developed by the relevant agencies;

b) conditions for conducting thermal screenings in the polling station for members of election commissions, representatives of election commissions, representatives of electoral subjects, observers of observer organisations and accredited representatives of the press and mass media, actions to be taken in the case of the detection of temperature, as well as rules for mandatory use of face masks, disinfectants, maintaining of social distance, if necessary, by persons entitled to be present in the polling station (including by voters) and decisions to be taken in the cases of refusal to carry out the measures specified in the ordinance issued by the CEC by the above-mentioned persons. If the CEC determines the obligation to wear a face mask, the CEC will ensure the transfer of the face masks to the relevant persons. A person without a face mask will not be allowed in the polling station/election commission building, except for the case where the wearing of a face mask is not possible due to the health condition of the person, which shall be confirmed by the person by the relevant medical document;

c) other matters not covered by this article, which, together with the conduct of the election process in accordance with the legislation, ensure the prevention of the possible spread of the novel coronavirus.

6. The CEC shall make a decision on the expediency of establishing polling stations and holding voting in another state, not later than the 30th day before the voting, based on the information provided by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Georgia on the epidemiological situation in another state.

Article 200 – Temporary procedures for the participation of voters using wheelchairs in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia

1. Voters using wheelchairs shall be entitled to participate in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia at any adapted polling station in the territory of the relevant majoritarian electoral district, for which they shall apply to the relevant district or precinct election commission not later than the 6th day before the polling day. In order for a voter to change a polling station:

a) the secretary of a district/precinct election commission shall register and endorse with his/her signature a written application (the application shall include the personal identification number of a citizen of Georgia) or a telephoned verbal application (in this case, the application shall include the personal number of a voter, exact time of the telephone notification and the appropriate telephone number) of a voter;

b) in the case of a voter's application to the district election commission, the relevant precinct election commission shall be notified about the inclusion of a registered voter in the special voter list of an adapted polling station registered in the voter list of the said polling station. In the case of a voter's application to the precinct election commission, the precinct election commission shall transfer the information about the voter to the relevant district election commission not later than the 6th day before the polling day;

c) the unified voters list shall indicate the transfer of a voter to a special voter list in an adapted electoral precinct in the territory of the same majoritarian electoral district, also, in the unified voters list and the special voters list, in the 'Actual Status column, the entry 'a User of a wheelchair' shall be made, which shall be endorsed by the signatures of the chairperson of the precinct election commission and the Secretary of the same commission.

2. The members of the precinct election commission, representatives of electoral subjects and the observers shall have the right to verify the validity of the request for voting at a polling station adapted for wheelchair users and at any time raise before the PEC the issue of the expediency of including these voters in the relevant special list before the Election Day. The decision on this matter shall be made by the district election commission within the timeframe established by this article, based on the information provided by the precinct election commission.

3. The district election commission shall establish and approve on the basis of an ordinance the special list of adapted polling station voters not later than the 3rd day before the polling day, received from the precinct election commissions, as well as on the basis of their own data, and shall immediately transfer to the relevant precinct election commission a version of the list intended for the public information, signed by the chairperson and the secretary of the same commission, and not later than 12 hours before the voting – the version intended for the election commission.

4. The special voter list of the adapted polling station shall include the same voter data as in the unified voters list, and shall additionally indicate the serial number of the voter in the unified voters list.

5. The version of the special list of voters of the adapted polling station designated for public information (without photos) transferred by the district election commission to the precinct election commission shall be immediately posted in a visible place inside the PEC building (polling station).

6. The state bodies, municipality bodies, legal entities under public law (except for membership-based and religious unions) and organisations established with more than 50% participation interest of the state and municipality bodies are obliged to adapt at least four buildings for the placement of electoral precincts in the territory of the respective majoritarian electoral district (in different places, according to the geographical/territorial principle) in order to ensure availability for voters using wheelchairs, and provide information on adapted electoral precincts to the Election Administration of Georgia by 1 September 2020.

Article 202 – Temporary procedures for registration of parties/electoral blocs for running in the elections of the representative body of the municipality – Sakrebulo until 1 January 2021

1. In order to be eligible to participate in the elections of the representative body of the municipality – Sakrebulo, a party/an electoral bloc shall apply to the Chairperson of the CEC with an appropriate application signed by its leading person(s):

a) after calling the Sakrebulo elections, not later than the 57th day before the Election Day, if it meets one of the following conditions:

a.a) it was registered during the last parliamentary elections;

a.b) has a representative in the Parliament of Georgia for the day of calling the elections;

b) from 1 January to 15 July of the year of elections of municipality bodies, if it fails to meet any of the conditions set forth in subparagraph (a) of this paragraph.

2. A party that fails to meet any of the conditions set forth in paragraph 1(a) of this article shall, within 60 days of receiving a sample list of party supporters, but not later than 15 August, submit to the CEC a list of at least 1 000 voters supporting the participation of a party in the elections of the municipality representative body – Sakrebulo, if it is a qualified electoral subject, and if it is not a qualified electoral subject, a list of at least 25 000 (the number shall not exceed 1% of the total number of voters) voters. The list of supporters shall be verified by the relevant service of the CEC in accordance with the procedure and within the time limit established by Article 38 of this Law. During the election period, the relevant service of the CEC shall verify the lists of supporters and submit a report to the Chairperson of the CEC within two days after the submission of the lists.

3. An application shall be attached with an excerpt from the register of political associations of citizens (parties) issued by the legal entity under public law called the National Agency of Public Registry operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia, before the application was submitted to the CEC, within the last 10 days, with indication of a person (persons) authorised to be the head/representative of a party. At the time of registration of the party, to verify/confirm the authenticity of the data in the excerpt issued by the legal entity under public law called the National Agency of Public Registry operating under the Ministry of Justice of Georgia, the Agency shall provide the CEC with the possibility of accessing the bases of electronic data and verification.

4. An application shall include the following information about a party:

a) the name and/or its abbreviated name, if such is indicated in the statute of the party. Additionally, the names and surnames, or only surnames of no more than three leaders of the party may be indicated. The name by which the political party has been registered shall remain unchanged on the ballot paper;

b) the first and last name, address (according to the place of registration), telephone number and specimen of signature of a leader(s) of the party;

c) the first, last name, address (according to the identity certificate of a citizen of Georgia or the Agency database), the telephone number and the scope of powers of a representative;

d) if there are several leaders, the scope of powers of each leader in relation to the party's electoral process.

5. The name, its shortened form and an abbreviated name referred to in paragraph 4(a) of this article shall not coincide with:

a) the official name and its short form of another party registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use them);

b) the name and its short form of an electoral bloc running in elections if the application of the electoral bloc has been submitted to the Chairperson of the CEC earlier (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use them);

c) the name and its short form used by another party/electoral bloc during the recent parliamentary elections, unless the consent thereto of the party/electoral bloc is obtained.

6. The respective CEC office shall check the application and documents attached thereto and shall submit its report to the CEC Chairperson not later than the day after the filing of the application.

7. The CEC Chairperson shall, not later than the day after filing of the report referred to in paragraph 6 of this article:

a) register the party and its representative for election purposes if the application filed and the documents attached meet the requirements of this Law;

b) submit a written notification to a representative of the party about any non-compliance of the filed application and the attached documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance) and, if there is such non-compliance, give the party two days after receipt of notice for correction of the application and documents;

c) in the case provided for by paragraph 2 of this article, the issue of final registration of the party shall be decided only after checking the lists of supporters.

8. A corrected application and documents referred to in paragraph 7(b) of this article shall be verified and the decision about electoral registration shall be made not later than the following day after submission of the application and documents. If the corrected application and documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the party and its representative for election purposes (except for the provided for by paragraph 2 of this article). Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall, within the same time frame, issue an ordinance refusing to provide electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and shall be provided with a copy of the ordinance upon request. These procedures shall end not later than the 37th day before the Election Day.

9. If an application and attached documents (or a corrected application and documents), and the list of supporting voters under this article are submitted within the time frame determined in this Law and meet the requirements it sets, the CEC Chairperson shall, based on a report of the respective CEC office, register the party and its representative for election purposes not later than the following day after the receipt of the report. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall issue an ordinance within the same time about the refusal to provide electoral registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the party shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and shall be provided upon request.

10. Parties registered by the CEC shall have the right to form an electoral bloc and leave the bloc. For the registration of the electoral bloc, not later than the 43rd day before the Election Day, the CEC Chairperson shall submit an application signed by the authorised leaders of all parties united in the bloc and the statute of the electoral bloc.

11. An application shall include the following information about a party:

- a) the name and, if applied, its short form by which it runs in the elections, also a list of parties united in the bloc;
- b) the first, last name, address (according to the identity certificate of a citizen of Georgia or the Agency database), of a leader(s);
- c) the first, last name, address (according to the identity certificate of a citizen of Georgia or the Agency database), the telephone number and the scope of powers of a representative;
- d) if there are several leaders, the scope of powers of each leader in relation to the party's electoral process.

12. The name, its shortened form and an abbreviated name referred to in paragraph 11(a) of this article shall not coincide with:

- a) the official name and its short form of a party (except for the party united in the same bloc) registered by the Ministry of Justice of Georgia (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use them);
- b) the name and its short form of another electoral bloc running in elections if the application of the electoral bloc has been submitted to the Chairperson of the CEC earlier (in the case of coincidence, the party may not use them);
- c) the name and its short form used by another electoral bloc during the recent parliamentary elections, unless the consent thereof of the electoral bloc is obtained.

13. The statutes of an electoral bloc, signed by the leaders of all parties united in the bloc, shall include:

- a) name, and if applied, its short form of the electoral bloc under which the bloc runs in the election;
- b) list of the parties united in the electoral bloc;
- c) governing body (if any) of the electoral bloc, leaders and their powers;
- d) procedure for decision-making by the electoral bloc, including the procedures for acceptance, withdrawal or exclusion of a party from the bloc, nomination of candidates for a representative body by the bloc, and cancellation of such nomination;
- e) person(s) authorised to sign electoral bloc documents;
- f) procedure for using the seal of one of the electoral bloc member parties in relation to election activities;
- g) procedure for appointment of the persons in charge of election campaign expense, the manager, and the accountant;

h) procedure for making amendments to the electoral bloc statutes.

14. A party member of one electoral bloc may not be a member of another electoral bloc, or may not run independently in the same election.

15. The CEC shall, upon the acceptance of an application and statutes as referred to in paragraph 10 of this article, give to the representative of an electoral bloc a document evidencing the submission of the above application and statutes.

16. The respective CEC office shall verify an application and statute submitted as referred to in paragraph 10 of this article and shall submit its report to the CEC Chairperson not later than the day after the filing of an application. The CEC Chairperson shall immediately provide electoral registration of an electoral bloc and its representative if the submitted documents meet the requirements defined in paragraphs 11-14 of this article. If the submitted documents do not meet the above requirements, the CEC Chairperson shall notify the electoral bloc representative, in writing, about non-compliance of the documents with the provisions of this Law (specifying the details of non-compliance). Corrected documents shall be re-submitted to the CEC not later than the following day after notification. The CEC Chairperson shall make a final decision on registration within two days after acceptance of the corrected documents. If the corrected documents meet the requirements of this Law, the CEC Chairperson shall register the electoral bloc and its representative. Otherwise, the CEC Chairperson shall issue an ordinance refusing registration (the ordinance shall specify the reasons for the refusal to provide electoral registration and the applicable provisions of this Law that are the basis for refusal). A representative of the electoral bloc shall immediately be notified about the ordinance and the ordinance shall be provided to the representative upon request. The registration procedure referred to in this paragraph shall end on the 37th day before Election Day.

17. A party having gone through electoral registration may join a registered electoral bloc prior to the expiration of the term for registration of electoral blocs. For these purposes, the party shall file an application with the CEC Chairperson and submit a consent of the electoral bloc.

18. The CEC Chairperson by an ordinance shall, upon registration of an electoral bloc, cease the powers of representatives of the parties united in the bloc to all election commissions. The electoral bloc may appoint 2 representatives to each election commission.

19. If a party (parties) withdraws or is expelled from an electoral bloc before the expiration of the deadline for nomination of party lists/candidates, each of them may continue running in elections. If only one party remains in an electoral bloc for the above reason, electoral registration of the electoral bloc shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the CEC chairperson, and the parties previously united in the bloc may continue running in elections.

20. If a party withdraws or is expelled from an electoral bloc after the expiration of the deadline for nomination of party lists/candidates, the electoral registration of the party shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the CEC Chairperson. If only one party remains in the electoral bloc for the above reason, the electoral registration of the bloc shall be cancelled by an ordinance of the CEC Chairperson and the party remaining shall become the legal successor of the bloc.

21. The CEC shall publish the list of registered parties and electoral blocs on its official website in the order of submitting applications, not later than the 30th day before Election Day, as well as the list of the parties electoral blocs that have been denied registration or the registration of which has been cancelled, specifying the reasons for the denial or cancellation.

Article 203 – Certain temporary procedures for submitting party lists for the parliamentary elections of Georgia to be held in 2032 and for the general elections of municipality bodies to be held before 2028

1. The procedures and deadlines established by this Law shall be applied when submitting party lists for the parliamentary elections of Georgia to be held in 2032 and for the general elections of municipality bodies to be held before 2028, unless otherwise provided for by this article.

2. The procedures for compiling a party list for the parliamentary elections of Georgia to be held before the 26 October 2024 parliamentary elections of Georgia shall be determined by a political party or an electoral bloc in such manner that at least one person in each four on the party list submitted to the CEC chairperson is a representative of an opposite sex. The relevant electoral subject shall submit the party list to the CEC chairperson not later than the 30th day before the Election Day. If in the party list submitted by the electoral subject there is no gender balance established by this paragraph, the list shall be returned to the electoral subject and it shall be given three days to rectify the defect. If the defect is not rectified, the party list shall not be

(The normative content of the first sentence of Article 203(2), which stipulates that at least the fourth person in the electoral list for the Parliamentary Elections of Georgia to be held before the Parliamentary Elections of Georgia of 26 October 2024, shall be deemed invalid) Decision of the Constitutional Court of Georgia of 25 September 2020, No 3/3/1526 – website, 29.9.2020

3. The procedures for compiling a party list for the 26 October 2024 parliamentary elections of Georgia and for the next parliamentary elections to be held before 2028 shall be determined by a political party in such manner that at least one person in each four on the party list submitted to the CEC chairperson is a representative of an opposite sex. The relevant political party must submit the party list to the CEC chairperson not later than the 30th day before the Election Day. If in the party list submitted by the political party there is no gender balance established by this paragraph, the list shall be returned to the political party and it shall be given three days to rectify the defect. If the defect is not rectified, the party list shall not be registered

4. The procedures for compiling a party list for the 28 October 2028 parliamentary elections of Georgia and for the next parliamentary elections to be held before 2032 shall be determined by a political party in such manner that at least one person in each three on the party list submitted to the CEC chairperson is a representative of an opposite sex. The relevant political party shall submit the party list to the CEC chairperson not later than the 30th day before the Election Day. If in the party list submitted by the electoral subject there is no gender balance established by this paragraph, the list shall be returned to the party and it shall be given three days to rectify the defect. If the defect is not rectified, the party list shall not be registered.

5. An electoral subject shall be entitled to submit a party list to the CEC chairperson for the elections specified in paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article in such manner that at least one person in each three on the party list submitted to the CEC chairperson is a representative of an opposite sex. In the case of the fulfilment of the mentioned requirement, the electoral subject shall receive additional funding provided for by the Organic Law of Georgia on Political Associations of Citizens.

6. If an MP of Georgia who was elected under the party list of party independently running in the elections withdraws, his/her seat shall be occupied by the next successful candidate for MP in the party list who is a representative of the same sex, within one month, provided that the candidate gives his/her consent on the parliament membership within 15 days after the vacancy. Otherwise, the vacancy shall be taken by the next successful candidate in the list, who is a representative of the same sex. If there is no candidate of the same sex elected to the Parliament of Georgia on the party list, the vacancy shall be taken by the candidate for the next Parliament of Georgia withdrawn from the list of the members of the Parliament of Georgia.

7. If an MP of Georgia who was elected under the party list of an electoral bloc withdraws and the party list specifies that he/she was a member of one of the parties of an electoral bloc, the seat of the member who withdraws shall be occupied within one month by the next successful candidate of the same party in the list who is a representative of the same sex, if the candidate gives his/her consent to become an MP of Georgia within 15 days after the vacancy. Otherwise, the vacant seat shall be occupied by the candidate of the same party named next in the list of the same sex. Unless the party list specifies that the person is a member of one of the parties of the electoral bloc, his/her successor shall be determined as specified in paragraph 5 of this article.

8. The procedures for compiling a party list for the general municipal elections to be held before 2028 shall be determined by a political party in such manner that one in every two candidates on the submitted list is of an opposite sex.

9. For the general elections of municipality bodies to be held before 2028, the relevant political party shall submit a party list to the chairperson of the relevant district election commission not later than the 30th day before the polling day. If in the party list submitted by the political party there is no gender balance established by this article for the general elections of municipality bodies, the list shall be returned to the party and the party shall be given three days to rectify the defect. If the defect is not rectified, the party list shall not be registered.

10. If the authority of a member of the representative body of the municipality – Sakrebulo elected by the proportional electoral system is terminated prematurely, his/her seat in the relevant Sakrebulo shall be taken within two weeks by his/her successor, the candidate of the same sex for the membership of Sakrebulo who follows him/her in the same party list, if the candidate gives his/her consent to become a member of Sakrebulo within 10 days from the receipt of the notification from the relevant district election commission. If there is no candidate of the same sex for the membership of Sakrebulo on the submitted party list, the vacancy shall be taken by the candidate for the membership of Sakrebulo who follows the member who has been withdrawn from the list.

Article 203¹ – Exemption from the obligation to submit a drug test certificate when registering as a candidate for MP in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia and the procedure for submitting a drug test certificate by a person elected as an MP in the said elections

1. In order to be registered as a candidate for MP in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia, a person is not required to submit a drug test certificate as provided for by this Law. If, before the entry of this article into force, a person has not been registered as a candidate for MP in the elections only because of the failure to submit a drug test certificate, the chairperson of the respective election commission is obliged to register such candidate within 3 days after the entry of this article into force.

2. A person elected as an MP in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia shall, within 7 days from the polling day, undergo a drug test at the facility authorised to conduct drug testing as determined by the CEC under this Law, and submit a drug test certificate within the same timeframe to the election commission where he/she was registered as a candidate for MP in the elections.

3. The CEC shall publish on its website the drug test certificates determined by paragraph 2 of this article and the information on the failure of the persons elected as MPs in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia to submit drug test certificates, within 2 days after the expiration of the timeframe specified in that paragraph.

4. When submitting the documents determined by Article 15(2)(i) of this Law to the Interim Credentials Commission of the Parliament elected in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia, the CEC Chairperson shall submit to the newly elected parliament the information on the drug testing of the persons elected as MPs in the 2020 Parliamentary Elections of Georgia.
